It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

JOURNAL
THE SENATE
OF THE
STATE OF MICHIGAN.

1887.

Printed by virtue of an Act of the Legislature, under the direction and supervision of

LEWIS M. MILLER,

SECRETARY OF THE SENATE.

IN TWO VOLUMES.—VOL. II.

BY AUTHORITY.

LANSING, MICH.
THORP AND GODFREY, STATE PRINTERS AND BINDERS.
1887.

The entire expense fund of this association is provided for by the annual dues and ten per cent of each assessment collected. This ten per cent is only to be taken when necessity requires it. There is also a small amount of money that comes in from the membership fees. In the year 1886, the whole amount of the expense fund received in the office was $716.50. The secretary of this association receives for his services $30 per month, and no other officer is paid for services except that the medical director is paid a fee for examining each application.

The amount of money received from assessments, less ten per cent for expenses, constitutes the mortuary fund. The beneficiary of a loss is paid the per cent which his certificate calls for of the assessment made to cover his loss, less the cost of the postage in making the assessment, and the remainder is put into a surplus fund for the benefit of the members, to be used and disposed of by them at their annual meeting.

The number of assessments that can be made is not limited, but in the experience of the company they have averaged to pay two death losses from one assessment.

THE UNION MUTUAL ASSOCIATION.

A synopsis of the testimony given before your committee by Mr. Chas. E. Foote, who has been the secretary of this association since its organization in September, 1879, will very clearly illustrate the plan and methods of this company, and also their views of the essentials requisite in a successful co-operative insurance association. In substance he said: The object of this association is to furnish insurance, upon the assessment plan, on the lives of those who may become its members, in any amount not exceeding $5,000, to be paid to such beneficiaries as the members shall direct in their applications, who may have a legitimate insurable interest in their lives. Our certificates are issued upon lives between the ages of 17 and 60. Originally our company wrote up to 65 years inclusive, but in 1880 or 1881, by resolution of the board of trustees the age was reduced to 60.

The principal reason that led us to reduce the age was that we believed that we were carrying more risk than was best to do at those ages. When a man is 60 he soon becomes 70, and then the risk is altogether too excessive for us to carry. I do not think it is prudent for a company to take new insurance beyond the age of 60 years. I think, as a rule, beyond the age of 65 at most, there is but a small insurable interest in any life.

That is to say, beyond the age of 65 years, as a rule, a life becomes non-productive. An insurance company is supposed to write upon something that has money value in itself, and comparatively few men beyond the age of 65 years are producers. A life insurance company, I think, has nothing to do with the affection a man may have for his family or his family for him. The idea of insurance is to reimburse the beneficiaries for some money loss in case of the death of the insured. I believe that the beneficiaries must have a pecuniary interest in the continuance of the lives insured. When you go outside of that you open the door to all sorts of fraud and make a temptation to crime.

I do not know of any better term for an insurance that did not contain that principle than that it is gambling in human life. Such a policy would be a wager policy, and against public policy. I think a preponderance of contracts written on lives beyond the age of 65 would be in the nature of wager policies.

In order to determine the insurable interest we require the relationship of the applicant to the beneficiary to be given in our applications. We issue policies payable only to the husband or wife or children of the insured, and we have no policies issued outside of those. We have never issued any policy payable to a creditor, neither have we accepted assignments of policies to creditors.

Wherever an assignment has been made and it has come to our knowledge, we have notified the parties that such an assignment was made at their own risk and that we should not agree to pay under the assignment. There seems to be a difference of opinion among attorneys as to the validity of an assignment, whether companies have a right to accept assignments of policies or not, and we think it safer for us to take the benefit of the doubt and refuse all assignments.

Whenever the amount of our mortuary fund is reduced below five thousand dollars by the payment of losses we are required to make an assessment among our members.

The assessments are made upon each member for a sum based upon the American experience tables of mortality, and the amount of each assessment depends upon the age of the party at the time he was insured, and the amount of insurance that he has. The assessments remain the same during the continuance of the contract. The present average age of our members on January 1st was forty-three years. The average age of our members has increased nearly three years in eight years. I think that the time comes when the average age of a membership of a company will not increase, assuming that the company transacts a fair amount of business; that the incoming members will counter-balance the increasing age of the older members, taking that together with the outgoing policy holders, those whose policies terminate by death or lapse, I think that by issuing policies not exceeding 60 years that we can preserve an average never exceeding 47 years. With any new company the average age will increase for the reason that the deaths and lapses in a new company are much less than they will be in a few years. After a policy has become three or four years old I think that the lapsing is perhaps more among the younger members than the old, and in cases of emergency I think the stronger lives would be the ones that would lapse. I have contemplated submitting to our board of trustees and getting them to submit to our members the plan of accumulating a reserve or emergency fund upon something of this basis: That a certain percentage of the assessments made, say 20 per cent of the amount, should be set aside, and there should be charged out of this reserve the increasing cost of insurance to each member as his age increased. That should be set aside to the credit of each policy, and as the policy holder advanced in years the increasing cost to be charged out from his individual reserve. That would be something of the plan of the Old Line companies, but by no means so large a reserve. I think a reserve may not be absolutely necessary to the permanent security of an assessment company; at the same time I think it is advisable and by all means the safer course to pursue. The fact of the possession of a reserve which could be drawn upon to pay current losses in case of unusual mortality would tend to prevent a stampede of members, and I think that is one of the objects of a reserve.

On December 31st last, we had 2557 policies in force. The number of individual members would be probably fifty less than that.

We require each applicant to sign an application, on which he gives his own history and his own physical condition and his family history, and we require him to submit to an examination by a medical examiner who is a graduate of some regular medical college, and a man who is in active practice, and he must also subscribe to the statement to the examiner in that application. Each applicant is required to sign the application in three different places, and we require the medical examiner to identify the applicant as the one who made the application to the agent. Our medical examination is a physical examination. Our medical examiners are appointed by the medical director subject to the approval of the board of trustees. Each examiner must furnish to us, on a blank prepared by the company, a statement as to his own qualifications, the length of time he has been in practice, the college from which he graduated, and also must furnish us medical reference, and where necessary we write to those medical references, and ascertain as far as possible his ability and his reliability. We do not allow any agent to select his own examiners in any case, but require the examination to be made by the examiner appointed by the medical director, except there may be occasionally an exceptional case, and then we require an explanation from the agent as to why he sent in an application which was examined by some one not appointed by the association. We endeavor to use the utmost care in the selection of our members, and I think in the main we are successful. I do not see how a company can be successfully conducted unless they require a thorough physical examination of each applicant by a medical man who is thoroughly competent, and not only thoroughly competent, but a man who will give the company the benefit of a doubt. When applications come into our office, if there is no other objection than a physical objection, they are placed before our medical director for examination, and if he withholds his approval no certificate is issued. After a certificate is issued it is entered up on our membership register, which gives all the particulars in relation to it, and upon this record we make our assessments. In the eight years we have been in business we have only collected twenty-four assessments, and for the past five years we have made assessments quarterly at regular times, four assessments a year.

Where we have a sufficient number of members in any locality we appoint some man there as a collector, and notices are sent to the members giving them a list of losses that have occurred since the previous assessment. These notices contain the name of the member who died, the date and cause of death, the name of the beneficiary and the amount of the insurance.

On the same notice is also given a statement of our mortality fund, showing the entire amount of money received up to the date of the last assessment, and also the amount received since our last assessment up to the date of the one then going out, and also all money that has been paid out from the mortality fund up to the previous assessment, and also the losses, each loss on which any money has been paid since the previous assessment—showing in detail the receipts and disbursements of the mortuary fund up to the time of making the assessment. After these notices are sent out we send to these collectors the receipts and notify the members to pay him or remit to this office as may best suit their purpose, and the collector at the end of the forty days—there is that much grace given in the payment of assessments—is required to make a report to us upon blanks furnished by us of all collections made and return to us the unpaid receipts. We usually pay our collectors five per cent. After the assessment is received in the office it is entered upon our cash book and the amount paid by each member is credited to his individual account which we term the assessment and due register. We keep a cash account with each member, and also with our collectors. The amount is then divided into its appropriate funds.

In case of a life policy, 20 per cent. of each assessment is put into the contingent fund, 80 per cent. goes into the mortality fund and used only in payment of death losses. In cases of an accumulating life policy, 20 per cent. of the assessment is put into the contingent fund, and 20 per cent. of the remainder or 16 per cent. of the gross assessment is put into the deposit fund and the remainder into the mortuary fund. Of the deposit fund, that amount is used for the purpose of payment of assessment upon policies that have been in force ten years. Those policies are written upon a specific form and accumulate a reserve to themselves for the purpose of continuing the assessments after the ten years.

Then after paying commissions to agents as allowed by the contract with the trustees, the remainder is paid over to the treasurer. We furnish the treasurer a statement of the amount received whenever a payment is made, and on the second Tuesday of each month the treasurer must make his report to the finance committee.

The finance committee at that time go into the office and examine the books and make their report from them. So that at that time the finance committee goes to the office of the association and examines the books and the reports of agents, go through the files and check the contract and ascertain the total amounts paid by the agents, comparing that with the cash book and then comparing it with treasurer's account or his report. All of these items are checked through and footed. We keep a separate account with each member of the association, with each agent, with each collector, with the treasurer, and with each of the other officers of the company, and books so kept that we can readily ascertain the condition of the accounts of the company at that time, and are subject to review and inspection by the finance committee once each month; or at any time they may see fit.

Our expense fund, or as we term it, the contingent fund, until last March consisted of 20 per cent of the assessments and one dollar on each thousand dollars of insurance per annum. Since last March our annual dues have been increased to two dollars per thousand per annum. This fund may be used for expenses, and has been with this exception, that we paid five hundred dollars out of that fund into the mortuary fund not long since. In all cases eighty per cent. of the assessments is put into the mortuary fund, and there is no power by which we can use any part of that for any other purpose.

THE UNIVERSAL RELIEF AND INDEMNITY ASSOCIATION.

This Association was started by four gentlemen, residents of Detroit, in April, 1885. Articles of Associations were filed with the Secretary of State but none have been filed with the county clerk that your Committee can learn. It is not a life insurance society, but its object is to pay weekly indemnity to its members during sickness or in case of an accident. For a stated monthly sum it proposes to pay to its members a certain stated weekly indemnity in cases of sickness or accident. The amount of the assessments and the sum agreed to be paid are graded according to the age of the members at the time of their joining. The ages at which it receives members are from 18 to 60 years, and the payments which they make to the society range from fifty cents to three dollars and twenty-five cents per month, and the weekly indemnity which the society agrees to pay is from five dollars to twenty-five dollars. Its present membership is between five and six hundred.

Its expense fund is derived from annual dues of three dollars per year, which is paid semi-annually in advance, and twenty per cent. of assessments collected. The charge for admission to the society is six dollars. The indemnities are paid from eighty per cent. of the assessments collected.

This association was evidently organized by its projectors for the purpose of making money out of it, but they claim to have received nothing in the way of profits, the original amount invested by them to start the company not having been re-paid to them as yet. Its officers are paid nothing for their services, with the exception of the general agent, who receives a salary of forty dollars per month and a certain portion of the membership fee from the local agents, and the person who does the office work and acts as secretary, who receives sixty dollars per month.

From the report of this Association to the Insurance Commissioner it appears that their total income for the year 1886, was $14,008.25, and that the amount paid back to its members upon claims was $3,294.95, which shows that the members paid three dollars to the society, where they have received back but one dollar.

The experience of the company in this class of insurance is said to be that there are a great many fraudulent claims made for indemnity, and that people seem to go into it for the purpose of remaining for a time and then having a sick spell or a little accident and then drawing from the society much more than they have paid to it, and then dropping out.

OFFICE OF
OF MICHIGAN. }

Your committee visited this company, at Lansing, April 20th, 1887. It insures persons between the ages of 40 and 85 years inclusive, and issue policies only for one thousand dollars. The membership fee is fifteen dollars and the semi-annual dues two dollars each. The assessments are graded according to the age, ranging from one dollar upon persons of from 40 to 60, to six dollars at the age of 85. In its policies it agrees to pay upon its death losses the whole amount collected from an assessment made upon the members, not exceeding one thousand dollars, and its policies are payable at their face when issued if sufficient is collected. Dr. Alexander D. Hagadorn, being sworn, testified that he was medical examiner of this company and also interested in it as a policy holder. That he approves the application upon which certificates are issued. That this company does not expect that the person insured is before the examining physician in all cases, although that seems to be intended by the wording of the medical blank and the advertising circulars of the company. That the person to be insured is considered the applicant and that he should not consider the beneficiary as the applicant. That he has recommended a policy to be issued on an application signed by the beneficiary in his own name, but that he does not know by what rule that is done. That he should presume the beneficiary to be the member of this company. The assessments are paid by the beneficiaries and all notice and correspondence is done with the beneficiary.

The doctor was shown a number of applications upon which the beneficiary had signed their own name in the place for the signing of the name of the applicant, and among them one which was not signed either by an applicant or beneficiary, and he identified them as being applications which he had approved and upon which certificates had been issued by the company, but stated that had he noticed these things he should not have recommended the issuing of a certificate.

He was also shown an application for insurance for his own benefit upon a lady named Esther Dunlap, and he testified that she was an aunt of his living at South Lyon, Oakland Co.; that he did not know her age, but she was somewhere in the neighborhood of seventy. That he filled out this application, signed her name to the application and certified to the medical examination upon the application and all this not in her presence. That she is a married lady, having four children and at least one grand child. That his object in taking out this insurance was speculation, just as he would take out insurance on his own life or any body else. That it was not for her benefit but it is for his.

He was also shown another application for insurance upon the life of Stephen J. Hagadorn, and he testified that he resided in the same town with Mrs. Dunlap and was a brother of hers; that this application is filled out in the handwriting of his brother, and the signing of the uncle's name was in the handwriting of his brother, and that his brother certified to it as the examining physician; that himself and his brother are the beneficiaries named in this certificate; that they have a joint interest in both these speculations, and that neither his uncle or his aunt now knows that their lives are insured, at least that he never informed them of the fact.

He was also shown sixteen applications upon the lives of different people in which the beneficiaries named are two parties, and the medical certificates in all those applications were signed by one or the other of the two beneficiaries; that he now knows that neither of these persons are physicians, but that he did not know it at the time the policies were issued upon these applications; that he would approve of an application wherein the beneficiary and the examining physician was the same person, if he knew the physician and knew him to be honest, or did not know anything to the contrary.

THE PROTECTIVE LIFE ASSOCIATION, OF LANSING.

This Association does not differ in its plan very materially from the greater number of assessment companies in the State which are organized for the purpose of insuring old people except that instead of the printed but unheeded requirement that there shall be a strict medical examination in all cases, it openly publishes that it is not absolutely necessary that the party insured go before a physician. It was organized in August, 1886 and has a present membership of about fifty.

From the examination of its records and the testimony of its secretary your committee learned, among other things, that it is not the present practice of the company to insure any person without their knowledge, or without having a medical examination, although the means they take to arrive at these ends do not bear out the conclusion that such is always the case. In their practice insurance is written in which the beneficiary has the least shadow of a claim to relationship to the insured. Policies have been issued upon applications in which the name of the applicant was apparently signed by the agent or beneficiary. In cases where the agent has signed the name the mere verbal statement by him that he did it by authority of the person insured has been considered as sufficient, and the result of the questioning of the agent in relation to the signatures of applicants has been that the agents have quit doing business for this company. The secretary has power to keep himself in office as long as he chooses by exercising an authority granted him in the applications to cast the vote of each member who is absent at the annual meetings. It has paid one death loss. The certificate in this case was for two thousand dollars, the percentage of assessments collected to which the beneficiary in this case was entitled was ninety-seven dollars and some cents, and the amount paid was one hundred dollars.

THE STANDARD LIFE ASSOCIATION, OF MARSHALL.

The main difference between this company and those your committee has examined, so far as its organization is concerned, is that the assessments are made in advance of the losses that they are to pay. For instance, the losses of September and November are paid by assessments made in the months of July and August. Their laws and the published matter, in which they state their plan, give rigid rules regarding the admission of members, but the practice of the association is such a flagrant disregard of its laws that we take the liberty of introducing some of the salient parts of the testimony in reference thereto:

Mrs. Lottie B. Wetmore, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examined by Mr. Cross.

Q. What is your name in full?

A. My own name is Lottie B. Wetmore.

Q. You usually sign your name how?

A. Mrs. F. E. Wetmore.

Q. Your husband's name is Frank E. Wetmore?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is your age?

A. Twenty-five.

Q. How long have you resided in Marshall?

A. Six years.

Q. Have you, at any time, been connected with the Standard Life Association?

A. I have been book-keeper, and part of the time an agent.

Q. You have acted as local agent?

A. Well, yes.

Q. Soliciting agent?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long were you associated with the company as book-keeper and agent?

A. About eight months; we commenced the 1st of August, 1885.

Q. And continued until what time?

A. Until the 9th day of April, 1886.

Q. Most of the time you were in the office?

A. All the time.

Q. Did you do any soliciting in the country?

A. I did not go in the country. I did here in town.

Q. You solicited a number of applications during that time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will you explain to me generally the way in which you proceeded to solicit membership for the company?

A. We did not require any medical examination thoroughly.

Q. Did you require any certificate from the physician?

A. No. Dr. Houston filled out the most of the physician's certificates.

Q. Would he make a physical examination of the applicant?

A. No, sir. There were some that he did, but two-thirds of them were not.

Q. He simply certified to the certificate?

A. Yes, he would fill it out and sign his name to it.

Q. Dr. Houston has been the medical examiner of the company since the association was formed?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you associated with the company from the first formation of it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you require the applicant to sign the application in all cases?

A. The beneficiary, do you mean?

Q. No, the person whose life was to be insured?

A. No, sir. There was two-thirds of them that didn't know it.

Q. That didn't know they were insured?

A. Yes, sir; they didn't know they were insured. I would put it at two-thirds, and I don't know but you might say three-thirds.

Q. In most cases the application was made by the beneficiary?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And the person whose life was insured knew nothing of it?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did the medical director, Dr. Houston, know of that fact?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then it was the established policy of the company while you were connected with it to receive applications in that way?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were there any other officers of the company that knew of that fact?

A. I think they all did. I won't say, but I think they all did.

Q. Who were the officers of the company during the time that you were associated with it?

A. Mr. Noyes, Mr. Kirby, Mr. Houston and Mr. Wetmore.

Q. Was Mr. Lacey connected with the company?

A. He went in just before Mr. Wetmore resigned.

Q. Was he acquainted with the manner in which the company's business was done?

A. I could not say. He was with the board, and they met at night and I was not with the meetings of the board. I didn't have anything to do with the board at all.

Q. You solicited a large number of applications while you were associated with the company?

A. Sixty, I believe, or about that number.

Q. Will you tell me if you solicited the application of Mary Tracey for the benefit of W. G. Parkiss?

A. I think I did.

Q. Do you know who Mary Tracey was?

A. She was one of the inmates of the poor house. I don't know whether it was Tracey. I ain't sure whether it was one or two of them, it seems to me it was Mrs. Snow.

Q. There were two?

A. Is not Mrs. Snow there.

Q. Yes.

A. Well, may be the other was Mrs. Tracey.

Q. They were paupers in the county poor house at the time the insurance was made upon their lives ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did they sign the applications ?

A. No, sir.

Q. Was the insurance made with their knowledge ?

A. Yes, they gave consent to Mr. Parkiss.

Q. Mr. Parkiss filled out the applications ?

A. I filled it out and he signed it.

Q. Joanna Snow, that is the lady's name ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know anything about her circumstances? Was she a pauper?

A. Yes, and that was the second that I insured. I don't remember the name of Tracey, but I remember Mrs. Snow and I won't say the name of the other.

Q. You think the other was Mary Tracey?

A. I think it was, yes, sir. The application will tell, and if I insured it my name is on there. And this Mrs. Snow died within sixty days.

Q. The insurance upon Mrs. Snow's life was made payable to Mr. Parkiss?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who is Mr. Parkiss?

A. He is the keeper of the poor-house.

Q. Upon what grounds did he assume to insure the paupers?

A. With their consent.

Q. What suitable interest did he have in those paupers?

A. I guess he didn't have any, only they were willing. Mrs. Parkiss was good to them and they said they was willing that their lives should be insured for their benefit. That is what he told me, and the application was made out of the office.

Q. Then in your judgment it was simply a matter of speculation with Mr. Parkiss?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. In other words he gambled upon the lives of these paupers under his charge?

A. Yes, with their consent, if that is what you call it.

Q. Do you know a lady named Rebecca Divers, whose life was insured for the benefit of Orrin Doud?

A. Yes, sir; it was his wife's mother, wasn't it?

Q. I believe so. Eighty-two years of age?

A. I don't remember the age.

Q. You solicited the application?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Mrs. Divers sign the application?

A. No, sir; she was not here at that time.

Q. Where was she?

A. I think she was in Kalamazoo.

Q. The application was signed by Mr. Doud?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. He signed the name of Rebecca Divers to the application?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know what interest Mr. Doud had in the life of Rebecca Divers?

A. It was taken out in his wife's benefit; she was her mother.

Q. Mr. Doud paid the assessments?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And transacted the business?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. The insurable interest as given on the register is that of creditor. Do you know whether Mrs. Divers was indebted to Mr. Doud in any manner; was dependent upon her in any way?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know Samuel Thompson, of Partello?

A. No.

Q. Insured for the benefit of Delos Hartson?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you solicit that application?

A. I don't remember that name.

Q. Samuel Thompson, Charles Parker and Lucinda Thompson are recorded as having been insured for the benefit of Delos Hartson?

A. I know there was four, but I could not say what their names were.

Q. All for the benefit of Mr. Hartson?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What interest did Mr. Hartson have in them?

A. I think they were relations. I couldn't say now.

Q. Do you know what relationship was existing?

A. No, sir. I can't place the names. It seems to me one was a nephew, and wasn't one an uncle and annt, or was there two nuckles?

Q. In soliciting applications for the company, whom did you approach?

A. The beneficiary.

Q. In all cases?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And persuaded him to take out insurance upon the lives of old people?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you always insist upon there being a relationship existing between the beneficiary and the person insured?

A. I told them it was always better to be a relation, and I believe the by-laws said that if they was a—dependent creditor, is it? Or depending on them, they could insure them. That is what I have been taught from the rest of the board.

Q. Practically, it made no difference whether they were relatives, creditors or anybody else?

A. No.

Q. You simply wanted to secure the business?

A. Yes, sir; and then our medical director would consent to fill out all the applications for his dollar.

Q. He was more anxious to receive the dollar than he was to look after the interests of the company?

A. I think so, yes.

Q. Was this the general character of the business being done by the company while you were acting?

A. It was principally, of the agents that I know. Of course I did not know all the agents that were away. I know that the doctor has filled out applications on persons that he knows nothing about. He filled out one for me on a lady in Charlotte, and he had never seen the lady. I told him we had better send it to the Charlotte doctor, but he asked me the questions and I answered them just as her daughter had answered them to me. So he sat down and filled out the physician's certificate and signed his name to it.

Q. And approved of it as medical director of the company?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. It was customary for him to do this in that way?

A. Yes, he did it quite often.

Q. Didn't the parties whose lives were insured without their knowledge sometimes find it out?

A. I don't know as to that.

Q. It was the object of the persons who obtained the insurance to keep it as quiet as possible?

A. I suppose so, yes.

Q. In your judgment, according to your recollection, how many people have you insured in this company yourself?

A. I think it was about 60.

Q. How many among that number were insured without their knowledge?

A. If it was sixty I insured, I won't say it was sixty, but it was about that. I should judge that there was forty of them that didn't know it.

Q. Forty of them that knew nothing of it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is that the manner you were taught to do business of the company by its officers?

A. Yes, sir, by the medical director. And he would fill them out, and of course that would encourage me. If he would not have filled them out I think it would have been a great deal better.

Q. You received the commissions regularly for the work?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And of course that was what you were working for?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You didn't care anything about the prosperity of the company?

A. Yes, I did; but it was just like this, if the officers of the company would do this, why not I? Of course, that is no reason why I should do it because anyone else does, but —

Q. But you thought you had as good a right to it as anyone else had?

A. Yes, and as long as they would fill them out and sign them.

Q. Some of these parties whose lives you have insured have since died?

A. That Mrs. Snow has. I have not kept any track of them since the 9th day of April, a year ago, and I don't know who has died and who has not.

Q. Had you learned that Mary Tracey was dead?

A. I don't remember whether she has died or not.

Q. Joanna Snow died?

A. Yes, before sixty days.

Q. Did Mr. Parkiss receive his money?

A. Yes, sixteen dollars. He gave me his note for the second application and before that was due Mrs. Snow died, so he came up and I gave him back his note and that was just the same, $16.50.

Q. What was the custom of the society while you were connected with it in regard to paying death losses?

A. We didn't have any death losses only within sixty days. We had two I think.

Q. Did the company levy an assessment?

A. They had not sent out any death assessments at all when we left the company. We were going to send one out that month. There was a death, Mr. Hartson's mother-in-law, I think it is Mrs. Williams, I won't say, she lived just five or four days over sixty days and was a five hundred dollar loss. Then there was Dr. Grisnall or Griswold of Battle Creek, for some one that he insured, and those two losses we were going to make an assessment for the month that Mr. Wetmore resigned or that they had him resign rather. It was some of Dr. Griswold's own relatives that he had insured.

Q. What was the object the beneficiaries had in insuring these old people?

A. To get their money on their death I suppose.

Q. They were simply betting the premiums that they would have to pay to the company against what they expected to receive when the old people died?

A. Yes, if the company was standing.

Q. Then it was simply a gambling operation?

A. I don't know as you can call it anything else.

Q. Gambling upon the lives of these old people?

A. Of course, that is the proper name for it.

Q. That is about what it amounts to?

A. That is about the way it is.

Q. By the manner in which the business is conducted?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you any reason to believe that the company is pursuing any different course now than when you were there?

A. No, sir. They are appointing most every one that takes out a policy an agent, and the same agents that were in the company when I was there are there now, and I don't think they would do any different now from what they did then?

Q. These two parties whose applications you received, who were living at the poor-house, you did not see them yourself at the time?

A. No, sir.

Q. All you know about what their health and condition was, is what the beneficiary told you?

A. Yes sir.

Q. There was no examining physician except the medical director here?

A. I think not.

Q. Dr. Houston filled out the physician's certificate?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And approved the medical examination?

A. Yes, as medical director.

Q. And is still medical director of the association?

A. He is as far as I know. I never heard of his resigning.

Dr. I. W. Houston being duly sworn, testified in substance as follows:

Examined by Mr. Cross.

Q. What is your residence and business?

A. I live in Marshall and it has practically been my home always. I am a practicing physician, and have been for nearly ten years.

Q. You are a graduate of a medical college?

A. Yes, sir; I graduated at the university of Michigan.

Q. You have been with the company since its organization?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. In what capacity have you acted ?

A. As medical director.

Q. Have you acted as agent for the company in soliciting applications ?

A. Occasionally.

Q. What is the custom of the company in regard to the medical examinations ?

A. The examination is made up from the answers as set forth by the applicant in the application.

Q. You do not require a physical examination ?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do not require a personal examination ?

A. No, sir.

Q. Simply the applicant makes a statement and signs it as a basis of the contract ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And that the physician certifies to it ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. It is not necessary that the physician shall see the applicant ?

A. No, it is not so considered. When the articles were first drawn that section read "physical examination," and it was thought best to change it to "medical examination," for the reason that a great many companies, especially companies outside of the State, required no certificate of any kind of a physician, and the laws being as they were it would have been impossible to do business in that way ; so we had to get upon about a medium ground as to that.

Q. Do you think it possible to determine from the answers to the questions in the application the physical health of the person insured ?

A. Yes, to a fair degree. Of course the examinations are not so rigid and definite as they would be by an old line company, but as the insurance business of that class has been done largely without medical examinations at all, it would have been impossible for the company under the laws to have done business strictly on a personal, physical examination.

Q. So that the practice has been to gradually fall into the custom of taking applications without a physical examination ?

A. Well, no ; I think if anything, the custom has been more the other way.

Q. You think there has been an improvement in that respect ?

A. Yes, I do. I know Mr. Kinyon and I have urged it upon the agents to be more careful in that respect, either have personal examinations or have physicians who were acquainted with them, so as to get a better class of business, and for that matter we have expected, long before the Legislature convened, that there would be legislation this session, and that the probable outcome would be a physical examination, and we were determined to work it in that direction, so that when a change was made we would not be away off from the mark.

Q. Is it any part of your duties to examine an application when it comes into the office ?

A. Yes, to look it over as to the medical part of it particularly.

Q. You approve the applications ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And upon that approval or disapproval rests the fate of the insurance ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. If you disapprove of an application, a certificate would not be issued ?

A. No, sir.

Q. And it requires a very careful examination of the application?

A. Yes, generally pretty careful.

Q. Will you tell us what you understand by an insurable interest?

A. I do not know as I can give a definite idea. I know that question has come up a number of times in discussion by the members of the board, and some would take one view and some another. Mr. Miller, the attorney, has looked up the legal decisions upon it and he finds that they vary a great deal in different localities, but I believe our idea upon that in the main has been that it shall be a relative, and I think the law says "or one possessing an insurable interest." That perhaps has a wide range. Most of ours, however, are on relatives. There are some taken as creditors. More at the beginning than now. In fact, we didn't like it and we changed our policies and applications to that effect, making any attempt to take an insurance as a creditor for a speculative purpose inoperative, that is, that they cannot collect to exceed the amount of the bona fide indebtedness and that the policy any further than that shall be void. I think it would be well if the application in the application stated, and possibly in the policy also, the actual amount of the indebtedness at the time, that that would be a better form than we are now using, so as to state at the beginning just what that indebtedness is and how it arose.

Q. Do you understand that there shall be any pecuniary interest existing between the beneficiary and the person whose life is insured?

A. I should think it would depend upon relationship. For relatives I should consider it so.

Q. To what degree of consanguinity would you go in approving an application of insurance?

A. I don't know what the law is upon that.

Q. Would you insure a nephew upon the life of his aunt or uncle?

A. I think that would be proper. I think that has been done.

Q. Would you insure a son on the life of his father?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And a father upon the life of his son?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. A grand-father for the benefit of a grand-son?

A. Yes, sir, we have done that. In those points the attorney has usually stated what he thought was proper, and in those cases he has decided that there was an insurable interest.

Q. Would you insure a mother-in-law for the benefit of a son-in-law?

A. Yes, sir. That is a point that I raised at one time, and we had quite a little discussion upon it and the attorney looked it up. I held that it was not an insurable interest and I rejected quite a number of applications upon that ground, and the attorney decided that it was an insurable interest, so since then insurance has been granted in that way.

Q. Would you insure a brother for the benefit of his brother?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Or a sister for the benefit of a sister?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Would you insure an uncle for the benefit of a niece where no blood relation exists between the parties?

A. I do not know as to that. I don't know as that question has ever come up.

- Q. Do you know J. L. Kinyon?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Does he hold an official position with this company?
A. Yes, sir, he is secretary.
Q. Are you acquainted with his hand writing?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Will you examine that application and see if that was written by J. L. Kinyon?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. It is in his hand writing?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Examine the signatures to the application, and see if in your judgment, it is in the same hand writing as the body of the application?
A. I should think it was, I could not state positively though.
Q. It appears to be?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know the party for whom that application for insurance was made?
A. No, sir.
Q. On whose life the application was made?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did you ever see the party?
A. No, sir.
Q. The name is Clara E. King, of East Varick, Seneca county, New York; aged sixty. Do you know the person named as beneficiary in that application?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. It is Mr. J. L. Kinyon's wife?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. The wife of the secretary of this company?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know the relationship existing between Mrs. Sarah E. Kinyon and Mrs. Clara E. King?
A. I think it states there that it is niece.
Q. Mrs. Kinyon is a niece of Mrs. King?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Examine the physician's certificate to that application. Is that your hand-writing?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Is that your signature?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You state that you never saw the applicant?
A. No, sir.
Q. Still you certify to the condition of her health at the time this application was made?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You state first that you believe her to be the party insured?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. That you had known the applicant ten years?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you ever see the lady?
A. No, sir. I will tell you how I put that in. The application was taken in December, and we wanted to get in about a certain number during December, so Mr. Kinyon wrote this up and said he would put it in, and he should not ever carry on it. So I turned to fill it out and I read that question, and says: "How long have I known this party?" He says: "You have known her as long as you have known me." I says: "Ten years?" He says "yes." So I put it in that way.

Q. Still you had never seen the lady?

A. No, sir, that statement of having known her ten years is not so, and it was not put in for the purpose of carrying the insurance.

Q. You state that the applicant is not afflicted with any disease?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You state that the general appearance of the applicant is good?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Still you had no knowledge of her being in good health?

A. It was from the application, was all.

Q. You certify that you consider the risk to be first-class?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is an application for two thousand dollars of insurance, number 1476 and 1477 and you state that you, acting in the interest of the association, advise the approval of that application?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. (Showing witness paper) Who filled out that application?

A. Mr. J. L. Kinyon.

Q. Did Mr. Kinyon sign the name of the applicant to the application?

A. I could not state positively; I did not see him sign it.

Q. It is in the same hand-writing as the application, is it not?

A. Practically, yes sir.

Q. The impression would be conveyed that the same party who filled that application also signed the name of the applicant to the application?

A. It might be.

Q. Would not that be the impression likely to be conveyed from an examination of the application and a comparison of the penmanship?

A. Well, the penmanship is not exactly like it, still it resembles it somewhat.

Q. This application is number 1478-9 for two thousand dollars insurance upon the life of Loring G. King, of East Varick, Seneca county, New York, and is made payable to Sarah E. Kinyon, whom you say is the wife of the secretary of this association?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know what relationship exists between Sarah E. Kinyon and Loring G. King?

A. No. Niece is not given here.

Q. Do you know whether any relationship by marriage or otherwise exists between Clara E. King and Loring G. King?

A. I do not.

Q. Did you ever see Loring G. King?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you fill out that physician's certificate?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is in your hand-writing and your signature?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. In which you state that you believe this is to be the party whose life is to be insured?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That you have read the answers in the annexed application and they are true to the best of your knowledge. You state that the applicant is not afflicted with any disease. You state that the general appearance of the applicant is healthy. You state that the applicant has no disease of the heart, brain, kidneys or nervous system?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You state that the risk is first class, and that you, acting in the interest of the association, advise its approval?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Still you had never seen the party whose application this purported to be?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you have any reason to know that Loring G. King was alive at the time this application was made?

A. I took Mr. Kinyon's word for it, that was all.

Q. Mr. Kinyon made the application?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And assured you that the subject was alive?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you certified?

A. He assured me that it was just as good as it was there. That is the way it was done. Of course this is the same as the other one. I don't claim that this insurance is just the same as in an old line insurance. I don't want you to get that impression.

Q. Well, I rather think that impression would not be conveyed?

A. No, I don't want you to think that we try to cover up anything of that kind, or put on a sanctimonious face about it. We don't try to cover up anything.

Q. That is what we want, we want the facts in the case, and we want them truthfully.

A. You will get them if it is the last fact that we ever express.

Q. I find another application here, number 1186, upon the life of Hannah King, of East Varick, Seneca county, New York, aged 71, for two thousand dollars, payable to Sarah E. Kinyon, niece, of Marshall, Oalhou county, Mich. The medical certificate is filled out and signed I. W. Houston, M. D. Can you tell us anything about that application?

A. That is about the same as those others. It is taken by Mr. Kinyon's son and written by him.

Q. Written by the son of the secretary?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That son is now acting in what capacity for this company?

A. He has done some work as agent; he has never been employed as clerk.

Q. He is now employed as a special agent?

A. Practically, yes; although he has only been out one trip in that capacity. He was out five weeks, over a month ago, in Monroe county mostly.

Q. You are somewhat familiar with his hand-writing?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. In your judgment did he fill out and sign that application?

A. I could not say whether he signed it or not. He filled it out, that is his signature there.

Q. Is there not a great similarity between the hand-writing in the name of Hannah E. King at the bottom of the application and the same name at the top, and in your judgment are not both names written by the same party in the two places upon the application?

A. There is a similarity, I could not state that in my judgment they were both written by the same party.

Q. The shading would seem to indicate that?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. There is apparently no attempt to disguise the hand?

A. No, sir; if he signed the name there, he signed it without any attempt at disguising it?

Q. Did you ever see Hannah King?

A. No, sir.

Q. You state here that her general appearance is healthy and that you consider the risk first class, and that you, acting in the interest of the association, advise the approval of it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have any knowledge that at the time the application was made, on the 13th day of September, 1886, Hannah E. King was alive?

A. Nothing further than the statement made by Mr. Kinyon.

Q. The son of the secretary?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You accepted his word for it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. It would seem that the officers of this association are somewhat interested in the insurance of their friends in New York?

A. Yes, it would appear that way from these applications. I don't think the insurance has been carried on any of these, but it may have been on this last one.

Q. Do you know a physician in Owosso by the name of R. C. Beckwith?

A. There is a physician there by that name, I am not personally acquainted with him.

Q. Does he act as agent for this company there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is he a practising physician?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long has he been acting as agent for this company?

A. I think from about the beginning of the company.

Q. He does a considerable business?

A. He has done, yes,

Q. He has had some losses in the company?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You are somewhat familiar with Dr. Beckwith's handwriting, are you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Examine that application and tell me if he filled it out in your judgment?

A. Dr. Beckwith I should think from the hand-writing filled it out.

Q. Beckwith filled out the application as local agent for the company?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. The application is made upon the life of John Murphy, of Owosso, Shia-wassee Co., Mich., for the benefit of R. C. Beckwith, relationship to applicant, indebtedness, assessment notices shall be sent to R. C. Beckwith, Owosso, signed John Murphy, applicant, R. C. Beckwith, agent. From your knowledge of the hand-writing of Dr. Beckwith what would you conclude as to the probability of who executed the signature to that application?

A. I could not tell whether that was signed by Dr. Beckwith or not.

Q. John Murphy is said to 56 years old, and the signature apparently is in a very firm hand?

A. Yes, sir; it is probably not written by John Murphy.

Q. Probably not written by John Murphy?

A. No, sir; I should think a man of that age very likely would not write as good a hand as that.

Q. There is a similarity between the signatures?

A. Yes, this may be written by him or by some one else.

Q. Look over the physician's certificate and tell us by whom that was executed?

A. That was by Dr. Beckwith.

Q. That was filled out by Dr. Beckwith?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And signed by Dr. Beckwith?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then that application was filled out by Dr. Beckwith, the local agent of the company?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. For the benefit of Mr. Beckwith?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. The medical examination was filled out by Dr. Beckwith.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And signed as medical examiner by Dr. Beckwith?

A. Yes, sir; and right there I would like to make a statement. Of course that don't look very well, and I stated to the officers that I didn't like that way. My expression was that it was too much of a machine business and I wished that a resolution would be passed that no physician could act as agent and make certificates as in that particular case. That was at the time that the matter came up, but no action has been taken upon it however, although I have rather urged it.

Q. Is this John Murphy, whose life was insured by Dr. Beckwith for his own benefit, now living?

A. No sir; that is one on which there has been a loss.

Q. Examine that paper and tell me what that is?

A. That is the death proofs on this same party.

Q. John Murphy?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. By whom is that death proof executed?

A. The claimant's statement here is from R. C. Beckwith, and the physician's the same. He figures in there quite often, but he didn't preach the funeral sermon.

Q. He did everything else?

A. He did all he could. He was probably not to blame for not doing more. Somebody else buried him.

Q. What claim does he make in his proofs of death?

A. Of an indebtedness.

Q. Does he make any statement of what that indebtedness consisted of ?

A. Yes, sir ; I think there is another statement there which was sent in afterwards. He states that he was owing him $986.00 for medical services rendered wife and children.

Q. John Murphy then was owing the doctor some old accounts ?

A. Yes, sir, I think so from the face of the papers.

Q. And upon that account he himself made application for insurance in this company for his own benefit, acting as local agent and medical examiner and when John Murphy died he executed the proofs of death, certified to them as attending physician, and probably did all that he could to hasten and attend the obsequies and give the party a good send off ?

A. I don't know as to that. Of course he could not do otherwise than to certify as attending physician and claimant if he was such. But as I said before it is a manner of doing business that I don't like.

Q. How much did Dr. Beckwith receive upon this death loss ?

A. I think he received the full amount claimed.

Q. What was the full amount ? A thousand dollars ?

A. No, he does not claim that.

Q. $880.00 ?

A. Whatever the death proof states. I think it was $880.00.

Q. He received $880.00 ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Isn't that a peculiar method of collecting bad debts ?

A. Well, I don't know as for that.

Q. Doctors' bills are not very easy of collection as a rule ?

A. No, not when they run 20 years as that did.

Q. These bills have been accumulating for 20 years ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Most of them had been out-lawed ?

A. I presume so, unless they had been in some way kept up or renewed.

Q. This insurance was written on the 2d of November, 1885, and the subject died November 1st, 1886. Dr. Beckwith has had several losses in this company since he has been acting as agent ?

A. I think not but one other.

Q. Only two ?

A. Only one besides this.

Q. Two others, are there not ?

A. That depends upon how you take it. There is another one that I think he has in the same way that he had this John Murphy, as a creditor, and that we concluded we would look into, and that proof Mr. Kinyon has at present. It is an application—I cannot give the names now, but it is in favor of I think a party name Frane, and Dr. Beckwith, it seems, is the holder of it at present, for an indebtedness, an indebtedness as stated in the proofs, of the party insured. Well, I think that the law is that an indebtedness can only be collected for what he is owning the beneficiary, the original beneficiary. If this man was owing Frane one hundred dollars and Beckwith held the policy when it became a claim, Beckwith could only collect the amount of the indebtedness to this Frane, and he claims an indebtedness from the insured. We think it ought to be the other way. Then, if he has a certain amount of indebtedness, whatever it is can be paid to the party holding the policy, and the balance go according to law, to the heirs of the party.

Q. Will you look over the cash book here and tell us what those items mean, "September 30, R. O. Beckwith, 997."

A. That is the number of his policy, I think, and this other the amount due on it.

Q. $16.50 is the amount you paid him at that time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. "January 30, 1887, policy No. 143, $880 00?"

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is the payment in the John Murphy case?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Just look a little further.

A. Yes, there is another one, I had forgotten that; No. 1300, $16.50.

Q. Then the company have, within the last year, paid Dr. Beckwith three losses instead of two?

A. Yes, sir.

(Among the death losses paid by the Peninsula State Mutual Benefit Association, of Ithaca, your committee found the following: Certificate No. 1131, upon the life of John Murphy, of Owosso, Mich., aged 56, for $5,000, in which the beneficiary named is R. O. Beckwith, of Owosso. This insurance was taken July 13, 1885, and R. C. Beckwith was the examining physician. John Murphy died Nov. 1st, 1886, and Dr. R. O. Beckwith was paid and receipts for $1,150 to this company.)

Q. Were they all for a creditor interest?

A. I don't know as to that; I thing this was an assigned one.

Q. An assignment of what nature?

A. I don't know as to that either.

Q. Do the company permit assignments from one policy holder to another, or from one beneficiary to another?

A. No, we held this: that the policy is the property of the the party insured during their life, and after that it is the property of the beneficiary and then he can assign it. I have no doubt assignments have been made by beneficiaries, and to check that we have stricken the blank assignments off our policies.

Q. Still assignments are made from time to time?

A. I think they are.

Q. And you settle with the assignees?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Dr. Beckwith holds some other policies in this company, does he not?

A. I cannot state positively whether he does or not.

Q. Could you tell by the examination of the assessment register?

A. I could tell probably by the applications. There are several assessment notices sent to him, whether he holds the policies or not we do not know. And to prevent any action of that kind upon the part of beneficiaries we had the printed blank stricken out. It is on all of these. This is a recent action, within a month or so.

Q. The doctor is paying assessments on quite a number of policies?

A. The notices are sent to him and he is collector there.

Q. Does not he designate in his report to whose credit the assessment should be?

A. I don't know as to that.

Q. How are you able to keep an account of the memberships?

A. It is kept by the number of the policy. I presume it is mentioned as to whom those notices are sent.

Q. Is it not a fact that the credit is placed to the individual who is the beneficiary under the certificate?

A. Not all of them. As a rule it is.

Q. Apparently the assessments that are paid by Dr. Beckwith are for policies in which he has a personal interest?

A. I would not want to make that statement, because I do not know that it is true.

Q. If the assessment notices are indicated in the report of the collector by the number and name, so that the book-keeper can keep an appropriate account with each member to know when his policy may have lapsed, it would require that the name should be given?

A. Not necessarily of the beneficiary. I think there is one case of that kind that Dr. Beckwith pays of a party who is very apt to be away, and he requested that the notices be sent to Dr. Beckwith. And of course they are sent to him and credited up to the proper member.

Q. The doctor is evidently a sincere believer in the benefit of co-operative insurance?

A. I should imagine so.

Q. And the personal benefit to be derived from insurance of that kind?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. It would appear as if it were a short hand method of collecting old debts?

A. It has that appearance; yes, sir.

Q. Do you know a gentleman named W. G. Parkiss?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who is he?

A. He is W. G. Parkiss.

Q. What is his business?

A. He is at present suprintendent of the poor farm.

Q. How long has he been acting in that capacity?

A. I don't know, I think it is about two years, perhaps longer.

Q. Have you examined this item in the cash-book of Sept. 30, 1886?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is the meaning of that entry?

A. It means that he was beneficiary on policy number 673, and upon the death of the party he received five hundred dollars.

Q. He appears charged upon the books of the association, September 30, with having received five hundred dollars as a death loss on policy 673?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. (Showing witness paper.) Is that the policy under which that death loss was paid?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know the party whose life was insured under that policy?

A. I have seen the party.

Q. What was the name of the party?

A. Tracey.

Q. Where did she reside?

A. With Mr. Parkiss.

Q. Mary Tracey, was it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. She resided with Mr. Parkiss at the time of her death?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. As a member of his family?

A. I think so.

Q. Was she related to Mr. Parkiss?

A. No, sir; I think not. I think that was the case of a creditor or something of that nature.

Q. Was it not true that Mary Tracey was an inmate of the county poor-house at the time?

A. I don't know whether she was an inmate or a domestic of Mr. Parkiss, I am not positive as to that. But it was a creditor policy, one of the first that we paid, and before we were aware of the nature of such policies. I think it was the first of the kind that we had. We were not aware of the nature of such applications and policies.

Q. Have you any knowledge that she was not a pauper?

A. No, sir, I have no knowledge either way. I think her death was caused by an accident, falling down stairs or something of that sort.

Q. You state that policy number 673, on which you paid five hundred dollars to W. G. Parkiss on the death of Mary Tracey, was in conformity with the plan of the company as to proportionate payments?

A. Yes, I think it was.

Q. That is, that she died within the eight months?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And so he was entitled to receive five hundred dollars?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. I have here the record of certificate number 904, issued upon the life of Charles Waits, for the benefit of Albert and Robert Ward, cousins, assessment notices to be sent to Ward brothers. The insurance was taken out on the 4th of June, 1886, and the insured person died Sept. 27, 1886. That was paid out of the same pool from which the Parkiss claim was paid?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. The policies were for two thousand dollars. Parkiss received five hundred dollars, and the Ward brothers only received $250.00. Will you explain that discrepancy?

A. We took the record of this policy from the outside, and that is an error. It was a one thousand dollar application. That was an error in the filing. That would be a one-quarter claim on a thousand dollars, or two hundred and fifty dollars.

By Mr. Goodrich:

Q. Are you acquainted with Dr. C. E. Paine?

A. No, sir, not personally.

Q. He is an agent of yours?

A. He has done a little as agent, more as certifying physician.

Q. Where does he reside?

A. I think at Cambria or Frontier, Hillsdale county.

Q. You were stating that you were doing away with the agent's signing the medical certificate and taking the application?

A. Yes, sir. I did not state that we had.

Q. Look at that application. What is the number of that?

A. 1761.

Q. Who is the family physician as stated in that application?

A. C. E. Paine was the last.

Q. Who signs that as agent?

A. C. E. Paine.

Q. Who signs that as applicant there?

A. Olive Sturtevant.

Q. Who signs it as medical examiner?

A. Dr. Paine.

Q. And Dr. Paine gets his commission as agent?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How much commission would he get out of that as agent?

A. He would be supposed to collect ten dollars on that application?

Q. And how much as examining physician?

A. Usually one dollar; whether he would charge anything in a case of this kind or not—

Q. The supposition is that he gets his fee if he takes an application?

A. Yes, that is the supposition.

Q. If he takes it and it is accepted he gets his fee?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And also his medical examiner's fee?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And he signs this as agent and medical examiner?

A. As agent and the certifying physician. Perhaps you misunderstood me as to what I said upon that; I did not say that we had made that change.

Q. What is the date of that application?

A. That is the second day of April. There has been no action taken upon it yet.

Q. Would not such an application as that lead you to believe that the doctor acting as agent would be more anxious than an outside physician to see the applicant put through on an application by the company?

A. Yes, it might. But until some action is taken by the board of course if they come in apparently right I should accept them. I don't like it myself.

Q. Here is another one of one thousand dollars: Is that the same party?

A. No, sir.

Q. Who is that?

A. That is Elias Lee Sturtevant.

Q. Apparently the husband of the former applicant?

A. It might be so and it might not.

Q. It is the same place?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Signed by the same agent, C. E. Paine?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. The same family physician, C. E. Paine?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. The medical certificate signed by C. E. Paine?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is that about the same as the application of Oliver Sturtevant?

A. I should say so.

Q. Who is the family physician in that?

A. Dr. Paine.

Q. Who was the agent in that?

A. Dr. Paine.

Q. Who was medical examiner?

A. Dr. Paine. Dr. Paine did not sign it as physician. He filled it out but did not sign his name.

Q. It is not signed by anybody?

A. No, sir.

Q. Yet it is accepted by you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you accept them where they are not signed by any one?

A. Not if I notice it. If I had noticed that I would have sent it back, but that escaped my notice.

Q. You do not examine them very closely then?

A. I intend to; yes. But occasionally perhaps there is a date left out—as I noticed in one of them you handed me.

Q. Isn't it quite important that some one should sign them as medical examiner?

A. It should be done; yes. That is an oversight upon our part. They should be filled out all the way through.

Q. There is another certificate number 1685. Who is the agent in that?

A. Dr. Paine.

By Mr. Cross:

Q. Will you explain this item in the cash book, March 31, 1886? Amount paid to W. G. Parkiss, upon policy No. 600, $13.20. Do you remember the circumstances attending that case?

A. I do not particularly. I had nothing to do with it anyway. My impression is that that was a sixty-day loss, and $13.20 was all he paid actually for that application, and that was all that was paid back to him. That is why it was put in that way. I think it was a sixty-day loss on a two thousand dollar policy, and he did not pay the full membership fee, and we just simply paid back what he paid in.

Q. The person whose life was insured died within sixty days?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember on whose life that policy was issued?

A. I do not.

Q. Your membership register shows that it was written upon the life of Joanna Snow. Did you ever know any such party?

A. I think so.

Q. What did you know of her?

A. I think I have prescribed for the party.

Q. Where did she reside?

A. I cannot tell. That is a case that I have no knowledge of.

Q. Did you attend her during her last illness?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you attend her between the date of her application for insurance and the date of her death?

A. I think not.

Q. Did you make a personal examination of her at the time you approved the certificate?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Do you know where she resided at the time of her death?

A. I do not.

Q. Do you know what relationship existed between W. G. Parkiss and Joanna Snow?

A. I do not.

Dr. Henry L. Joy being duly sworn, testified as follows :

Examined by Mr. Cross.

Q. What is your name in full ?

A. Henry L. Joy.

Q. Your residence ?

A. Marshall. I am a practicing physician and surgeon and have been for over 30 years.

Q. How old are you ?

A. 65 years.

Q. You have practiced here for 30 years ?

A. Yes, thirty-three or four years.

Q. You are pretty well acquainted throughout this vicinity ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know a gentleman by the name of W. G. Parkiss ?

A. Yes, sir. I don't know his initials.

Q. What is his occupation ?

A. The one that I am acquainted with is the keeper of the county poor-house.

Q. Did you ever know a lady by the name of Mary Tracey ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever attend her as a physician ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you attend her during her last illness ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did this lady reside ?

A. She was in the poor-house.

Q. As an inmate ?

A. As an inmate.

Q. A county charge ?

A. A county charge.

Q. What was the immediate cause of her death ?

A. I have charge of the paupers and I get them mixed sometimes but my impression is that this Mrs. Tracey met with an accident, fell from a chair and broke her hip and the shock she never recovered from.

Q. Fell from a chair ?

A. I think that is the one.

Q. That is the statement which you make in the death proofs.

A. Then I am right.

Q. Do you remember the age of Mary Tracey ?

A. No, I don't remember it. I should judge she was 70.

Q. Was she in full possession of her mental powers ?

A. She was not a person of vigorous mind but I think she had her mental faculties.

Q. Do you know anything about her past history previous to her becoming a county charge ?

A. No ; I cannot trace her back, although I have an indistinct idea that I was acquainted with her previous to her going to the poor-house.

Q. Do you know how long she had been at the poor-house previous to her death ?

A. I should say five or six years.

Q. Do you know what was the cause of her having to take refuge at the county poor-house ?

A. I do not.

Q. Whether it was sickness or poverty or lack of friends to care for her?

A. I don't know. They are sent to the poor-house without any interference of mine, and I simply find them there, and if they are taken sick I attend them.

Q. You are the regular medical attendant?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you acted in that capacity?

A. I think I have been the medical attendant for fifteen years.

Q. Did you know that W. G. Parkiss had an insurance upon the life of Mary Tracey?

A. I understood he did.

Q. Do you know whether any relationship existed between them?

A. I do not; I think not.

Q. Do you know what interest Mr. Parkiss had in the life of the pauper under his charge, Mary Tracey?

A. I do not.

Q. Would you suppose that he would have any insurable interest?

A. You mean whether she was indebted to him or anything of that sort?

Q. What is your knowledge of what constitutes an insurable interest at law?

A. I do not know that I have any.

Q. You have no clear idea of it?

A. No.

Q. Do you carry insurance upon your own life?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whose benefit?

A. My wife.

Q. For what reason?

A. That she may be provided for after my death.

Q. Because she has an interest in your life?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Because she has an interest in the earnings that you secure in order to get her those luxuries that she is accustomed to receive?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And her necessary support?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then she has an interest in the continuance of your life?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is that the true doctrine of life insurance?

A. I think it is.

Q. Unquestionably?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is there any other rule or plan that would be in harmony with that idea so far as your opinion would go, that is to say, that the theory of life insurance is that the beneficiary must have an interest in the continuance of the life insured,—that is your idea of the doctrine of life insurance?

A. Yes, sir. I can imagine, if life insurance is transferable, for instance, I might sell my life insurance to an individual and he could purchase it as a matter of speculation. For instance, I am insured in the Connecticut Mutual for three thousand dollars, and I might sell it for a thousand dollars, and the sooner I died the better he would like it.

Q. Would such a transaction be in the line of public policy, in your judgment?

A. No, I don't think it would. I have no sympathy with anything of this sort that you are investigating.

Q. With this explanation, do you know of any insurable interest existing between Mary Tracey and W. G. Parkiss?

A. No, I do not.

Q. Considering the relationship existing between the two parties would you suppose that an insurable interest would be likely to exist?

A. No.

Q. Then the nature of the contract between the company and W. G. Parkiss would be that of a wager contract, based upon the death of the person whose life was insured?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is, that Mr. Parkiss would profit by the early death of the person whose life he had insured?

A. That would be my understanding of it.

Q. In other words, Mr. Parkiss was betting with this association the amount of the assessments upon this policy against the sum to be paid him in the event of the death of the party insured within a given time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you ever known a person named Joanna Snow?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did she reside?

A. She was in the poor-house.

Q. A common pauper?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. A county charge?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever know of W. G. Parkiss having an insurance upon her life?

A. I don't believe I knew that.

Q. About what was her age?

A. I should say she was 68.

Q. Seventy-seven is the age as given in the application. What was the condition of her health prior to her death?

A. She was a person that was broken down; no chronic disease, but her digestive organs were very much impaired, she was subject to severe attacks of indigestion and vomiting, and by the way, I think I did have suspicious of cancerous deposit in her stomach. But I made no post mortem examination.

Q. You attended her?

A. I attended her and gave her all the medical attendance she had.

Q. How long has she been an inmate of the county poor-house?

A. I should think five or six years.

Q. Do you know anything of her history prior to her admission there?

A. No, I do not.

Q. Do you know whether there was any relationship existing between W. G. Parkiss and Joanna Snow?

A. I don't believe there was.

Q. Would you think there was any insurable interest existing between the two parties?

A. Not in the light that you define it.

Q. That you believe to be the true light?

A. I think it is the fair light.

Q. The light that would be in the direction of public policy and sound morals?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. The records of this company show that there was issued to W. G. Parkiss two policies of one thousand dollars each on her life, numbers 599 and 600, and that she died within sixty days after the insurance was affected, and the company adjusted and paid the loss to W. G. Parkiss?

A. Does it state what was the cause of death?

Q. We cannot find the application. It has mysteriously disappeared from the records of the office. The proof of death has also disappeared, and the record only is in the cash-book and in the assessment register.

C. P. Aldrich, recalled:

Examined by Mr. Douglass:

A. Not the first page

Q. Who prepared that?

A. Mr. Kinyon, the secretary.

Q. Did you furnish Mr. Kinyon the information which appears here as to the balance on hand December 31st?

A. I did.

Q. Will you give from that statement the amount of the cash balance on hand December 31st, 1886?

No. 11 ?

Q. State the amount of membership fees received in this office from January 1st up to date?

Q. Is that the amount remaining in your hands as treasurer?

The President of this association is paid a salary of $50.00 per month. The remainder of the expense fund, consisting of 20 per cent of the assessments and 20 per cent of the membership fees, is divided among the other officers of the company as appears in Treasurer's testimony.

Committee Rooms, April 18, 1887.

Horace M. Dresser, being duly sworn, testified that he was 32 years of age; that he resides in Mason; that he was formerly a day laborer, but had been working at insurance for two years; that he had worked for the Mutual Life of Mason, the Old People's Mutual of Benton Harbor, and the Elkhart company; that he presumed he had taken 100 applications for insurance; that he had been paid from 60 to 100 per cent of the membership fee for such work; that as a rule in the transaction of this business the agent writes the application and the beneficiary signs it; that the person whose life is insured is not consulted in more than ten per cent of the cases; that the person insured is not present, and in fact need not be in the State at the time the insurance is taken; that he has a case now where the party is just waiting to go to New York on a visit to find out in regard to the health of a party he wants to insure and then come back and get the insurance; that the medical blank on the applications are usually filled out by the beneficiary, or by the agent, through the instructions of the beneficiary, and as a rule is signed by the beneficiary; that the person insured is not always in good health; that where they have had paralysis or gravel were the only two diseases for which he had had applications sent back; that in fact a majority of cases are sent in as being sound; that the companies do not care anything about rheumatism, a man may be all crippled up and drawn out of shape by rheumatism, so long as there is nothing the matter of the heart. If an application is rejected by one company it is the habit to send it to another, and it is usually accepted by some one of the companies. That it is a standing joke among the agents of this class of companies, that if other companies reject an application "send it to Reading and it will go;" that he thinks there are about twenty thousand old people living in Michigan whose lives are insured in old people's companies, and that probably eighteen thousand of them have no knowledge that they are insured; that in Eaton and Ingham counties and a portion of Clinton county, fully half or two-thirds of the old people are insured; that it has been customary with many of these companies to compromise death claims wherever they can, and that that is a part of the scheme of some of the companies; that the Mason company are in the habit of doing that, and a company that used to do business in Lansing also; that the president of the Mason company is reported to be connected with the Bohemian Oat association, and that the treasurer, Mr. Rogers, and the manager of agents, Mr. Houser, are engaged in selling Bonded Grain, and by Bonded Grain he means German Barley, Bohemian Oats and Bonded Wheat; that it was all the same swindle, but they paid one swindle by springing another on a fellow.

Edward O. Kelley, being duly sworn, testified his age was 57, his residence Lansing, his occupation fire, life and accident insurance, and that he had been engaged in it about four or five years. That he had done business for the Old People's Life of Battle Creek, the Standard Life of Marshall, the Old People's Life Insurance Co. at Jackson, and the Industrial of Corunna. That he had probably taken 15 or 20 applications for the Battle Creek Co., eight or ten for the Standard of Marshall, possibly 30 for the Jackson Co., 15 or 20 for the Corunna Co., and one or two for the Equable of Lansing. That his commissions were about 80 per cent of the membership fees. That the instructions of the companies are that the insured and beneficiary are to be relatives; that all the companies want a medical examination; that that is generally secured by getting some physician that is acquainted with the party. Where the physicians know the person who is to be insured they do not always go before the physician. That the class of people who are most apt to be insured under this plan are the people in average circumstances, neither very poor or very wealthy, and both the intelligent and the ignorant. That he does not seek or solicit applications in this kind of insurance. That he does not run after it at all, but that parties who want that kind of insurance come to him. That the party who is asking for the insurance dictates what shall be written in the application, and that the person to be insured is not always present, and in one or two cases he has taken applications where the party to be insured lived out of the State. That the beneficiary signs the application for the applicant in most cases. That not more than one-third of the applications for the insurance are made by the person whose life is insured. The medical examination is not always made by a physician. Some persons take applications signed by the beneficiary. That he always writes the condition of the insured in the application as far as he knows it, and when he does not know the person he takes the beneficiary's word for it. That as far as his business goes about one-quarter of the people insured in this class of companies do not know anything about it. That all the companies in the State would insure the same person. That he is carrying insurance upon Louisa Bellingham, who is his sister-in-law; that he has $1,000 in the Jackson Co. upon her, $1,000 in Battle Creek, $1,000 in Corunna, and $1,000 in the Standard; that most of this insurance is in his wife's name. That there may be one or two policies in his name. That this lady lives with him, that she has an income of $200 a year, and aside from that he furnishes her everything; that she knows that her life is insured by him, and that he signed the application for her in her name. That he is carrying $3,000 insurance upon the life of his sister who lives in Missouri; that she knows of it but did not sign the application.

Committee Rooms, April 20, 1887.

William J. Makely, being duly sworn, testified that he resided in Mason and was 51 years old. That his business has been life insurance for a little more than four years; that he had done business for the Detroit Commercial, The Marshall Mutual, the Old People's of Elkhart, the Standard of Fort Wayne, the Mason Mutual, the Lansing Mutual, the Loyal Life of Reading, and the Benton Harbor companies; that he has taken perhaps 75 applications for the Standard, seven or eight hundred for the Elkhart, or perhaps more, a hundred for the Reading Co., may be 50 for the Benton Harbor Co., and about 50 for the Mason Co.; that he averages to take 360 applications in a year; that he works for the membership fee, and that he averages ten dollars a day for his services. That the companies instruct him that the relationship between the beneficiary and the insured may be either by blood or by marriage. That in seeking for an application that he shows parties by the American Expectancy

Table how long an old person may be expected to live and figure what the insurance would cost each year and show them that they will be likely to soon realize upon their investment, and tell them that they have a right to take an insurance upon an uncle or an aunt, or their grand-father or grand-mother, or their wife's relatives, or their cousins, brothers, sisters, mother-in-law or step-mother. That the beneficiaries dictate the answers to the questions in the application and sign the application with the name of the party to be insured. That the person insured is not always within the limits of the State at the time. That the beneficiary signs the medical examination when there is no doctor that knows the party; that he has known parties to be insured that were in poor health; that he has known persons to die within thirty days from the time they were insured. That it is the custom for more than one company to insure the same person. That if an application is sent to one company and rejected, that it is kept passing around from one company to another until it is accepted. Being asked the question if he thought that a system which admits of one person speculating upon the life or death of another should be classed as life insurance, he answered: "I have worked at it so long that it does seem to me as though it should, yes." That he is not aware that a policy obtained upon an application upon which the name of the insured was forged is an illegal transaction. That he does not know what an insurable interest is and does not care. That he would write an insurance upon the life of any person if the company would accept it. That he has written twenty thousand dollars of insurance for Ormond M. Spitzer of Mason. That part of it is upon Mr. Spitzer's father-in-law, part upon his mother and part upon his grand-mother, and that Mr. Spitzer signed the application in each case and the medical certificate. That two of these parties do not live in the State. That he wrote insurance upon Eugene Griffin and Enos Griffin for Lucy M. Shannon of Mason, upon the application of Lucy M. Shannon's husband, and that Mr. Shannon dictated the application and signed them. That he thinks Mrs. Shannon and the Griffins are cousins. That he himself is carrying insurance on the life of his brother, 69 years of age. That he made the application and signed it in his brother's name, and that his brother does not know of it. That the ground upon which he put this insurance was that he worked a great deal for his brother about 25 years ago and never received any pay for it, and thought he had a right to carry this insurance; that it would be a good scheme. That it is customary that the beneficiary should sign the applicant's name to an application. That his instructions have been that the applicant's name must be signed and that if the beneficiary knew the condition of the applicant that he should sign it; that within the last three years he has placed about three hundred applications in the Elkhart Co. That most of the people he approached seemed to want insurance in that company, and that he in those cases would supply them with a blank application and fill it out, they would sign it, he would tell them they would have to be their own agent, he would send the application to the company and the certificate would be sent directly to the beneficiary.

In relation to his manner of soliciting insurance he testified: "I approach a man and tell him I am working the graveyard swindle and ask him if he wants to be beat at it; telling him I am beating somebody at it every day. Sometimes I approach them that way, not always. I tell them that I cannot write for him unless I make something out of it, but that in my judgement it is a good speculation, and that if they go into it there is a chance of their making something. I tell them that as long as they pay their assessments and each one pay their assessments the members make the company and not the officers, and if they go into it the probabilities are that they will realize largely upon the speculation."

He further testified that most of the people who go into it do so purely as a matter of speculation, that it is a good, fair way of gambling.

THE WESTERN UNION MUTUAL LIFE AND ACCIDENT SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES.

Began business in March, 1880, and has now policies in force upon the lives of over 3,600 people. It issues policies upon the lives of its members, covering the ages of from 17 to 60 years, for $2,500, $5,000, $7,500 or $10,000. Its assessments or death premiums, as they are called, range from $8.80 upon persons of the age of 25 or under, to $13.65 upon persons of the age of 60 for a $10,000 policy. Briefly, its plans and methods are based upon the actual experience of the business of life insurance, as gathered from the official reports and statistics of the old line companies. Its affairs are conducted upon strict business principles. Its policies take effect when issued. Every member must keep one death premium paid in advance, so that there is always on hand in cash in the death benefit fund at least the aggregate amount of one death premium on every policy in force. Death premiums are not called for on every loss, but a call is made whenever a loss occurs the payment of which would reduce the amount of the death benefit fund below the aggregate sum of one death premium on every policy in force. No portion of the death premiums can be used in the payment of expenses, but the expenses are limited to an annual due of $2.00 per each $1,000 of insurance, and all expenses must be paid from this source. Its business is not confined to this State, but it must be all done north of the 37th parallel.

Upon a critical examination of the affairs in its office, your committee find everything there conducted with the same care and attention, to the minutest detail that is used in the most successful business houses. A further statement of the management of its business, and of the principles which, in the opinion of its officers, underlie the whole system of successful life insurance upon the assessment plan, will be found in the testimony of the secretary, which we append:

Lyman M. Thayer, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examined by Mr. Cross.

Q. Your residence, age and occupation?

A. My residence is Detroit; my age about fifty-four; occupation, insurance. I am the secretary and one of the managers of the Western Union Mutual Life and Accident Society of the United States.

Q. How long have you been connected with that society?

A. From its organization. That was in February, 1880.

Q. Had you any previous knowledge of insurance?

A. Yes, I had been in the life insurance business about twenty-five years.

Q. In what capacity, prior to your connection with this company?

A. I was for a number of years a solicitor, and then after that period I was one of the general agents of the Equitable Life Insurance Society of New York, for the States of Ohio and West Virginia for four years. Then I was general agent of the Michigan Mutual from 1868 up to 1880.

Q. Were you one of the incorporators of the Western Union?

A. One of the associates of the incorporators.

Q. Who are those who were associated with you in organizing the company?

A. James L. Edson, Levi T. Griffin, Don M. Dickinson, Ford D. C. Hinchman, Butler Ives, William L. Brace, William B. McCreary, William H. Dunning, and myself.

Q. What was your general plan of organization?

A. Our general plan of business is set forth in our articles of association. Our system of insurance perhaps I could more fully explain to you.

A. What is your system of insurance?

A. In the first place, the company is a purely mutual company, the policy holders being interested in the affairs of the company, one just as much as another, excepting as to the amount of insurance carried. Of course a man who has a ten thousand dollar policy has four times as much power in voting as a man who has a twenty-five hundred dollar policy.

Q. What is the largest policy you issue.

A. Ten thousand dollars is the largest amount of insurance and twenty-five hundred the smallest amount we carry on any one life. A man may carry four twenty-five hundred dollar policies or one twenty-five hundred dollar policy, or a twenty-five hundred and a five thousand dollar policy, but the largest amount we carry on any one life is ten thousand dollars, and the minimum is twenty-five hundred dollars.

Q. You do your business upon what is known as the assessment plan?

A. We are organized under the law under which assessment insurance is done, but we do not use the word "assessment" in our articles of association or in our business. Our premiums are called premiums, but of course the theory is the assessment plan.

Q. You are organized under the law providing for the organizations of assessment companies?

A. We are organized under the law providing for the organization of companies for doing business on the assessment plan, but simply as a matter of taste, perhaps, more than anything else, we do not use the word "assessment," but we use the term "death premiums" for our premiums that we pay losses from, and "expense premiums" for the premiums we pay expenses from. The theory of the company is that every man carries insurance at just what it costs. Each man pays his share of the losses that occur in proportion to the amount of risk on his life and his age at the time the loss occurs.

Q. At the time the loss occurs?

A. Yes, sir; our death premiums are made up in this way: They are made up on the American table of mortality, loaded with a percentage to cover the contingency of the continuance of policies in force. We add to the mortality rate as laid down by the American table a certain percentage to cover the contingency of the continuance in force of a policy.

Q. Explain that.

A. That is the chance or the length of time, of the chance that the policy would be continued in force.

Q. Are there any statistics upon that question?

A. Yes, sir. The statistics are laid down in the history of any of the old line life insurance companies. That is simply taking out the death rate and the lapse rate. In the plan of the regular life insurance companies, as they are termed, they assume that every man who takes a policy is going to carry it through until death occurs or until the end of the endowment? Whereas there are a very small number of people ever die while their policies are in force; that is, a small number in proportion to those that are insured. In other words, the statistics show that policies are continued in force in old line companies less than seven years; 6-7 is the exact fraction that expresses the length of time that policies are carried. To explain that a little further, I mean to say that the statistics prove that a policy in the old line companies continues in force 6-7 years; call it in round numbers seven years. In other words, every life insurance company has a new set of policy holders, on an average, every seven years. Of course we know that there are some men insured in the old line companies that have had policies 25 or 30 or 40 years that are still living and keep their policies in force. But when you come to get the average length of time of all the policies carried it is less than seven years. And another point is that only ten out of a thousand really reap the benefit of the insurance that they take. All the others drop out before the contingency of death or term for which they are insured expires. And that you see is where I get at this contingency of continuance. When a man insures his life it is presumed he is going to keep it up until he dies. But when you come to take the other factor, which is the lapse of policies every year, there is the chance that the policy is going to drop away during the first year or the second year, or the third year. So I add to the American table of mortality a certain sum to cover the contingency, assuming that a policy would only be carried seven years. If our experience should prove that our policies are carried an average of more than seven years, then a slight inequity will begin, and it will increase as our policies continue beyond seven years. But if our experience in lapses should prove to be as it has been in the old time companies, there will be no inequity at all between these policy holders.

Q. Do you refer in that to the increase in the average age of your members?

A. No, I do not exactly refer to the average age. I do refer, however, to the increased risk that comes with the increased age of the policy holders.

Q. The inequity that you refer to is in that the cost of carrying the insurance of persistent members will be larger as the years go on?

A. Yes, if our experience should prove that our policies average to continue after seven years there is an inequity that can creep in. If our policies should average to continue in force ten years instead of seven, there will be an inequity creeping in for three years.

Q. Explain how you would do justice by the members?

A. There will be no way in which we can do away with that inequity at all, unless we can accumulate a reserve fund or emergency fund, whichever it may be called. If we can lay aside an emergency fund to a limited extent, then we can do away with that inequity. So far as our experience teaches, so far as we have got now, our lapse is very small, it is so small that our policies will average to continue in force longer than seven years. Of course we cannot tell what the next year will produce. We have been doing business seven years, and we have had a much smaller rate of lapse so far than any old line company that we have any record of.

Q. How do you account for that?

A. I do not know of any way, excepting the class of men we have in our business, the satisfactory manner in which our company has been conducted, the satisfactory results of the management of the company, and in the selection of risks, of course that has brought a low cost of carrying policies.

Q. Between what ages do you confine your membership?

A. We do not write anyone under 16 nor anyone over 60 years of age. A person under 25 years has to pay the same rate as a person of 25 years. We have a very small number under 25 years of age.

Q. What is the average age of your membership?

A. The average of our entire membership on the 31st day of December last was 43.77 years. That was on the total membership, taking each persons age on the 31st of December, the present age of any man that is insured in the company. Not the average age at the issue of the policy, but this is the average age of every man. Some men have been in six years and some five years, and this is the average age of every man insured in the company.

Q. You obtain that by taking the sum of all the ages and dividing by the number of members?

A. Yes, sir. Then we did it in another way, which increased the average about eight-tenths, making it 44 years and something, by multiplying the sum of all the ages by the amount of insurance at each age and getting the average.

Q. That is hardly as accurate as the other method?

A. No, sir; although some actuaries claim it is the true way to get the average age. It is the average liability; it is not really the average age of the members insured.

Q. Has the average age of your members perceptibly increased?

A. The average age of our members at the age of issue was about 42, and the increase has been almost imperceptible. I think it is about seventy-four one-hundredths of a year. The average age of our policies at issue, of all our policies, was about 43, but the average age of our business last year was a little younger than the average rate of issue of all our policies, younger than any year previous to that, and of course that to some extent reduced the age of all our policies.

Q. Will not the tendency be the increasing of the average age of your members in the coming year?

A. Of course that will depend altogether upon the way our policies hold on. If our policies should hold on in the same way they have in the past, unless we can decrease the average age of our new members each year, of course the tendency will be to increase the average age of the members.

Q. And that increases the liability?

A. That increases the liability.

Q. Then you would need an emergency fund in order to provide for that?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Would that, in your judgment, be essential to the perpetuity of the company?

A. I think it will.

Q. The American table of mortality is a uniform table?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Used by all life insurance companies?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And it is thoroughly reliable?

A. It is thoroughly reliable. It is high enough to cover all contingencies. There is no regular life insurance company that exceeds seventy-three per cent of the rate assumed by the American table.

Q. What do you consider to be the necessary qualities of a successful life insurance company?

A. I think to have a successful life insurance company, and particularly in a mutual company, or a company doing business on the assessment plan, as it is usually termed, the foundation rock upon which it must be placed is the selection of risks.

Q. And economy in the administration of its affairs?

A. Of course if the expenses are limited to a certain sum per thousand dollars of insurance, then it may be termed economical or it may be termed expensive. There are some companies that limit the expenses to a certain amount per annum on each thousand dollars of insurance carried. There are other companies that have a certain annual expense premium, and in addition to that they take a certain sum of certain kind of expenses that they have to pay out of the death premiums, thereby opening the door to any kind of expense that they can charge up to that fund. I think that is a very dangerous thing.

Q. The two factors then would be the selection of risks and economy in the administration?

A. Yes, and the conducting of business on business principles. You have to be much more particular about it than you do in old line insurance, because in that you have a binding quality in the higher premium and the reserve, which you have not in a mutual company.

Q. The companies organized upon your plan have to depend upon the confidence of the people?

A. Yes, sir; and the moment a company happens to get a black eye it falls to pieces very rapidly.

Q. Then you depend for the perpetuity of companies organized upon your plan upon an emergency fund?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. To what extent would you suppose that to be necessary?

A. As I said before, I put the figures at five per cent when I spoke about the provisions of a law. I think a limit of five per cent—and in that connection it is well to bear in mind that no company—I do not know of any company that is doing business upon this system that could lay aside more than 25 per cent of their death premiums, their mortality premiums. I have made a calculation of how long it would take us, if we should collect eight death premiums in a year, and lay aside 25 per cent, if we did not touch the reserve fund at all, to pay any excess of mortality, it would take us from 13 to 15 years before we would have three per cent laid aside; that is, before we would have three hundred dollars laid aside on a ten thousand dollar policy. If we had five per cent it would take nearly twenty years before we would get it; that is, not touching it at all, until we have the full limit. My idea of a reserve fund is not only to equalize the losses but to equalize the increased mortality and also to equalize the number of premiums the company should call for in a year. For instance, take my own company; we have during the last four years called six death premiums a year. Now, if during this year we should have a rate of mortality that would make it necessary to call for eight or ten, as might possibly be, it would cause an immense lapse of policies. Men would say, "Now, the time has come, old death has struck them, and now is the time for us to get out and get into a new company, elsewhere," and we should have an immense lapse rate. If we had on hand a reserve fund from which we could pay the excess of losses that year, and only call for six premiums, our policies would go right along just as they now. I think this is a very important matter in regard to a reserve, that when you have a rate of mortality that exceeds a certain sum, that you can take the reserve fund to pay that and thereby keep the rate of your assessments going right along as before.

Q. What in your opinion would be the desirability of providing a specific sum to be paid by companies organized upon your plan and insist that the company shall pay the full sum named in the certificate?

A. My idea is, that I think it is just the thing that ought to be required. I think every company that issues a policy should issue its policies for a specific amount, and whenever they cannot pay that the sooner they wind up the better, it is going to be better for the public and better for the companies that can pay.

Q. And the less the liability of the public to be deceived?

A. Yes, sir. If a company issues a policy for one thousand dollars they ought to pay one thousand dollars. Not have "FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS" printed in very large type and then have printed in very fine type, that a man cannot read without a magnifying glass, that it will depend upon the men that pay their assessments, how much the association will pay. And if the Western Union gets into a place where it cannot pay its policies in full, I shall be the first man to move to put it into the hands of a receiver and wind it up.

Q. What is the nature of the contract which you execute with your members, or that the members execute with the society, whether it is a mutual contract or not?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. A contract of mutuality?

A. It is.

Q. Is it similar to contracts that are made by mutual fire insurance companies and their members?

A. I could not answer that. I really do not know as I ever saw a fire insurance policy issued by a mutual company.

Q. Your understanding of the nature of your contract is that it is a mutual contract between the members?

A. Yes, purely mutual. One man is just as much interested as another in proportion to the amount of risk we have on his life. That is the governing power.

Q. Then in equity each member should receive as much benefit as any other member?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Ought not the company to enforce the contract so far as relates to its members?

A. We call our premiums in advance. We have our death premiums on hand; so that when a man drops his policy,—I would not say that there would not be any exception to a case of that kind—but in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred when a man drops his policy he has paid for all the insurance he has had up to that time; he has paid for all the losses that have occurred. There might possibly be a case where he would not have paid perhaps within one assessment. It would depend upon the date that the last loss happened to drop in, previous to the premium on which he lapsed his policy.

Q. Circumstances might occur whereby a liability might be created against the company and they have no funds with which to meet it?

A. Yes, where they had not provided for a loss that would occur while that policy was absolutely in force, but not to exceed one out of a hundred.

* Q. In a case of that kind the company would, in your judgment, have a right to enforce the collection of assessments?

A. Of course there never has been anything of that kind tried. What the law might do in case a company got into trouble and the thing lingered along and losses accumulated, and then a receiver should take it, I am not enough of a lawyer to know what might be done with them. I know a great many good lawyers in this State and other States assume that any liability that might occur while a man's policy is in force could be enforced against the policy holder.

Q. What is your general plan of doing business so far as the selection of members is concerned?

A. In the first place, we as managers have nothing to do with who are appointed medical examiners of the company, or the medical director, or with who shall be written or shall not be written. That is placed entirely in the hands of the medical director. The medical director is elected by the board of trustees and paid a salary. He is not interested in the business one way or another, either in having applications rejected or accepted, except to make the very best selection he can. He appoints the medical examiners. The applications come in and are placed on his desk. He looks them over and decides whether they are to be accepted or not, and no policy can be written until his written approval is on the application.

Q. What are your rules with regard to the insurable interests in the certificates?

A. We do not issue a policy to anyone who has not an insurable interest. And by insurable interest I mean we do go so far as to issue a policy to a creditor; that is, a policy is made payable to the executor, administrator or assigns of a member. In order to assign that policy a member has to give us a notice of the assignment of it, and it can only be assigned as the interest of the assignee may appear, and he has to prove his interest under oath when we settle the loss. We have paid some losses in that way.

Q. You pay simply the interest of the insured?

A. Yes, and the balance goes to the beneficiary named in the policy, if not it goes to the estate of the member.

Q. What is your definition of an insurable interest? What is the practice of your company as to insurable interests?

A. If you mean outside of the family, I would say a person who is pecuniarily interested in the continuance of the life of the insured—that is, it might be a creditor. But we do not insure anybody that does not make an application for the insurance himself, and he, for instance, designates that he wants it for the benefit of a certain creditor. We do not allow the creditor to make an application upon a man's life and we issue the policy; the insured is the man we make the contract with and he is the only man we recognize in anything we do. We only send a notice to creditor or beneficiary as a matter of courtesy, and we always send a notice to the person insured. There is not a person insured on our books that does not get a notice of the premium due in advance. Where there is a creditor we put it on the card that we send it as a matter of courtesy so that if the party insured does not pay it he can pay it himself; that is, when the creditor is the assignee of the policy.

Q. Would you recognize an application not signed by the insured as good?

A. We would not recognize it at all.

Q. Would you issue a certificate upon it?

A. No, sir; we would not consider it at all. We would not even present it to our medical director.

Q. A certificate issued upon an application not signed by the assured would be null and void?

A. Yes, sir. It could not be issued at all in the first place. We have two separate checks upon that. In the first place we have a witness to the signature of the man to the application, then we have the medical examiner as a witness to the signature of the man to the medical examination. We have that signature in both places. So that we look at the signature on the side of the application, and compare it with the signature to the medical examination. And the medical examiner certifies on the medical examination side of the application that that man is the person who signed the application on the other side of the paper, and the contract is based upon that statement being true. If it is not true his policy would be void. We have thrown around that part of the business all the safeguards that he have thought of thus far.

Q. You do not accept a physician's certificate upon an application as good when made out by the applicant himself?

A. No, sir. Every application must be written in ink, by the medical examiner, in his own handwriting. If it is written up in one handwriting and signed by another, we would not accept it. Doctors will sometimes say, "my clerk or my assistant filled this up and I signed it." We say we do not accept of any such examination. You have got to answer every question in your own handwriting, and put your signature to it and certify that it is all done in your own handwriting, and it must be done in ink.

Q. You prefer to hold your medical examiner responsible for the result of his examination?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You pay him for his examination?

A. Yes, pay for every examination made, whether the application is accepted or not. We pay it out of the advance premium; we do not have the man pay it himself.

Q. Are your medical examiners appointed by the company?

A. They are appointed by the medical director upon a regular certificate issued by the medical director. They have to make application for appointment, giving their age, the length of time they have been in practice, where they graduated, what year they graduated, and all that sort of information, and refer to not less than three other physicians and two prominent persons where they reside, and then when they come before the doctor he looks them up and finds their record to see if they graduated where they say they did, etc. Another thing, we confine our examinations to one or two men, depending upon the size of the place. In a place like Chicago we have four examiners, and all examinations are made by one of those examiners, and we do not go outside of those four. In a place of this size we have two. All our examinations here are made by Dr. Lyster himself.

Q. How many assessments do you make in the course of a year?

A. We have been getting our business in shape so that we have been able to make our collections four times a year, but it has averaged and has been for six assessments made in four collections.

Q. Do you allow any specific number of deaths to accumulate before you make a call?

A. Our basis for making a call is that we must have losses that cannot be paid out of the amount of money in the death benefit fund and leave at least a single death premium on every policy in force.

Q. Then you make your assessments in advance?

A. Yes, sir; our company was the first company, and until very recently the only company organized that made their members pay for the insurances at the start. Most of the companies now simply ask them to pay an initiation fee and to be assessed whenever a death occurs. Perhaps they may enjoy the benefits of the insurance and even die before an assessment is made. We make them pay one in advance from the start. We never have in the death benefit fund a sum less than one premium on every policy in force in cash in bank to the credit of the corporate name of the company. That cannot be drawn out, excepting upon the check of the president, countersigned by the treasurer and secretary, and payable to the order of the beneficiary of the deceased member. The only exception to it would be if the trustees should order a transfer of the death benefit fund from one bank to another.

Q. Is there any limit to the number of assessments which you can make?

A. No, sir; it is only limited by the deaths we have. We have to make calls to cover all the deaths.

Q. What proportion of the amount of the death premium goes into the death benefit fund?

A. Every cent of it. All expenses, of every name and nature, are paid out of the expense premiums. Every dollar of money that is paid for death premiums goes into the death benefit fund?

Q. How are those expense premiums divided?

A. There is two dollars on a thousand per year on each policy issued, and they come due in advance. The first one is paid in the first premium, and then they come due on the 15th of the month of the issue of the policy in every year. Of the policies in the month of April the annual expense premiums come due every year on the 15th day of April. It is an annual premium. Our policy expressly states that they must pay that amount of money on the 15th of the month in every year during the continuance of the policy, and we notify them 30 days previous to that time just as we do their regular assessments?

Q. From this expense premium is paid the entire expenses?

A. Yes, sir; these premiums are charged to cash when they come in and credited to the expense fund and from these expense premiums all our expenses are paid.

Q. A man of 35 years of age, what would it cost him to insure in your company for five thousand dollars?

A. For five thousand dollars he would pay when he takes the policy thirty-five dollars. Thirty dollars of that would be for expenses; five dollars would be his death premium. When he paid his thirty-five dollars his policy would take effect. That money is handed into our office, we pay the agent's commission, medical examiner, postage, exchange, and the balance of it remains in the fund to pay the expenses for the year. The death benefit premium is paid into the death benefit fund, and when we call on him for his premium he has to pay five dollars. If we call for two it is ten dollars. If we call for three it is fifteen dollars. When we send out a notice we send out a statement of the losses that have occurred since the last call, and also a statement of the money that has been paid into the death benefit fund, the amount of money drawn from the death benefit fund, and a certificate of the bank of the amount of money in the bank to the credit of the Western Union Mutual Life and Accident Society.

Q. You speak of "Accident?"

A. Under our articles of association we had the right to do accident business as well as life insurance business, but we never have done anything under the accident plan.

Q. Do you know what the expectancy under the American Table of Mortality is of a man of 35?

A. It is about 33 years.

Q. What would be, under ordinary circumstances, the average number of assessments for a man of 35?

A. There would be the same number on all the different ages. I was going on to say that we have, during the last four years—at the beginning of the company we did not have any losses the first year and only one or two losses the second year, but during the last four years we have only been obliged to call six premiums a year, and that has been done in four calls. In some we called for two and in some for one. That would be at the age of 35, a cost to him of thirty dollars and his expense premium ten dollars, making just forty dollars that it would cost him to carry a five thousand dollar policy in a year.

Q. Then to carry the 33 years would be how much?

A. Say $1,300.

Q. Then at the end of the period of expectancy?

A. If he keeps on paying for the 33 years he would get five thousand dollars. If he died in 20 minutes after his policy was in force we would pay him five thousand dollars. Now, the expectancy of life, truly and in fact, has nothing to do with life insurance contracts. The premium is not based on a man's expectation of life, because the expectation of life is constantly changing. Say it is 33 years when he is 35, it will be 32 years and a fraction when he is 36, and when he gets to be 80 or 90 he has still another expectation that carries him on, so that the premiums could not be based upon that. The premiums in old line companies are based on the chances of living a year, and the chances of dying in a year, and that constantly increases. Commencing at the age of ten with a certain number of men, at the age of eleven there is a still other number, and when you get down to the age of 95, they are all gone. They assume that every man is going to die at the end of the year when he is ninety-five years of age.

All of which is most respectfully submitted for the careful consideration of this Legislature, and ask to be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

consider the collection from them of an institute fee, so-called, unjust, and,

A bill to detach certain territory from the township of Gustin and attach the same to the township of Harrisville, in Alcona county, in the State of Michigan,

Respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration, and have directed me to report the same back to the Senate, with the accompanying substitute therefor, entitled

A bill to detach certain territory from the township of Harrisville, in Alcona county, in the State of Michigan, to organize the township of Gustin, in said county, to provide for the appointment of officers in and for said township of Gustin, and for the assessment and collection of taxes therein,

Recommending that the substitute be concurred in, and that the substitute do pass, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject, and, in connection with the report and recommendation above given, your committee desire to report the following facts, viz. :

First, The township of Harrisville, consisting of seven surveyed townships, was organized in 1860;

Second, Until within the past few years a very great majority of the electors of said township have resided on or near the shore, in town 26 north, of range 9 east, and as a consequence the management of the affairs of said township has been in the interest of said town 26 north, of range 9 east;

Third, There are 30 sections or thereabouts in town 26 north, range 9 east, and about 50 miles of highways in a good state of repair, within said town 26 north, range 9 east, not including the streets of the village of Harrisville;

Fourth, There are but nine miles of highways in the other six surveyed townships comprising the said township of Harrisville, showing that the highway tax of said township has been very largely expended in making highways in town 26 north, range 9 east;

Fifth, There are 96 resident electors in surveyed town 26 north, range 8 east, many of whom have over 15 miles to travel in order to reach the point where their township, county and State elections are held, and most of whom reside not more than three miles from the village of Killmaster, within the territory proposed to be organized into the township of Gustin;

Sixth, The total assessed valuation of the township of Harrisville as now constituted, is upwards of $1,000,000, and if the bill, as reported, is passed, the township will still have a valuation of $570,000 or thereabouts, while Gustin would have a valuation not far from $417,000;

Seventh, The board of supervisors of Alcona county is composed of four men, one of whom has always resided on or near the shore, in the township of Harrisville, so that it was necessary to get but two more supervisors to cooperate with him, to prevent the organization of a new township by the board of supervisors, which Harrisville has thus far been able to hinder;

Eighth, The township of Harrisville has often promised that a new township should be organized by the board of supervisors, but has as often violated such promise;

Ninth, Parties representing the township of Harrisville promised the Governor that if he would not veto the bill heretofore passed by this Legislature repealing an act organizing the township of Gustin, no objection would be made to the organization of a new township on a basis of a fair and equal division of territory as regards valuation;

Tenth, Your committee has spent much time and listened to all parties concerned, and feels fully satisfied that the township of Gustin should be organized, as recommended.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

No, 636. Mr. Gorman presented the following resolutions which were ordered spread at length on the journal:

At a meeting of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Michigan in Detroit, April 5, it was

Resolved, That file 178, House bill No. 518 was inimical to the interests of the homœopathic physicians of the State, the bill being discussed section by section, and it was voted "that a committee of three be appointed by the chair to draft a set of resolutions opposing this act, which shall be forwarded to the Legislature from the College of Physicians and Surgeons."

In accordance with above the undersigned, being the committee appointed, do most earnestly protest against the passage of this bill by the Legislature as being opposed to the interests of a large number of reputable practicing physicians, unjust, and in the interests of a particular class. The objectionable sections are as follows, with the reasons therefor:

SECTION 1.

Objected to on account of the number nine or twelve being better as capable of equal distribution between the three schools.

SECTION 2.

a. Objected to on account of assumption of term "regular," and also to same word wherever appearing in bill, as any physician graduating from a legitimized and reputable college is regular.

b. To unjust discrimination in proportions giving a majority to the allopathic school, viz., six (or seven) to four.

c. To the clause that the examiners in anatomy, physiology and chemistry shall not be practicing physicians as tending to throw their appointments into the hands of incumbents of the several chairs in the University, where ~~hostility to homœopathy~~ is well known.

SECTION 4.

a. To the clause requiring a ten years' practice in this State as necessary to a certificate from the Board.

b. To the ten year clause in any form as unjust to a large number of reputable physicians.

SECTION 5.

To this section in toto.

SECTION 7.

To the clause requiring a diploma from colleges having courses of instruction at least six months in length, as being unjust to a large number of able practitioners grown gray in medicine (though possibly practicing less than ten years in this state), who graduated previously to 1860, at which date but one medical college in this country had a six months' course, and secondly to very many equally able physicians graduating since then holding diplomas from colleges in good standing, which to-day have courses shorter than six months by varying intervals, the great majority of courses being from four and one-half to five and one-half months in length, and thirdly as being an effort to confine the practice of medicine in this State to graduates of the university with a few exceptions.

SECTIONS 8, 9 AND 10.

To the ten year clause as objected to under section 4.

By the committee on asylum for criminal insane:

The committee on asylum for criminal insane, to whom was referred

Senate bill No 260, entitled

A bill to provide for the locating, erection, organization and management of asylum for the dangerous and criminal insane, respectfully report:

That on February 7th, in company with the House committee, they visited and carefully inspected this new institution for the confinement and treatment of criminal and dangerous insane.

Your committee are satisfied that the measure providing for a separate institution for the convict and homicidal insane is a wise one, as these classes in our judgment would interfere with the proper management and treatment of the ordinary insane in the general asylums, and require such constant attention and watchful care as can best be secured in an asylum especially provided for the purpose.

The asylum seems to be under excellent management, the rooms being models of neatness, the patients well clothed and allowed the largest possible liberty, only two of the entire number being restrained, and only one secluded. Showing remarkable control over a class of patients quite difficult to manage.

Thorough system and good order reigned alike in all departments.

There was no complaint of ill treatment from any patient, and so far as your committee could judge there was no reasonable cause for fault finding, so far as efficient means at command was concerned. The system of heating is satisfactory and the ventilation excellent.

The management is greatly crippled in usefulness, however, for want of increased capacity in buildings, and a great number of necessary adjuncts for doing the work of such an institution. Although opened for the reception of patients less than one and a half years, it is already overcrowded, there being at the time of our visit one hundred and six patients, while the building can properly accommodate only about ninety.

This not only requires the use of attics and hallways for dormitories which are neither as comfortable, convenient, nor secure as is desirable, but it also prevents a proper classification of patients, necessitating the placing of the more dangerous patients on nearly all the wards.

Of the 106 patients, 84 had been convicted of crime, ten of whom were serving life sentences, and 19 having from one to thirty-five years yet to serve. Twelve were transferred from other asylums as manifesting dangerous homicidal tendencies.

At the present rate of increase, in a few years accommodation will be needed for upwards of three hundred patients of classes that can best be cared for in an institution of this kind.

But notwithstanding the necessity for more room, your committee are not in favor of adding to the buildings now in use, for the reason that they consider the site seriously objectionable.

One objection to the present site is the close proximity of the State house of correction, one of the cell blocks being only about fifty feet distant from the patients' building. The noise of disturbed patients is a source of annoyance in the prison, and injuriously affects the prison discipline. The rooms of patients on the upper ward command a view of the entire prison guard, and the windows afford a means of easy verbal communication between the inmates of the two institutions. The roadway on the south side of asylum building is much used by prisoners of the house of correction employed on outside work and affords opportunities for still closer and more dangerous communication. As garden and lawn work is performed by inmates of both institutions under circumstances that render close surveillance of keepers and attendants at times impracticable, the opportunities for communication are still further increased. And it has happened that patients of homicidal tendencies have in this manner procured deadly weapons, making it dangerous to all entrusted with the care of patients.

Another objection to present site is that it would be entirely impracticable to make such additions as will be indispensable within the next ten or twelve years.

The location of the laundry in the basement is very objectionable, as the extremely offensive odors from same cannot be prevented from penetrating the patients' rooms on the upper floors, and it is impossible to provide suitable ventilation for the laundry itself.

The want of proper grounds for outdoor exercise for the patients is seriously felt by the management, and the present site affords no opportunity for arranging such grounds as are desirable. At present, "besides a kind of pen in the rear of main building," there are available for this purpose only the public highways, and where it is impossible to avoid frequently encountering citizens, and where the chances for escape are greatly multiplied.

One of the most serious disadvantages of the present site is the want of a farm, which cannot be obtained within a half mile distance. And your committee are persuaded that a farm is not only of great importance in an economical point of view as a means of making available the labor of patients toward their own support, but is indispensable in the proper treatment of a large number of cases, furnishing precisely the kind of out-door exercise best adapted for curative results, and the only kind of remunerative labor on which a large majority of the patients could be employed.

The universal testimony of all experienced superintendents as to the reduction of expenses resulting from a farm, and the healthful influence of the occupation upon the patients, is so strongly favorable as to render the conclusion irresistible that places it among the indispensable adjuncts of the asylum.

The surplus fund on hand on February 1, 1887, after collection of all bills for maintenance of patients for last previous quarter, was $6,934.10. This amount is only sufficient to pay running expenses of the institution for current quarter, and your committee are of the opinion that this surplus should be allowed to remain as at present in the hands of the treasurer for use of asylum.

And as there can be no doubt that before another session of the Legislature there will be enough additional applicants for admission to this asylum to raise the number to 175, and as the committee coincide with the opinion of all officials who have personally investigated and carefully considered the matter that it is not advisable to extend the present building.

And as your committee are unable to agree as to the expediency of erecting a new asylum during the next two years, we therefore report the bill back to the Senate without recommendation as to its passage, but recommending that the bill be printed and referred to the committee on appropriations and finance, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

REPORTS OF SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

To the Honorable President and Members of the Senate:

SIR—I am instructed by the House to re-return to the Senate the following entitled bill:

Senate bill No. 42 (file No. 22), entitled.

A bill in relation to jurors in courts of record in the county of Wayne; and to revise the laws relative thereto,

Concerning which there was a disagreement between the two Houses, and on which a committee of conference was asked and granted,

Which committee reported as follows:

That the conference committee recommend that the amendment proposed by the House of Representatives to section 5 of the bill by striking out the following words, viz.: "freeholders or owners in their own right of personal property of the value of at least two hundred dollars," occurring in lines 3 and 4 of said section be concurred in by the Senate.

The reason of this recommendation, aside from the desire your joint committee had to reach an agreement upon this bill, is that the joint committee understands that it is the policy of the present executive of this State, as it was that of his two predecessors, that property qualification should not be required as a necessary pre-requisite for the citizens of this State to exercise the functions appertaining to the discharge of any of the duties of citizenship.

The conference committee further recommend that the amendment proposed by the House of Representatives occurring in line 6 of section 25 of the bill, by inserting after the word "colleges" the words "the senior member of any firm of druggists or pharmacist," be not concurred in, and that the House of Representatives recede from such amendment.

The conference committee still further recommend that the proposed amendment by the House of Representatives, being entire section 28, which reads as follows: "Not more than six members of the Board of Jury Commissioners shall be members of the same political party," be not concurred in, and the House of Representatives recede from such amendment, as your conference committee consider that such a provision is directly in conflict with the opinion of our Supreme Court as expressed in the case of "The Attorney General vs. Detroit Common Council," 58 Michigan, 213, which holds that "Matters of individual conscience, including opinions on political subjects, cannot affect a citizen in any of his legal and political rights, and making particular political opinions a condition to holding office is unconstitutional."

Your conference committee express the hope that the foregoing recommendations may be accepted by your honorable body, and that the bill as otherwise prepared may be passed, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

The bill was referred to the committee on engrossment and enrollment for enrollment.

The President also announced the following:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, }
Lansing, May 3, 1887. }

To the President of the Senate:

SIR—I am instructed by the House to re-return to the Senate the following entitled bill:

Senate bill No. 42 (file No. 22), entitled,

A bill in relation to jurors in courts of record in the county of Wayne; and to revise the laws relative thereto,

Concerning which there was a disagreement between the two Houses, and on which a committee of conference was asked and granted,

Which committee reported as follows:

That the conference committee recommend that the amendment proposed by the House of Representatives to section 5 of the bill by striking out the following words, viz.: "freeholders or owners in their own right of personal property of the value of at least two hundred dollars," occurring in lines 3 and 4 of said section be concurred in by the Senate.

The reason of this recommendation, aside from the desire your joint committee had to reach an agreement upon this bill, is that the joint committee understands that it is the policy of the present executive of this State, as it was that of his two predecessors, that property qualification should not be required as a necessary pre-requisite for the citizens of this State to exercise the functions appertaining to the discharge of any of the duties of citizenship.

The conference committee further recommend that the amendment proposed by the House of Representatives occurring in line 6 of section 25 of the bill, by inserting after the word "colleges" the words "the senior member of any firm of druggists or pharmacist," be not concurred in, and that the House of Representatives recede from such amendment.

The conference committee still further recommend that the proposed amendment by the House of Representatives, being entire section 28, which reads as follows: "Not more than six members of the Board of Jury Commissioners shall be members of the same political party," be not concurred in, and the House of Representatives recede from such amendment, as your conference committee consider that such a provision is directly in conflict with the opinion of our Supreme Court as expressed in the case of "The Attorney General vs. Detroit Common Council," 58 Michigan, 213, which holds that "Matters of individual conscience, including opinions on political subjects, cannot affect a citizen in any of his legal and political rights, and making particular political opinions a condition to holding office is unconstitutional."

Your conference committee express the hope that the foregoing recommendations may be accepted by your honorable body, and that the bill as otherwise prepared may be passed, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

J. W. BABCOCK,
JOHN C. SHARP,
C. WISNER,

Conferees on the part of the Senate.

JUDSON GRENELL,
ERASTUS N. BATES,

Conferees on the part of the House.

Now to inform the Senate that in the report of said committee the House concurs.

Very respectfully,

DANIEL L. CROSSMAN,
Clerk of the House of Representatives.

The bill was referred to the committee on engrossment and enrollment for enrollment.

And to inform the Senate that the House has amended the same by striking out all of section 5 of the bill,

In the passage of which, as thus amended, the House has concurred by a majority vote of all the members elect, and has ordered the same to take immediate effect by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elect.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

By the committee on roads and bridges:

The committee on roads and bridges to whom was referred

House bill No. 404 (file No. 193), entitled

A bill to amend section 10 of chapter 11 of act No. 243 of the public acts of 1881, entitled, "An act to revise and consolidate the laws relating to the establishing, opening, improvement and maintenance of highways and private roads, and the building, repairing and preservation of bridges within this State,

Respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration, and have directed me to report the same back to the Senate, without amendment, and recommend that the bill do pass, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

W. J. WILLITS, Chairman.

Report accepted and committee discharged.

The bill was referred to the committee of the whole and placed on the general order.

By the committee on State prison:

The committee on State prison, to whom was referred

Senate bill No. 409, entitled

A bill appropriating money for additional buildings, improvements and general repairs to, and purchasing land for the State prison at Jackson,

Respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration, and have directed me to report the same back to the Senate, with the accompanying substitute therefor, entitled

A bill appropriating money for additional buildings, improvements and general repairs at the State prison at Jackson,

Recommending that the substitute be concurred in and that the substitute do pass, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

Pursuant to your request the committee also beg leave to submit the following relative to the bill :

We find on investigation that there are 805 prisoners now confined in the prison, which is crowded beyond its capacity to such an extent that 120 prisoners are obliged to sleep in the corridors upon cots. This, in the opinion of your committee is hazardous alike to the warden and keepers of the prison and to the State. In view of the large increase in prison population your committee deem the suggestions of the prison board as to the erection of a new prison block eminently wise, and we are of opinion that the block should be built and equipped in accordance with the plans and specifications submitted by the board.

This proposed addition is to contain 300 cells, costing $89,000, and it is the opinion of your committee that it is good public policy to appropriate that amount for the purpose named rather than to appropriate $27,000 to cover the cost of putting cells in the east wing of the prison now occupied for school and storage purposes, thus necessitating a large outlay for the construction of other buildings. The building of a new cell block cannot in any event be long delayed, and your committee, for the reasons stated above, recommend the appropriation asked for. The east wing would only contain 90 cells if fitted for that purpose.

The appropriation for the rebuilding of the shops occupied by the Webster Manufacturing Company, is necessary, as the shops are low and dark and in an old and dilapidated condition, and dangerous, as they are liable to fall at any time.

And in accordance with the request of the Senate your committee respectfully submit the following as the itemized statement which is herewith attached of the requirements of the State prison.

Report accepted and committee discharged.

On motion of Mr. Seymour,

The Senate concurred in the amendment made to the bill by the committee.

The bill was then referred to the committee of the whole, and placed on the general order.

By unanimous consent,

Mr. Deyo moved to take from the table the following concurrent resolution:

Resolved by the House (the Senate concurring), that a special joint committee consisting of two of the House and one of the Senate be appointed to investigate the charges and rumors against the management of the State public school and against the character of the superintendent and others in charge, with full authority in the premises to hold sessions, at the school or elsewhere, at such times as shall best suit their convenience, to enforce the attendance of witnesses, administer oaths, taking in full the testimony with clerk and stenographer, as to them may seem desirable, and to perform every act of examination by means of the books and records of the institution, or otherwise, as to them shall seem necessary to a full understanding of the facts in the case, and report their doings to the Legislature at their earliest convenience.

Which motion prevailed.

The question being on concurring in the adoption of the resolution,

Mr. J. W. Babcock submitted certain charges against the management of the school, the reception of which the President ruled should be delayed until after the disposition of the pending question.

Mr. J. W. Babcock demanded the yeas and nays on the adoption of the resolution.

The concurrent resolution was then not adopted by yeas and nays, as follows:

YEAS.

Mr. Babcock, J. W.,	Mr. Holbrook,	Mr. Roof,	Mr. Stark,
Babcock, W. I.	Hubbell,	Seymour,	Willits,
Campbell,	Rairden,	Sharp,	Wisner,

Barton,	Gorman,	Moon,	Potter,
Crosby,	Harshaw,	O'Reilly,	Westgate,
Edwards,	Laing,			18

Mr. Hubbell then offered the following

PROTEST:

As a Senator from the 32d Senatorial district of this State, I hereby respectfully enter my protest against the action of the Senate of this State in refusing to concur in the resolution received from the House of Representatives of this State providing for the appointment of a joint select committee to investigate into the affairs and management of the State Public School at Coldwater, for the reason that in my judgment such action will tend to the injury of said school and impair its usefulness as a State institution.

JAY A. HUBBELL,

Senator 32d Senatorial District.

Mr. J. W. Babcock then withdrew the specific charges and presented the following

PROTEST:

We protest against the action of the Senate because we charge upon information and belief that the management of the Coldwater school has been derelict in duty in this:

First, That said board have, without just cause, discharged certain of the teachers employed in said school;

Second, That certain of the male employes of said school have taken indecent liberties with certain female employes of said school;

Third, That because certain other female employes of said school told the truth concerning said school, they were discharged simply because they told the truth.

J. W. BABCOCK,

Senator Sixteenth District.

CHARLES I. DEYO,

Senator Fourteenth District.

Mr. Edwards moved that the protest as presented be received but not published in the journal of proceedings.

The President ruled the motion not in order, because section 10 of article 4 of the constitution specifies that "Any member of either House may dissent from and protest against any act, proceedings, or resolution which he may deem injurious to any person or the public, and have the reason of his dissent entered on the journal."

Mr. Edwards appealed from the decision of the Chair.

The question being, "Shall the decision of the chair stand as the decision of the Senate?"

Pending the taking of the vote thereon, the appeal was, after some discussion, withdrawn.

The President called the President pro tem. to the chair.

The President pro tem. announced the arrival of the time fixed for the

SPECIAL ORDER,

The first named bill was then read a third time, and

Pending the taking of the vote thereon,

2. By striking out of line 17, section 1226, the words "one-tenth," and inserting in lieu thereof thereof the words "twenty-five per cent."

Pending which,

On motion of Mr. Hubbell,

On motion of Mr. Hubbell,

2 o'clock P. M.

The Senate met and was called to order by the President.

Roll called: quorum present.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

No. 673. By Mr. Stark: Protest of 11 business firms of the city of Grand Rapids against any extraordinary legislation on the liquor question.

On motion of Mr. Stark,

The protest was ordered spread at length upon the Journal.

The following is the protest:

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 2, 1887

Hon. Geo. P. Stark, Senator, Lansing, Michigan.

DEAR SIR: As you are aware a large majority of your constituents in all parties, and the best business men of Grand Rapids, opposed the prohibition amendment openly and earnestly, and their opposition was enhanced and emphasized by the belief, (which amounted to a certainty,) that such extraordinary measure if carried, would cause an unprecedented upheaval of all business transactions, destroy confidence, and establish precedents which if pursued might result in the absolute destruction of individual rights, through the meddlesome mischief of unscrupulous fanatics. And we can assure you that the same spirit that incited all the best citizens here to oppose that amendment will incite their earnest hostility to any unusual and extraordinary legislation upon that question.

Pending the uncertainty as to the passage of that amendment, business became stagnant, confidence in a great measure was destroyed and real estate was at a stand-still. Since its defeat, business has revived, confidence has been restored, and to-day real estate is now active, there being as great a number of transfers (at unusually favorable rates) as there ever has been in the history of this city. And when we say that our citizens—your constituents—not only do not desire, but are absolutely opposed to the extraordinary legislation that seems impending against one of the greatest industries of this country, we but state the honest opinion of all sensible men. Having just passed through the one great crisis, our friends are desirous of “letting well enough alone,” and the almost universal expression, save of the prohibitionist is, that they hope this Legislature will leave the law as it now is, for at least the next two years, until they recover from the throes of the last agony, that has been heaped upon us by those who seek to superintend their neighbor's business.

Respectfully yours,

No. 675. By Mr. Westgate: Petition of Cyrus B. Thomas and 75 other citizens of Saginaw county asking for a repeal of the act requiring teachers to pay an institute fee, and providing that the expense of county institutes be paid from the treasury of the State.

On motion of Mr. Westgate

The petition was ordered spread at length upon the journal.

The following is the petition:

EAST SAGINAW, MICH., }

To the Legislature of the State of Michigan:

No. 683. By Mr. Crosby: Petition of certain Detroit manufacturers of lager beer.

On motion of Mr. Crosby,

The petition was ordered spread at length on the journal.

The following is the petition:

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan:

The manufacturers of lager beer in this State would respectfully show:

First, That there are no distilleries in the State of Michigan for the manufacture of spirituous liquors; that there are small quantities of wine and large quantities of lager beer manufactured in the State, and we believe there are not any other kinds of malt, brewed, or fermented liquors manufactured in this State;

Second, That a tax, therefore, upon the manufacture of spirituous and intoxicating, malt, brewed, fermented, or vinous liquors, can only reach and be exacted from the manufacturers of lager beer;

Third, That such manufactures are assessed under the general laws of this State upon all their real and personal property, and pay taxes thereon, in the same manner as owners of all property therein, not subject to the payment of a specific tax;

Fourth, That at the time the payment of such tax was imposed there was also imposed upon non-residents of this State who sold herein, a like tax. That while such provision was declared valid by the supreme court of this State, the supreme court of the United States has recently decided and held the same unconstitutional and void, so that such non-residents are not and cannot be taxed, nor can the Legislature of this State subject such non-resident manufacturers or dealers to the payment of any tax whatever;

Fifth, The result therefore is that the resident manufacturer has to pay a double tax, first upon his property according to the cash value thereof, and secondly, a specific tax as a manufacturer, and compete with a non-resident who does not pay any tax whatever in this State. This we respectfully submit is an unjust discrimination against the resident and in favor of the non-resident, should it be permitted longer to remain in force. Until the decision referred to in the supreme court of the United States, we could not and did not complain.

Sixth, There is but one argument we can conceive of in favor of permitting this unjust discrimination to remain, viz., that the sale and consumption of such liquors may thereby be diminished in this State. We respectfully submit, however, that such discrimination has no such tendency. So long as there is a public demand for beer and wine, and especially so long as the sale thereof is legal, the taxation of any or all the breweries in this State out of existence would not affect the question. The brewers and dealers in other States would supply the demand, and would be only too happy to do so, and as they are not subject to the demands or regulations of this state, they should not be favored at our expense.

Seventh, The protection of home industries has been the principal plank in the platform of one of the great parties of the State and nation, while the other great party has been in favor of free trade. The law we complain of violates the principles of both parties and proclaims taxation of home industries for the benefit of foreign manufacturers;

We therefore respectfully ask that in view of the decision referred to we may hereafter be relieved from such an unjust discrimination, and your petitions will ever pray, etc.

No. 698. By Mr. Hubbell: Petition of E. W. Meddaugh, Alfred Russell and 82 other residents of Detroit, asking for the passage of Senate bill No. 150 (file No. 174), relating to the election of Representatives in the State Legislature in districts having more than two.

On motion of Mr. Hubbell,

The petition was ordered spread at length upon the Journal.

The following is the petition:

To the Honorable, the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Legislature of Michigan :

We, the undersigned citizens of Detroit, most respectfully call your attention to Senate bill No. 250 (file No. 174), entitled "A bill relating to the election of Representatives in the State Legislature, from districts entitled to more than two," introduced by Senator Hubbell, and favorably reported by the Senate committee on judiciary, and the passage of which we most earnestly desire and petition your honorable body therefor.

The principles of this bill are similar to act 112 of the session laws, 1885, providing for minority representation in the boards of directors of corporations, the passage of which was so largely petitioned for by the labor interests of the State.

A similar provision is and has been for years a part of the constitution of the State of Illinois, is found to be a practical success in its operation and is warmly commended by all parties as being eminently just and fair.

The bill here petitioned for affects only the city of Detroit. Our seven representatives must be elected upon a general city ticket, whereas were it possible to divide our territory into districts corresponding in population with the ratio established for single districts, in other parts of the State, it would always secure to this city that division of representation which would be for the best welfare of its large and diverse interests in legislation.

No. 699. By Mr. Hubbell: Petition of D. H. Servoss and 45 other residents of Gladwin county, asking that said county be detached from the 21st judicial circuit and attached to the 19th judicial circuit.

On motion of Mr. Hubbell,

The petition was ordered spread at length upon the Journal.

The following is the petition:

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan:

We, the undersigned residents of the county of Gladwin, do hereby respectfully ask your honorable body to pass the bill detaching Gladwin county from the 21st judicial circuit and attaching the same to the 18th judicial circuit, for the reason, among others, that the present judge of the 21st judicial circuit resides at Midland City and that the most of the time we have no circuit court commissioner, as those elected to the office do not qualify, and in order to reach the present judge we are obliged to travel twenty miles by wagon and then from twenty to fifty miles by rail if we are lucky enough to find him; and for the further reason that a railroad is being built to run directly from Gladwin to Bay City where the judge of the 18th judicial district resides, and it will enable litigants to go before the judge upon any matter to be heard before him at Chambery and return home the same day, whereas it now takes two or three days and involves much expense; and for the further reason, that the 21st judicial circuit comprises five counties, and we believe that it would equalize the labor to be performed by the judges of the two circuits above mentioned, respectively. We understand that this measure would be agreeable to both judges and citizens of both circuits generally.

Dated, Gladwin, May 4, 1887.

No. 700. By Mr. Roof: Remonstrance of L. W. Robinson and 20 other business men of Hubbardston, Ionia county, against the passage of any law taxing druggists for the sale of liquors, when sold exclusively for medicinal and mechanical purposes.

No. 701. By Mr. Post: Petition of W. E. Barber, C. C. Fouch and numerous others, asking that the county of Gladwin be detached from the twenty-first judicial district and attached to the eighteenth judicial district.

On motion of Mr. Post,

The petition was ordered spread at length upon the journal.

The following is the petition:

To the Hon. the Senate and House of Representatives, Lansing, Mich.:

We, the undersigned citizens and residents of the county of Gladwin, State of Michigan, would respectfully request your honorable body to pass the proposed bill cutting off the county of Gladwin from the twenty-first judicial circuit and attaching the same to the eighteenth judicial circuit, for the reason, among many others, that the present judge resides at the village of Midland, in Midland county, and to reach that place it becomes necessary to travel by stage over twenty miles to Coleman, on the F. & P. M. R. R., and from Coleman to Midland; while a railroad is now being built from Gladwin village to run directly to Bay City, Bay county, and will make that point where the judge of the eighteenth judicial circuit resides much more convenient and of ready access in the transaction of legal business in the circuit of Gladwin county. And your petitioners will ever pray.

The resolution was ordered spread at length upon the Journal.

The following is the resolution:

Resolution offered by Amos S. Johnson:

WHEREAS, There is now pending before our State Legislature a bill, No. 305 (Senate file No. 152), for the amendment of the present tax law; and

WHEREAS, Certain portions of said bill exempts from assessment all lands described therein as State tax lands while so held by the State, which would include at present in Mecosta county about 20,000 acres, the greatest portion of which could be sold for said taxes if purchasers could be assured of obtaining a title thereto without an almost endless litigation; therefore be it

Resolved, That such exemption as contemplated in sec. 63 of said bill is unjust to the newer and sparsely settled counties of this State, and that our members of the State Legislature be and are hereby requested to use all fair means to defeat said clause of said amendment. And that the clerk of this board be and is hereby instructed to at once forward a certified copy of this paper to said Senators and Representatives.

Kalamazoo, May 9, 1887.

Senator Willits, Lansing, Mich.,

DEAR SIR:—At a regular meeting of the Kalamazoo academy of medicine held in this city on May 3, the following was proposed by Dr. Hemenway, and unanimously adopted:

“WHEREAS, certain newspapers of the State have sought to belittle our State board of health and its work; and

“WHEREAS, Senator Sharp has introduced a bill to repeal the act of 1881 whereby $2,000 per year is appropriated for sanitary conventions and other sanitary work;

“Therefore, be it, by the Kalamazoo academy of medicine, a legally incorporated body of regular physicians, and whose membership reside in the various counties of south western Michigan;

“Resolved, That the Michigan State board of health has done and is doing a work which places it among the leading sanitary bureaux of the world, and which has caused it to be regarded as an authority on such subjects in Europe as well as America;

“Resolved, That in holding sanitary conventions in the various localities of the State, not so much to advance sanitary science as to distribute among the people knowledge already gathered, the board has acted very wisely, and that the results of such conventions have been worth many times their cost;

“Resolved, That such conventions are at least as valuable to the community as either teachers’ or farmers’ institutes;

“Resolved, That any action by the Legislature, which should tend to cripple the board, would be a public injury;

Resolved, That we as a society request our members of the Legislature to use their utmost endeavor to aid, not hinder the work of the State board of health;

“Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, signed by the president and secretary of the academy be sent to Senator Willits and Representative A. L. Lakey, with the request that they present the same to their respective houses."

Please present these as requested, and use your influence to carry out the wish of the society here expressed.

The proposed cottage will consist of a basement, two stories and an attic. The outline of the building will be nearly square. Its length will be 80 feet and width 52 feet, which will give a floor surface to each story of 4,160 square feet. The basement will be ten feet and the first and second stories eleven feet in height. The basement walls will be of stone, fourteen inches in thickness, and the superstructure will be of brick, outside walls twelve inches in thickness, and interior walls from eight to twelve inches in thickness, as may be necessary for strength and the introduction of heating and ventilating flues.

The basement story will be finished into a—

Kitchen,
Dining-room,
Boot and coat room,
Lavatory,
Store-room,
Boiler and coal room,
Hall-way, and
Two stairways.

The first story will contain—

Attendant's room and clothes press,
Clothes-room for patients,
Sitting-room,
Two Dormitories,
Water closet,
Lavatory,
Bath-room,
Hall-way, and
Two stairways.

The second story will contain—

Attendant's room,
Three Dormitories,
One single room,
Lavatory and water-closet,
Hall-way, and
Stairs to attic.

The sitting-room on the first floor and the dormitory immediately above it will be furnished with fire-places. The attic can be used for a store-room, and will contain the trunk flues for ventilation.

The proposed cottage will be plain and substantial, and will fully meet the needs of a quiet class of patients. The basement and first story will each have three places of ingress and egress, and the second story will have two, which will insure comparative safety to the occupants of the building in case of fire.

The site of the proposed cottage sufficiently slopes to the south and east for much of the basement to be on a level of the ground to the front and to the south of the building. This conformation of the site will make it possible to use the basement for a kitchen, etc., and will also render it practicable to erect a more compact and less expensive building than could otherwise be done.

The water supply of the proposed cottage can be inexpensively furnished by continuing a water main to it from the present asylum building.

The necessity for additional accommodations for the insane in this asylum district is urgent at the present time, and in spite of any crowding to which the asylum may be put without further provisions, many patients must suffer for want of care and treatment before another Legislature can meet. It should also be remembered that many of the counties of this asylum district have no county houses in which to afford even temporary care to insane persons. Therefor, if a case of dangerous insanity arises, and if the patient be excluded from the asylum from lack of room, he must either be placed in jail with criminals or remain at large a constant source of fear and distress to his friends, if not to the whole community in which he resides. There are several counties in Northern Michigan which have neither county houses nor jails, in fact no place other than the asylum in which to care for a dangerous insane person. If it is right for the State to foster these charities it is doubly right that she should provide necessary accommodations for the insane of our new and struggling communities.

During the past five months the net increase in the number of male patients has been about five per month. This is not far from what the average will be for the coming year. The male side of the asylum is now full, and unless the present Legislature affords additional room, at the above rate of increase there will be between one and two hundred male patients in the district who cannot be cared for before we can get legislative aid, and erect the necessary buildings for their accommodation. There are under treatment 249 male patients and six more beds can be put in. Five male patients are promised for this week, so that out of a total of 255 beds on the male side there is but one vacancy left.

The male department is now crowded to such an extent that it is difficult to provide for the proper care of those acutely ill from any cause. There is in an institution of this kind always a certain number of patients suffering from chronic diseases; notably, consumption of the lungs, who require and should have a certain amount of isolation, not only for their own welfare but to protect others from infection. We think enough has been said to demonstrate that it will be impossible for this asylum to care for all the insane citizens of this district without further accommodations being provided by the State. Further, in connection with this question, the importance of early treatment should not be lost sight of, and we believe that the mental life of the recent insane should not be endangered from lack of asylum room for their prompt and early care.

The proposed cottage can be built and equipped for $300 per capita, which on the score of economy will not fail to favorably commend itself to all.

We still have on the female side, including cottage, thirty-six vacancies. At the same rate of admission for females as for males the asylum can receive all the female insane of this district for about six months to come.

Yours very respectfully,

THOMAS T. BATES,
President Board of Trustees.

No. 716. By Mr. Harshaw : Memorial of John Beak and Monroe Klock, of Alpena, Mich., asking for the protection of home manufacturers of beer in this State.

On motion of Mr. Harshaw

The memorial was ordered spread at length upon the journal.

The following is the memorial :

To the Honorable, the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Michigan :

The manufacturers of lager beer in this State would respectfully show :

First, That there are no distilleries in the State of Michigan for the manufacture of spirituous liquors. That there are small quantities of wine and large quantities of lager beer manufactured in this State, and we believe there are not any other kinds of malt, brewed or fermented liquors manufactured in this State ;

Second, That a tax, therefore, upon the manufacture of spirituous and intoxicating, malt, brewed, fermented or vinous liquors, can only reach and be exacted from the manufacturers of lager beer and wines ;

Third, That such manufacturers are assessed under the general laws of this State upon all their real and personal property, and pay taxes thereon, in the same manner as owners of all property therein not subject to the payment of a specific tax ;

Fourth, That at the time the payment of such tax was imposed there was also imposed upon non-residents of this State who sold herein, a like tax. That while such provision was declared valid by the supreme court of this State, the supreme court of the United States has recently decided and held the same unconstitutional and void, so that such non-residents are not and cannot be taxed, nor can the Legislature of this State subject such non-resident manufacturers or dealers to the payment of any tax whatever ;

Fifth, The result therefore is that the resident manufacturer has to pay a double tax, first upon his property according to the cash value thereof, and secondly, a specific tax as a manufacturer, and compete with a non-resident who does not pay any tax whatever in this State. This we respectfully submit is an unjust discrimination against the resident and in favor of the non-resident, should it be permitted longer to remain in force. Until the decision referred to in the Supreme court of the United States, we could not and did not complain ;

Sixth, There is but one argument we can conceive of in favor of permitting this unjust discrimination to remain, viz: That the sale and consumption of such liquors may thereby be diminished in this State. We respectfully submit, however, that such discrimination has no such tendency. So long as there is a public demand for beer and wines, and especially so long as the sale thereof is legal, the taxation of any or all the breweries in this State out of existence, would not affect the question. The brewers and dealers in other States would supply the demand, and would be only too happy to do so, and as they are not subject to the demands or regulations of this State, they should not be favored at our expense;

Seventh, The protection of home industries have been the principal plank in the platform of one of the great parties of the state and nation, while the other great party has been in favor of free trade. The law we complain of violates the principles of both parties, and proclaims taxation of home industries for the benefit of foreign manufacturers. We therefore respectfully ask that in view of the decision referred to we may hereafter be relieved of such an unjust discrimination; and your petitioners will ever pray, etc.

RULE 40. When a question has been once put and decided, it shall be in order for any member to move the reconsideration thereof; but no motion for the reconsideration of any vote shall be in order unless the bill, resolution, message, report, amendment, or motion upon which the vote was taken shall be in the possession of the Senate; nor shall any motion for reconsideration be in order, unless made on the same day the vote was taken, or within the next two days of the actual session of the Senate thereafter, nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

YEAS AND NAYS.

RULE 41. Upon any question, the names of those who voted for or against the same shall be entered alphabetically on the journal, if one member require it, and each member called upon, unless for special reasons he be excused by the Senate before the roll call begins, shall declare openly and without debate his assent or dissent to the question.

RULE 42. After the yeas and nays are called upon any question, and after the question is stated from the Chair, and the Secretary directed to call the roll, and the first vote given, no member shall be entitled to speak on the question, nor shall any motion be in order until such roll call is finished and the result declared.

CALL OF THE SENATE.

RULE 43. A call of the Senate may be ordered by a majority of the members present, whether a quorum or not, and in pursuance thereof the Sergeant-at-arms or any other person or persons duly empowered by a majority of the members present and voting, may be dispatched for and arrest any or all members absent without leave, as said majority shall agree (at the expense of such absent members respectively, unless such excuse shall be made for non-attendance as the Senate, when a quorum is convened, shall judge sufficient; in which case the same shall be paid as incidental expenses of the Senate). And any such member or members absent without sufficient excuse shall not be entitled to per diem allowance during the time of absence, in case the Senate shall so determine by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting.

PREVIOUS QUESTION.

RULE 44. The mode of ordering the previous question shall be as follows: Any member may move the previous question. This being seconded by at least one other member, the Chair shall submit the question in this form, "Shall the main question now be put?" This shall be ordered only by a majority of the members present and voting. The effect of ordering the previous question shall be to instantly close debate and bring the Senate to an immediate vote on the pending question or questions in their regular order. The motion for the previous question may be limited by the mover to one or more of the questions preceding the main question itself, in which case the form shall be, "Shall the question, as limited, be now put?" The yeas and nays may be demanded on any vote under this rule, and a motion for a call of the Senate shall be in order at any time prior to the ordering of the previous question. Any question of order, or appeal from the decision of the Chair pending the previous question, shall be decided without debate. When the question is on a motion to reconsider, under the operation of the previous question and is decided in the affirmative, the previous question shall have no operation upon the question to be reconsidered. If the Senate refuses to order the previous question, the consideration of the subject shall be resumed, as if no motion therefor had been made.

APPEALS.

RULE 45. Any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair. On all appeals the question shall be, "Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the Senate?" Appeals shall be debatable except when the Senate is under the operation of the previous question, or the decision appealed from relates to priority of business.

On motion of Mr. Edwards,

On motion of Mr. Giddings,

The bill was laid upon the table.

By the committee on banks and incorporations:

The committee on banks and incorporations, to whom was referred

Senate bill No. 471 (file No. 187), entitled

A bill to revise the laws authorizing the business of banking, and to establish a banking department for the supervision of such business,

Respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration, and have directed me to report the same back to the Senate, with the accompanying amendments, recommending that the amendments be concurred in, and that the bill, when so amended, do pass.

We also submit herewith the following summary of the bill, with the reasons for its passage:

In submitting a bill for a revision of the general banking laws of the State, your committee desire to call attention to some of the changes proposed, and give brief reasons therefor.

NEED OF A STATE BANKING DEPARTMENT.

Under the present laws the State banks report to the State Treasurer, and there are some powers of visitation vested in him, but the powers conferred upon that officer are not, and never have been, sufficient either in definition or scope, to secure such thorough supervision as would amount to anything like an adequate protection of the depositors, customers or stock-holders; nor indeed such as to secure ample justice to the banks themselves, hence the apparent necessity of the establishment (by the proposed law) of a State department that shall be specially charged with this work, to be known as the State Banking Department.

PROPOSED OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES.

The chief officer of the department is to be styled the Commissioner of the Banking Department, who shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for the term of four years. He shall appoint a deputy and such clerks as his departments need for the transaction of its business. The Commissioner shall give his full time and personal attention to the duties of the office, and ample power is proposed to be given him to enforce the provisions of the law, and to see to it that a thorough examination is made into the condition of all banks coming under the provisions of the law. It is made the duty of the Commissioner further to see:

First, That the articles of association of the several banks organizing under this act are proper in form and duly filed;

Second, That at least fifty per cent of their capital stock is paid in at the time of organization;

Third, That they give the name and place of residence of each of the directors, and the amount of capital stock of which each is the owner in good faith.

Fourth, That the balance of the capital stock is paid in and that such payments are properly certified under oath by the proper officer;

Fifth, That all the requirements of the act have been complied with before he grants a certificate authorizing any bank to commence business.

The rights of the banks are to be guarded by requiring the concurrence of the attorney general before summary proceedings can be begun to enforce forfeitures for the violation of any of the provisions of the law.

HOW EXPENSES SHALL BE MET.

The department is not to be a source of expense to the State, but will be self sustaining from the start, as the entire expense is to be met by fees paid by the banks, as provided for in section 40 of the bill. While the method of determining the amount which each bank shall pay is somewhat similar in principle to that adopted in other States, we think the one embodied in this bill the fairest of any that have come under our observation, being based upon a "per cent. of the gross amount of the assets of the bank." It is also fair to allude to the fact that the three largest State banks, whose officers have been most active in helping to perfect a fair and safe bill, and who suggested the section and method alluded to, will, under its provisions, pay something over one-third of the total expenses of the department, as figured on the basis of the latest reports of the banks of the State.

Your committee also observes that the comptroller of the currency of the United States has recently recommended that section 5240 of the national banking law be so amended as to adopt substantially this plan for apportioning the compensation for examination of national banks.

PROVISIONS OF THE BILL

One feature of the bill to which the committee calls special attention is that it provides for two classes of banking business that are now being carried on by State banks, as follows:

First, Commercial banks that shall be offices of deposit and discount, the deposits to be such as are known as "commercial deposits," and the loans that of discount of negotiable and commercial paper. This class of banks will, however, be permitted to invest a portion of their capital and deposit over the required reserve, in certain designated kinds of personal security; and also, under certain restrictions, to loan on, or take as collateral security, mortgages on real estate not to exceed 50 per cent. of their capital stock;

Second, Those known as "savings banks," in the guarding of which great care has been taken in the preparation of the bill to secure the greatest safety to depositors. The law of 1871 has been somewhat followed. The bill not only permits but requires subscribed capital, and makes each stockholder liable for double his capital stock; provides for the accumulation of a surplus fund and for the investment of all deposits over and above the required reserve fund. State or municipal bonds, duly authorized, of communities or States that have not, within ten years, repudiated their just obligations, may be invested in, and also a certain proportion of real estate securities.

Provisions are also made for a combination of the two systems. Such banks are now doing a necessary and safe business in many localities, and your committee has thought it wise to provide especially for the better protection, guidance and control of this class.

BENEFITS OF EXAMINATIONS BY EXPERTS.

To those familiar with banking, the advantages are apparent that must arise from having experts examine the books for the purpose of determining:

First, If the cash tallies with the ledger accounts;

Second, If the stock certificates issued agree with the stock ledger; also if all certificates surrendered are properly canceled and filed for future reference;

Third, If depositors' accounts agree with the ledger accounts, and if the customers' books are frequently and regularly written up and vouchers returned, with request that customers shall verify the same and promptly report if any errors are found;

Fourth, If certificate accounts, either time or demand, correspond with the respective accounts on the books; also if they are regularly compared and corrected; further, if endorsements are made on certificates, or whether canceled and new ones issued for balance when partial payments are made;

Fifth, If the several accounts with the New York, Chicago and other foreign bank correspondents are reconciled; and if the work is promptly done on receipt of statement of foreign bank;

Sixth, If the re-discounts and other liabilities against the bank are properly shown;

Seventh, If the account of real estate loans and the notes and mortgages agree; also, if all partial payments and the interest paid are properly endorsed and dated; and also the same as regards commercial loans; also, whether the paper is genuine and frequently inquired into as to the responsibility of the makers; or if the loans are made by the bank upon its own stock;

Eighth, If the money is kept on hand or in reserve banks, or is loaned out according to law;

Ninth, If dividends are being paid from profits actually received, or partially from uncollected interest;

Tenth, If losses and long-past-due papers are promptly charged off the books at stated intervals;

Eleventh, If accrued and unpaid interest is carried as an asset;

Twelfth, If a portion of the net profits are set aside each half year for a surplus fund;

Thirteenth, If an improper amount is loaned to officers and directors; or to individuals, firms or corporations in excess of the amount limited by law;

Fourteenth, If checks are certified when there are no funds with which to pay them, or if liberal over-drafts are permitted;

Fifteenth, If the standing of borrowers and the value of investments and securities are frequently scanned;

Sixteenth, If the amount carried as real estate, banking house or furniture and fixtures are inventoried from time to time to ascertain if the real value is the same as the cash value carried on the books;

Seventeenth, If the collection department, which is often so varied and difficult that losses and irregularities may creep into it, is being guarded with the necessary care;

Eighteenth, If the records of the meetings for preliminary organization have been full and complete, so as to show that the law has been complied with, and that these minutes and those of subsequent meetings have been and are properly attested by the signature of the president or vice president, and the cashier or treasurer;

The above, and many other items which the examination of banks will show as needing attention, suggest some of the difficulties of the work being intelligently or fairly done by the average directors, whose time is usually fully occupied by their own private business; and on the other hand emphasize the importance of an expert examiner, not only for the benefit and safety of the depositors and customers, but for the stock-holders, who are liable to lose their stock and as much more. This is still more important to directors, who have the liabilities as above, and the additional moral responsibility of caring for the funds entrusted to their keeping—a trust to which their own personal business often prevents them from giving the needed time and attention; besides, as above stated, the complexity of the business is such that without special training directors would find the task a difficult one.

The importance attached, by experienced bank men, to the value of examinations is well attested in such cities as Detroit, where, as a rule, the banks have two examinations each year by the Government examiner, and frequent examinations by their directors who become more or less expert. Many large banks require examinations before dividends are declared, to see that the bank is in good condition, that losses are charged off or fully provided for before dividends are paid. Further, experienced and intelligent officers will not assume positions in banks until after a careful and thorough examination. The same precautions by parties wishing to buy stock would, in many cases, save loss by finding that depreciated and unsalable real estate, forfeited shares of the bank's stock, and past due and unpaid interest are carried as assets giving the stock a fictitious value.

MERITORIOUS FEATURES OF THE BILL.

The relations which banks hold to the prosperity and development of a State or country are so intimate and vital that it is of the greatest importance that the system should be safe, efficient and permanent. In the New England States, New York and some others, we find laws which have surrounded their banks with restrictions, supervision, and safeguards that have carried them through many years of alternate depressions and prosperity, and show merits that challenge our attention and urge us to their adoption. These are, in brief:

- First*, Capital— paid in full and kept unimpaired;
- Second*, Money loaned on convertible securities by commercial banks;
- Third*, Limit of loans to persons, companies or corporations;
- Fourth*, Prohibiting the loaning of money by any bank on its own shares;
- Fifth*, Limiting rate to legal interest;
- Sixth*, Definite and ample reserve to insure prompt payments of depositors;
- Seventh*, No preference in insolvency;
- Eighth*, Stockholder's liability;
- Ninth*, Accumulating surplus;
- Tenth*, Forbidding dividends except from actual profits;
- Eleventh*, Restricting dealings in real estate;

Twelfth, Compelling full statements under oath of resources and liabilities on any past day, called for by the Commissioner several times each year, and the publication thereof in the place where the bank is located, that its depositors and customers may know something of its condition;

Thirteenth, Subjecting banks to personal inspection by experts, who examine the accounts, securities and other assets; inquire into all liabilities; investigate methods of business, thereby detecting and restraining irregularities; give publicity to the ownership of shares, thus helping to determine the individual liability of shareholders and facilitating local taxation;

Fourteenth, Providing severe penalties for violations of the law, and making it the duty of the Commissioner to see to their enforcement, which tend to insure prompt observance of rules and laws.

Prof. David Swing, in one of his recent sermons, took for his theme "The Poor People of Chicago." He elaborated the idea that the savings banks are as potent as the pulpit in working out a solution of the social problems of the day, and strengthened his arguments by use of data showing the accumulated savings of the working classes in certain sections of the country, pointing out how the ratio of misery decreased as the savings increased. In New Hampshire, with only half the population of Chicago, there was more money in the savings banks than in all Illinois. This evidenced the fact that not a small part of the existing poverty came from the lack of reliable savings institutions and the economical habit.

Although the wages are higher in Chicago and the employers more generous than elsewhere, it was true that the latter were lacking in the wisdom to found institutions where the working classes could keep their wages from melting away like the snow before the warm sun of early spring. Savings banks could do as much as sermons if they were only of the kind in which the wage-worker could place confidence. Of the thousand millions now in savings banks in this country, Illinois had but a small sum of the total amount, and Chicago was hardly mentioned as possessing a share of this good. The saloon held the pocketbook of the laborer and left him each day without a penny for himself, his wife or children. The moment the laborer began to save money, that moment he began to mend his ways. The habits of industry and economy were a part of the means of grace, and when the laboring man began to abandon his old habits and commenced putting his money in the savings bank, that moment he experienced the grace of God.

To find the places where a better division of property could be had, the anarchist always traveled to where the people had no property to divide, and in order to carry out this idea they had to pass by Philadelphia and Boston. There were thousands in Chicago who had no hold on the city, state or world, and for that reason they found the doctrines of anarchism congenial as the anarchists themselves found a congenial atmosphere in which to inculcate their doctrines. The building associations were doing much good for the higher-salaried young men, but they did meet the wants of the class who must have some place to deposit their daily earnings. A family once a little bit ahead of poverty, hope springs up, a sense of degradation is lost, and it goes on to prosperity and happiness.

The Chicago Tribune, commenting on the savings bank law recently passed in that State, says the bill was introduced in 1881, and has been before each session since, and that its success was due to the fact that "A growing interest in favor of the measure among bankers and business men throughout the State, backed by the public press, has developed a strong feeling in the great clubs, such as the Union League, Iroquois, Citizens' Association and Commercial that the time has come when this State should have a thoroughly tried and practical savings system for the wage classes. This desire has been intensified in view of the communistic troubles of the last year or two, and the feeling that this measure will do much to countermine the evil by enabling those who have a little to keep it secure, and to gradually add to their store under a thoroughly devised and well tried system that has been in successful operation in this country and Europe for nearly a hundred years."

In line with the foregoing, your committee quote the following from the excellent little work by Hon. T. H. Hinchman, of Detroit, entitled, "Banks and Banking in Michigan." He said, "Too much cannot be written or said concerning the benefits conferred by banks that safely keep and pay on demand, the savings of widows, orphans, minors, artisans, clerks, servants and laborers. Such savings are a health-giving source of satisfaction and contentment that strengthens family ties, and which often results in providing permanent homes. They aid in preserving order, in insuring peaceful prevention of, or protection against domestic violence and agrarian excesses; and also promote an interest in governmental affairs, and an increase in real estate values.

"A disaster to a savings bank causes more disturbance and misery than the failure of many commercial banks. It would therefore seem to be imperative that the law should be carefully guarded by requirements calculated to render this class of depositors secure. The State authorities should be required to pass upon all those seeking to organize savings banks before authorizing a commencement of business, that no improper persons, or persons without ample capital and reliable character, should be permitted to engage in this description of banking."

The banking law of Illinois, above referred to, emphasizes the pertinence of the latter part of the quotation from Mr. Hinchman, by requiring that the trustees shall be "responsible as to character, financial ability and general fitness for the discharge of the duties appertaining to the trust;" also "that said trustees are in the aggregate the owners of at least one hundred thousand dollars' worth of real estate, in fee simple and unincumbered, situated in the county where such society is to be established, and that the title to such real estate has not been acquired for the purpose of making this application."

The savings of the poor cannot be guarded too zealously against injudicious speculation and unsafe investments. It is prudential to have safety and availability, rather than increased rates of interest in savings investments, and anything of a speculative nature should not be permitted at all. The failure of one bank is direct injury to others in disturbing usual business relations with their customers; and is a direct injury as to its effects upon the people, who lose confidence, become indifferent to savings, and encourage the feeling that they may as well live up their earnings as they go as to save them only to have them lost by some careless savings bank.

To this class of people, whose time is occupied in daily toil—giving them little opportunity to know what is going on in the commercial world, or how business is managed—the State owes an imperative duty to see that their little savings are surrounded by all the safeguards which experience or observation dictates. The manner in which the money is to be invested should be clearly defined, and the examiner see to it that the law is faithfully carried out by all bank officers.

Your committee appreciate the fact that no system of supervision can be so perfect as to insure absolute safety, but statistics show that in States having supervision, the losses to the people have been proportionately less while the banks have increased. The advantage of supervision and frequent examinations, is well illustrated in the receipts and disbursements of the United States for the last twenty-five years, in the collections from customs, post-offices, sale of public lands, and all other sources, and the payments to the war, navy, pension, Indian, and many other departments of the government. The loss on collections has been reduced from $2.03 on each $1,000 in 1861, to .006 in 1883, and on disbursements from 76 cents in 1861 to one and eight-tenths mills in 1883. This result has been attained largely through the frequent visits and examinations by experts, who are liable to visit the post-office or custom house at any moment, and without warning; while in the disbursements it is done largely by the careful inspection of pay-rolls and their comparison with the proper vouchers.

Directors, even by the most rigid scrutiny, may not be able to ferret out all the intricacies of book-keeping or bank management, may not be able to verify or correct the many accounts, or reconcile the differences between banks; but they can know something of the value of the investments and securities the bank is taking or dealing in, and as to the responsibility of its borrowers, their personal attention to business or whether they leave their business to others; also the general success of the business of those who deal with the bank. They can fairly judge whether the officers and other employés are engaged in outside business—of a speculative character or otherwise—and if so, if the business is owned or owed for; what company they keep, what their general habits, if they are living within their incomes, and if the bank is receiving their first and principal attention.

REPORTS.

As to the quarterly reports required by our present law, they are conceded to be of very little value. This is well stated by Henry M. Knox, of Minnesota, in commenting on a similar system in that state. He says: "I would respectfully submit that quarterly reports are almost wholly without value, in that being rendered at a fixed date, they may be prepared for in advance, and in that they may fail, even if the law is fully complied with, to give any satisfactory knowledge of the condition of the bank. In the form here legalized a bank may struggle on the verge of insolvency for months, and neither public or official attention be called to the fact by the report."

The reports required by the proposed law are to be called for by the Commissioner for any past day by him selected, and to be sworn to by president, vice-president, cashier or treasurer, and be forwarded to that office, accompanied by such proof of publication in the vicinity of the place of business of the bank as the Commissioner shall require; not less than four such reports to be called for each year. By this method any one of the business days is likely to be called for, hence the transactions and balances of any day during the whole year are likely to be made public, and if properly detailed should indicate the direction in which the services of the Commissioner are needed; or he may call for special reports from any particular bank, if in his judgment the same are necessary to more fully inform him of the condition thereof.

In addition to the reports required above, each bank is to report to the Commissioner, within ten days after the declaring of any dividend, the amount of the dividend, the amount carried to the surplus fund, and the amount of net earnings in excess thereof, each report to be sworn to by one of the executive officers of the bank.

Such portions of the above reports as the law specifies, are to be reported by the Commissioner to the State Treasurer, to be by him embodied in his annual report.

MORE PUBLICITY, MORE SAFETY.

Your committee has discussed the matter of supervision and reports at some length, as they are the most radical changes from the present law; besides the committee deems them of great importance. We are also aware that there is some prejudice against examinations, a few going so far as to claim that they are liable to interfere with and injure business. In the light of past experience it seems to your committee that there is nothing in the objection except its absurdity. Publicity is not only, as a well-known adage says, "The best cure of public evils," but the best purifier of private morals. The occasional examinations and the frequent publication of sworn statements would tend to restrain bank officials from falling into loose and careless business methods, which frequently lead to crime.

We think it is generally conceded that in those States having thorough and careful supervision, the banking business has expanded most, and the public are best protected. It is noticeable, as a rule, that in those States having bank departments, with examinations and frequent reports, the State banks lead, while in those having no such department the National banks have the preference of the people.

The States of New York and Massachusetts, which have had bank supervision in use longer than any others, and have brought it up to the highest standard of perfection, hold nearly $700,000,000 of deposits, or more than two-thirds of the savings deposits of all the States and territories in the United States.

The New England States and New York, by their wise banking systems, have not only ample capital to build up and carry on this immense manufacturing and other enterprises, but are the chief money lenders to many other States. In New England the workingmen and women not only have furnished and are furnishing the bone and sinew to do the work, but by their little savings, aggregated in the reservoirs of savings banks, supply the capital which has erected the buildings and furnished the means with which to purchase the raw material, pay the help and float the manufactured articles out on the markets. In these States nearly one-half the population, including men, women and children, have deposits in savings banks, and an average of about $340 to each depositor. The same ratio in Michigan, to a similar class, would give us in round numbers $300,000,000. An addition of any considerable portion of this amount would greatly assist in the development of the vast and varied natural resources of our State. What Michigan most needs is ready money, and that which is saved and owned at home is the most desirable to aid in its growth and prosperity.

SHOULD BECOME A LAW.

Many changes from the old law have been found necessary in the preparation of this bill, growing out of the more modern methods of doing business, and for the more explicit, systematic and prudent conduct of a business in which, to a greater or less extent, every community and every class of people are deeply interested, and whose interests should be protected by the strongest and best possible laws. Many features of the present banking law have been retained in the bill, only six sections of the law being in terms repealed. The importance of an early revision of the law is made all the more apparent in view of the fact that the end of the National banks is near—most of their charters in this State expiring within the next few years; and as there is little inducement to reorganize under the National banking law, all, or nearly all, will probably reorganize as State banks. Section 17 of the bill is intended to facilitate such reorganization of national banks into State banks.

Your committee has given much time and thought to the consideration of the bill, the members of the House committee on private corporations having sat with us on several occasions and aided in perfecting it; while many of the ablest and best informed men on the subject in the State who are interested in banks to be affected by the bill, have furnished valuable suggestions and much necessary data. Legislation touching the savings banks of our State should be especially well and carefully considered. They are identified more or less closely with the moral and material interests of the State, and every measure calculated to foster, aid and protect them should receive thoughtful attention and cordial support from the law-making power, and we feel confident that when the members of the two Houses have sufficiently considered the advantages to be gained by such a law, the bill will be promptly passed by the Legislature and as promptly adopted by the voters of Michigan in 1888, and that too by a large majority.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

On motion of Mr. Stark,

The remonstrance was ordered spread at length upon the journal.

The following is the remonstrance:

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 23, 1887.

Hon. G. P. Stark, State Senator, Lansing Mich.,

DEAR SIR:—We learn that a bill is pending before the Legislature of this State, of which you are an honorable member, introduced by one Mr. Rogers of Barry Co., entitled "An act to regulate freight charges on Michigan railroads," which we understand embodies among other features the pernicious and senseless, long and short haul clause of the Inter-state commerce law.

We firmly believe that such a law would be very detrimental to the lumber interests as well as the general interests of the State, as it must of necessity localize and restrict the territory natural to the trade in general, and we write you and request that you do everything in your power to defeat the passage of any such bill, believing that it would be for our general interest to have the same defeated.

Very respectfully yours,

OSTERHOUT & FOX LUMBER CO.,
OSTERHOUT & HUGHART LUMBER CO.
PERKINS ROLLER MILL CO.,
PUTNAM & BARNHART LUMBER CO.,
THE BARNHART LUMBER CO.,
ANTI CALCIMINE CO.,

Referred to the committee on railroads.

No. 725. By Mr. Holbrook: Remonstrance of Geo. S. Culver, C. A. Bacon, L. B. Huntington and 17 other business men of Laingsburg, against the enactment of any law taxing druggists for the sale of liquors when sold for medicinal or mechanical purposes.

Referred to the committee on liquor traffic.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Senate met and was called to order by the President pro tem.

Roll called: quorum present.

By unanimous consent,

The President pro tem. announced the following:

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, }
Lansing, May 24, 1887. }

To the Senate:

Permit me to respectfully direct the attention of your honorable body to House bill No. 445 (file No. 356), being a bill "to provide additional fire protection at the Michigan Soldiers' Home, at Grand Rapids, and to make appropriation therefor."

The board of control of the Soldiers' Home, in presenting their estimates for expenses and improvements, included therein an item of $18,000 for building and furnishing a hospital. The same, in the wisdom of the Legislature was struck out, and which action I desire to commend as, in my opinion, wise.

It is, however, a fact that a large percentage of the old veterans on reaching the Home require hospital treatment and accommodations, and for which provision should be made at the earliest possible day.

The following communication is herewith submitted:

MICHIGAN SOLDIERS' HOME, }
Grand Rapids, Mich., May 20, 1887. }

At a meeting of the board of managers of the Michigan Soldiers' Home, held May 20, 1887, the following was offered by Gen. R. A. Alger, manager, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Governor be respectfully requested to ask the Legislature to appropriate three thousand dollars for fitting up hospital rooms in the fourth story of the Home.

Official.

JAMES W. LONG, Adjutant.

Official copy respectfully forwarded to Gov. Luce.

(Signed)

B. R. PIERCE, Commandant.

The rooms referred to, in the fourth story of the Home, are entirely suitable for hospital purposes and are now unfinished and unused. It is believed they can be fitted up for $2,500 and be made to serve the end sought. This will, however, require another expenditure for power to run the elevator, and which will cost, as carefully estimated, not less than $3,000. This would also afford the protection against fire, of which the Home is now destitute. These items I most earnestly recommend, both in the interest of humanity and economy.

There is also a floating debt of the home amounting to $7,800, for which no provision has been made by appropriation and which is commended to the consideration of your honorable body.

In the bill recently passed, and which has become a law, making appropriation for expenses and improvements at the soldiers' home, the same was made up of a large number of items, which will occasion great annoyance in their use and in making up accounts.

It is therefore respectfully recommended that you incorporate in the above bill a provision classifying the appropriation aforesaid under two heads, viz: For current expenses and for permanent improvements.

Very respectfully,

C. G. LUCE, Governor.

On motion of Mr. Hubbell,

The message was referred to the committee on appropriations and finance.

On motion of Mr. Sharp,

The petition was ordered spread at length upon the Journal and referred to the committee on the judiciary.

The following is the petition:

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan:

The undersigned citizens of the county of Jackson, believing that taxation and representation should go together, that rights and burdens should always correspond with each other, and as we know taxation without representation was the ground of complaint with our fathers, it being claimed that it was tyrannical and oppressive, on it was based the war of the revolution, it was the pretext of a seven years' bloody conflict with the mother country, and caused our separation from it. The same cause for rebellion exists to-day. For more than a century the nation has attempted to stand upon the same injustice which inaugurated the war of 1776. Therefore we most respectfully petition your honorable bodies to grant to female tax-payers the same right of suffrage granted by the statutes and laws of Michigan to males.

By the committee on cities and villages:

The committee on cities and villages, to whom was referred House bill No. 652, entitled

A bill to amend sections 23, 24, 28, 47, 57, 87, 92, 96, 99 and 101 of act No. 219 of the session laws of 1873, entitled "An act to incorporate the city of Ionia," approved March 21, 1873, and all acts and parts of acts amendatory of said sections, and to add thereto five new sections to stand as sections 108, 109, 110, 111 and 112,

Respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration, and have directed me to report the same back to the Senate, without amendment, and recommend that the bill do pass, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

No. 782. Mr. W. I. Babcock presented the following memorial, which was ordered spread at length on the journal:

OFFICE OF THE STATE ECLECTIC
MEDICAL AND SURGICAL SOCIETY OF MICHIGAN, }
Dowagiac, May 23, 1887.

To the Honorable the Senate of Michigan:

This society, at its annual meeting held at the city of Jackson on the 18th and 19th of the present month, adopted by unanimous vote the following resolutions presented by its legislative committee:

WHEREAS, There is before the Legislature of the State of Michigan a bill to regulate the practice of medicine (Senate bill, file No. 253) that, on its face, bears evidence of unfairness in its special features, inasmuch as it recommends an examining board to be composed of eleven members, seven of whom shall be, presumably, appointed from the old school, or so-styled regulars, and two each from the homeopathic and eclectic schools. It also provides that the members from the latter two schools shall examine only in materia medica and the practice of medicine. Therefore be it

Resolved, That to this society this seems to represent clearly that the real intention of the bill under consideration is to give the whole matter virtually into the hands of the so-called regular school of medicine, as they would have a clear majority over all. Even if they should not do so, they would have the power, as the bill now stands, to exclude any applicant they might see fit, though passed upon favorably by the other members of the board, who only would examine in the two subjects heretofore mentioned. As a society we protest against this exclusiveness, smacking as it does of selfishness, ostracism and partiality by our old school brethren, and while we do not especially object to a bill, fair in its provisions and aiming to elevate medical training, we cannot but enter a protest against anything looking like class legislation or that may favor one school to the exclusion of another. We believe, however, that no bill creating a medical board of censors is just now called for, or if so, that a plain law compelling all persons desiring to practice medicine in Michigan to unite with some of the medical societies whose censors shall examine them respectively and, if qualified, admit them, if not, reject them, would be preferable. This, it seems to us, would meet all requirements, as the three schools of medicine in Michigan have each well ordered State medical societies.

Resolved, That our society be authorized to furnish each House of the State Legislature and the Governor of Michigan copies of these resolutions.

Respectfully submitted,

H. S. McMASTER, Secretary.

Referred to the committee on public health.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

No. 783. Mr. Seymour presented the following memorial which was ordered spread at length upon the Journal.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan, in legislature assembled:

Your petitioner, the Chicago Lumber Company of Manistique, Mich., a corporation existing under the laws of this State, respectfully shows:

1. That your petitioner and its grantors have been operating saw-mills by the use of water power, at and near the mouth of the Manistique river, in Schoolcraft county, since on or about the year 1850. During all of which time the saw-dust made in such mills has been allowed to fall into the river.

2. That in 1876 your petitioner erected a saw mill at a cost of $50,000; in 1880 another mill, costing $45,000; and in 1884 still another mill costing $65,000, all within a short distance of each other, near the mouth of said river. Said mills are connected with each other and with the yards where the lumber made is piled, by tramways, aggregating seven miles in length.

3. That all of said mills are so built that it is impossible, without remodeling them to prevent the saw dust from falling into the river, for the following reasons: All the sawing is done with upright gang saws. The saw gates are connected directly, by a pittman with a crank which works at the end of a horizontal shaft, on which are waterwheels, and which is wholly under water. The saw dust, when it leaves the saws, follows the pittman down into the water.

There is no chance to get under the pittman because the lower end of it is in the water. Nor can the saw dust be conveyed around in any way, as the mill is built, as the floor of the mill is not high enough above the level of the water to permit conveyors to be put in and worked.

In order to prevent the saw dust from falling into the river, it would be necessary to rebuild the mill in such a way that the working floor could be raised about five feet; and also to raise the seven miles of elevated tramway to conform to the change in the elevation of the mills.

4. Your petitioners estimate that the cost of making the changes in their mills and tramways, required to take care of the saw dust made in such mills, so that the same should not fall into the river would be from $30,000 to $50,000. That it would take about one year to make such changes, during all of which time the mills would of necessity be idle. That your petitioner employs in such mills and in the other branches of its business connected therewith, seven hundred men, all of whom would be thrown out of employment, if such mills were to be shut down.

6. That there is now pending before the Legislature a bill known as House file No. 82, which if it becomes a law, will make it a misdemeanor punishable by fine and imprisonment for your petitioner to operate such mills, or either of them. And which will, therefore, amount to a confiscation, if not of the mills themselves, at least of the cost of making the changes required, to make your petitioner to conform to the law—estimated as above at from $30,000 to $50,000. And will also throw a prosperous community of industrious people out of employment, and entail untold hardship and distress.

7. That the proposed bill is in the supposed interest of the fisheries, but your petitioner unhesitatingly declares that some of the best fishing grounds on the great lakes are near to Manistique, and that no injury to such fishing has ever been apparent.

8. That since your petitioners began operations at Manistique it has at its own cost and expense dredged out the river and removed the sand bars from the mouth of the harbor, so that, whereas naturally there was only four feet of water, and none but the smallest boats could enter, now there is an average of sixteen feet of water, and the largest steamers on the lakes enter and depart from their wharves.

9. Your petitioner therefore prays that the said bill so far as it prevents the operating of saw mills already erected, by water power, may not pass. And your petitioners will ever pray, etc.

In witness whereof your petitioner has caused these presents to be executed under its seal, and subscribed by its secretary the 9th day of March, 1887.

J. D. MERSEREAU, Secretary.

Referred to the committee on fisheries.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF DETROIT, }
Detroit, May 26, 1887. }

At a regular meeting of the board of education held in the board room, high school building, this evening, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

By Inspector Gartner:

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives has passed a bill providing for free text books in our schools, and

WHEREAS, All books needed by children who could not, and whose parents were not able to purchase books, have been provided with books by the board, and

WHEREAS, All books so furnished to poor children are not now marked or designated in any manner as having been furnished and provided by the board; it is therefore

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this board that such a bill is not required by the best interests of education in this city, and should not become a law; and further

Resolved, That inasmuch as public opinion seems to be overwhelmingly opposed to such a measure, its passage in the face of such opinion is an unnecessary interference with local interests, which can in this case at least be best subserved by such action as local authorities may deem best; and further

Resolved, That the secretary transmit a copy of these resolutions to the Senators from this city, and to the chairman of the Senate committee on education.

Adopted unanimously.

HENRY A. HARMAN, President.

JOHN R. KING, Secretary.

Referred to the committee on education and public schools,

No. 791. Mr. Crosby presented the following which was ordered spread at length upon the journal:

To the Hon. the Legislature of Michigan:

The undersigned hereby respectfully protest against the passage of bill No. 334, entitled "A bill to amend an act entitled an act relative to free schools in the city of Detroit," approved February 24th, 1869, and all acts amendatory thereto, by adding a section thereto to stand as section 24, for the following reasons:

1. In effect it will destroy competition among the houses publishing school books;

2. It will add an immense amount to the school tax, and thus interfere with appropriations for increase in school accommodations, and thus hazard such needed increase;

3. It will destroy competition among dealers in school books;
4. There is no need therefor, as poor children who cannot afford to purchase books, have the same now supplied to them;
5. Where it has been adopted it has not proved a success;
6. Where children have all books supplied to them they are not apt to take proper care of them, and such carelessness is in effect an additional burden of taxation;
7. There is no uniformity in the wear and tear of books, and children could not long be supplied with books in like condition;
8. It would complicate the machinery of conducting the schools, and the amounts required in large cities would place in the hands of the school boards the letting of contracts involving large sums of money, and which has not and should not be exercised, as it would not only lay borrdrs open to charges of corruption, but would also lead often to the selection of not the best books;
9. There is no popular demand for it.

Very respectfully,

Elliott F. Slocum,	H. P. Baldwin,
C. M. Dartor,	Ellwood T. Hance,

The President pro tem. also announced the following:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Lansing, June 2, 1887. }

To the Honorable Senate:

Permit me most respectfully to direct the attention of your honorable body to Senate bill number 36, file number 140, being a bill making an appropriation for the use and maintenance of the University of Michigan, and now before me for consideration.

The policy heretofore maintained has been to admit to our State educational institutions, students from other States and countries, and which policy, under certain restrictions, I deem to be wise.

The practice, however, of opening the doors of those institutions to students from outside our borders, at but a slightly increased tuition, over resident students, but at an actual cost to the State largely in excess of what is paid by them, is open to some question.

I also have before me at this time for consideration a bill making appropriation for the support of the State agricultural college, and in which I find the following provision, namely: "Provided, That it shall be the duty of the State board of agriculture to fix such tuition fee for non-resident students as shall in its judgment compensate for the extra expense for accommodating such students."

At the latter institution I find the appropriation to be as passed by your honorable bodies, $65,205, being about $6,000 in excess of the appropriation two years ago, this sum being for a period of two years.

I also find in comparing the general and special appropriations for the university, met by direct tax for the last three biennial periods to be as follows:

1883-4.	One-twentieth mill tax	$81,000 00
	Homeopathic College	12,000 00
	Legislative appropriation	62,900 00
	Total	$155,900 00
1885-6.	One-twentieth mill tax	$81,000 00
	Homeopathic College	12,000 00
	Legislative appropriation	107,500 00
	Total	$200,500 00
1887-8.	One-twentieth mill tax	$94 545 00
	Homeopathic College	12,000 00
	Legislative appropriation	192,565 94
	Total	$299,110 94

To each of the above totals should be added about $60,000, being the interest fund biennially upon university lands.

The last catalogue of the university for the years 1886-7, shows of the total enrollment of students, 1572, that 791 are from Michigan, and 781 from foreign States and countries.

The tuition per year for Michigan students being from $20 to $25, and for foreign students from $30 to $35 in addition to matriculation and diploma fees, the total fees received during the last two years, approximating: Michigan students $52,000, and from foreign students $78,000. It will thus be seen that the people of Michigan, with their 791 students in the university, are required to pay for the years 1887-8,

Total above found.....	$299,110 94
University land tax.....	60,000 00
Michigan students, fees.....	52,000 00
Total	$411,110 94

While 781 foreign students are reaping the same benefits and equal advantages for but $78,000.

Were this in the line of other great educational institutions of the eastern States with which our university vies, the discrepancy might not be so apparent. But on the contrary we find Amherst college charging a tuition of $110 per year; Yale, 140; Harvard, $150, etc.

I fully endorse the policy of charging our own students but a moderate tuition, but believe that it is not sound or wise policy to extend such privileges to students of other states and countries, at the expense of Michigan tax-payers, and with returns in students' fees so far below those charged by other first-class colleges.

Again, it seems quite unfair to require that tuition of non-resident students at one of our state educational institutions should be regulated by the additional expense they will cause, and not to require the same of another. If the provision be a wise one at the Agricultural College, as it is claimed to be, I cannot see why the same provision would not be equally wise at the university and State normal school. If this were done, as I trust it will be, then the appropriation could be materially lessened without in any manner crippling the University, and which should not be done.

In the message which I had the honor to present to the Legislature when it assembled I said, "We cannot afford to impair or cripple the usefulness of any of our State institutions. The educational, charitable and penal must be provided for, but the most scrutinizing care should be exercised in making appropriations." To this proposition I still adhere, though sharing in the pride which we have a right to feel in the high distinction our university has attained.

In the same message, I had the honor to call your attention also to the appropriations asked for buildings in which to establish new specialties and branches at the university, and asked your earnest attention to the same, for reasons therein briefly given, and which consideration I have no reason to doubt has been given. And yet, I am of the opinion that the item of $75,000 for new buildings and the equipment thereof could be greatly reduced and the university still maintain its high degree of efficiency.

It is therefore in consideration of these and other reasons that I most respectfully, though reluctantly, ask your honorable bodies to recall the above bill that you may consider the advisability of making the changes therein, above suggested, in such manner as in your wisdom may seem proper.

Respectfully,

C. G. LUCE, Governor.

On motion of Mr. Sharp

The message was referred to the committee on university.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

No. 806. The following memorial was received by mail and ordered spread at length upon the journal.

GRAND RAPIDS, June 2, 1887.

To the Honorable the Senate of Michigan :

At a meeting of physio-medical physicians and surgeons, held at Grand Rapids, Michigan, June 1 and 2, the following resolutions were adopted :

WHEREAS, There is before the Legislature of the State of Michigan a bill to provide for the registration of physicians and surgeons, and to protect the people of the State of Michigan from empiricism and quackery (Senate bill, file No. 253), which is especially unfair to the physio-medical school of medicine, inasmuch as it makes, at least, some provision or recognition of all other schools, as the allopathic or regular, homeopathic and eclectic schools of medicine, providing each of the above named with some members of the examining board, except the physio-medical, which is totally ignored in the bill; and inasmuch as the bill has the avowed object "of protecting the people" of the State against medical dangers, by forbidding under penalty of law, to prescribe medicine for the sick, except a medical board of allopathic, homeopathic and eclectic examiners are willing to allow our physio-medical practitioners; and

WHEREAS, All those "who profess to cure all diseases without the use of medicines," (see sec. 14), are excluded from the said penalties, it shows that the danger from which the people of this State need protection lies in the drug medication as known and practiced by the three schools of medicine named in the bill, and that there is the required safety outside of the medical profession. This drug danger for which the bill provides protection must be in dangerous or poisonous drugs. If it was a bill for the better education of those who assume the responsibility of a physician, it should also include those who use no drugs for they are often equally ignorant with others who use drugs; and

WHEREAS, The physio-medical school of practice professes to use, for the purpose of curing only sanative agents, excluding as worthless and injurious all poisons that tend to make well people sick and often cause death; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the physio-medical physicians and surgeons of Michigan, who have their State medical association in this State and well regulated colleges in other States, where the requirement of graduation is even higher than that named in the bill (see sec. 8), pray our legislators to be equally represented on the board of examiners with any other school of medicine, or be excluded from the penalties of the bill, with other so-called harmless factions, as provided in section 13.

Resolved, That whereas, the physio-medical physicians and their friends have been unjustly taxed for the support of the medical departments of other schools maintained at public expense by our State, we pray not to have this additional unjust measure passed against a medical reform so much needed in our day to protect the people of the State of Michigan against the use of dangerous drugs.

Resolved. That copies of these resolutions be sent to the Governor and both houses of the State Legislature.

Respectfully submitted,

A. NYLAND, Secretary.

And to inform the Senate that the House has amended the same so as to read as follows:

A bill to provide for the correction of frauds and mistakes in the canvass and returns made by inspectors of elections.

SECTION 1. The People of the State of Michigan enact, That any candidate voted for at any election, conceiving himself aggrieved on account of any fraud or mistake in the canvass of the votes by the inspectors of election, or in the returns made, may, on or before the close of the last day upon which the board of city canvassers meet, if a city or ward office, or district board, or the board of county canvassers meet, in all other cases, present to and file with the clerk of such board, a written petition, which shall be sworn to, setting forth, as near as may be, the errors, mistakes or frauds complained of, and the township, ward or district in which they occur, and asking for a correction thereof. He shall at the same time deposit with the clerk of said board the sum of ten dollars for each and every township, ward or district referred to in his petition: Provided, That no candidate shall be required to deposit more than one hundred dollars, which sum shall be paid, in case such petitioner does not establish a fraud or mistake, as set forth in his petition, by the clerk of the board of city canvassers to the city treasurer for the use of the city, and by the clerk of the county or district board to the county treasurer, for the use of the county. Upon filing such petition, making such deposit and giving at least twelve hours' written notice thereof to the opposing candidate, by handing to such candidate a copy thereof, or if such candidate cannot be found, by leaving such copy at the last place of residence, it shall be the duty of such board of canvassers to proceed to make an investigation of the facts set forth in said petition. For such purpose the said board shall have power to cause the ballot boxes used in such election districts to be brought before them. The said board shall thereupon appoint a committee of their own number as follows: The said board shall designate a member who shall be the chairman of said committee, the candidate presenting such petition and the candidate opposed thereto shall each choose a member, and if such candidates or either of them decline to so choose a member, then the board shall designate, and the three thus chosen shall constitute a committee to investigate the errors, mistakes or frauds complained of. Said committee shall, in some public place, where such candidates and their counsel may be present if they so desire, without unnecessary delay proceed to open the ballot boxes from such districts, townships or wards, and to make a re-count thereof as to such candidates, and make correct and full returns in writing under their hands to said board, showing the whole number of votes given, the names of the candidates, and the number of votes given to each, written out in words and figures as upon the ballots. Said committee, upon making such re-count, shall at once return the ballots to their respective boxes, carefully fasten and seal the same and deliver them to the officer having the care and custody thereof. Said board of canvassers, upon receiving the report of such committee, shall accept the same as correct, anything in the previous returns from such township, ward or district to the contrary notwithstanding. Any candidate not receiving a certificate of election, may, for errors apparent upon the face of the returns, have the same examined and corrected upon certiorari to the circuit court of the county, according to the rules and practice applicable to such writs. In all cases where, by reason of such re-count, the petitioner succeeds in establishing a fraud or mistake, as set forth in his petition, receives a certificate of election, the money deposited by him shall be refunded. For fraudulent or illegal voting, or tampering with the ballot boxes before a re-count by the board of canvassers, the remedy by quo warranto shall remain in full force, together with any other remedies now existing.

JOHN RAIRDEN, Acting Chairman.

Report accepted.

By the committee on university:

The committee on university to whom was referred:

His excellency's message of June 2d, relative to Senate bill 36 (file No. 140), making an appropriation for the use and maintenance of the university, would respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration and have been unable to ascertain any reason for recommending to your honorable body the recall of said bill:

To the needs of the university, the attention of your committee was early in this session directed by his excellency, Gov. Luce. In his annual message he spoke as follows:

THE UNIVERSITY.

I suppose that no citizen of the State is without pride in our widely celebrated university. The board of regents will present reports and memorials more in detail of its needs as the session progresses. The excellency of its courses of study attracts to it constantly increasing numbers, and by reason of this comes the increased demand for facilities to maintain its established high character.

The board of regents ask for seventy-five thousand dollars as a part of their needs for the erection and equipment of a building for a microscopical and historical laboratory, a physiological laboratory, and a laboratory for teaching physics, and natural philosophy.

Another purpose included in the said amount is the establishment of a hygienic laboratory. This last named object is a new feature recommended by the State board of health. While the board of regents do not urge this, they indicate a willingness to take charge of the same if established. The first departments above enumerated are those already existing, and appropriations are only asked for the purpose of more fully developing their usefulness and answering their growing demands. The last, however, calls for the establishment of a new branch, and requires due and careful consideration. And this, not alone because of present appropriations asked, but because of the after appropriations it may entail upon the State, and the kindred demands for other branches that may be clinging to it. Should this latter object be thought inadvisable at the present time, the appropriation above named could be correspondingly reduced without crippling the first-named objects.

II.

It will be seen that his excellency directed the attention of the Legislature specially to the request of the board of regents for an appropriation of $75,000 for the erection and equipment of a building for scientific laboratories and ask that it receive due and careful consideration. Your committee then interpreted that portion of his excellency's message herein quoted as favoring the appropriation asked, and they fail to find the least indication of his disapproval therein. They are unable to learn of any facts that then existed that does not now exist, for the appropriation recommended by his excellency and which has received your favorable action.

Your committee, as the representative of your honorable body, with the committee on University from the honorable House of Representatives, visited the University on the 8th of February last and remained there for two days conferring with the board of regents and faculty, and examined in detail the several items for which appropriations were asked. At this meeting, the two subjects to which his excellency directs your honorable body's attention, viz: The building for scientific laboratories and the question of additional fees for non-resident students, received your committee's very careful consideration and was the subject of discussion and investigation then and afterwards.

Your committee from their examination came to the conclusion that the erection of the building for scientific laboratories was much needed, and after a careful examination of the plans prepared and submitted they were unanimously of the opinion that while the amount asked for was large, yet it would be economy to build the entire building at one time instead of dividing the appropriation and building at different times.

The report of the joint committee showing the result of their investigation and containing their recommendation of appropriations for the university with the reasons therefor, was made March 14th, 1887, and will be found on pages 570, 571, 572 and 573 of the Senate journal.

Your committee when considering the question of tuition of non-resident students, found that sec. 8 of article 13 of the Constitution of the State of Michigan provided as follows:

"The board of regents shall have the general supervision of the University and the direction and control of all expenditures from the University interest fund."

Your committee also found that for 36 years and upwards there had been upon the statutes books of this State two sections bearing upon the subject, being sections 4916 and 4917 of Howell's annotated statutes, which read as follows:

"SEC. 4916. The fees of admission to the regular University course in the department of literature, science and the arts, shall not exceed ten dollars ; but such course or courses of instruction as may be arranged under the provisions of section nine of this act, shall be open without fee to citizens of this State."

"SEC. 4917. The University shall be open to all persons resident of this State without charge of tuition, under the regulations prescribed by the regents ; and to all other persons under such regulations and restrictions as the board may prescribe."

The constitution giving to the board of regents the general supervision of the university and the law declaring that it shall be open to all non-resident persons under such regulations and restrictions as the board may prescribe, your committee fail to see any reason for tacking on to an appropriation bill the proviso suggested by his excellency, such a proviso in the opinion of your committee would be in direct conflict not only with sec. 8 of article 13 of the constitution heretofore quoted, but also with sec. 20 of act 4 of the constitution which declares that "No law shall embrace more than one object, which shall be expressed in its title."

Independent of the constitution and the statutes, your committee would not deem it wise to require the regents to raise the fees of non-resident students. The board of regents are elected by the people, and have ever had within its number some of our most trusted, distinguished and far-sighted citizens. To them this subject can safely be left with the assurance that the true interests of the State and of the University will be jealously guarded. In considering that subject, the following considerations must be kept in mind:

First. The original and the only permanent endowment of the university is a gift of lands from the United States. These lands were sold by the State for about $530,000, the money was paid into the State treasury and the State holding it as a trust fund, pays the interest to the university. In the whole history and administration of the university, this gift by the nation has been deemed to justify and even to call for hospitable and generous treatment of students from our sister States in the enjoyment of the advantages offered by the university.

Second. It is instructive to consider the following tabular statement of the number of students and the fees from resident and non-resident students respectively in each department for the current year. This includes the matriculatation and the annual fees alone, but does not include the graduation and laboratory fees which would not alter the relative proportion of money received from the two classes;

STUDENTS' FEES, 1886-'87.

Departments.	Number of Michigan students.	Number of non-resident students.	Fees paid by Michigan students.	Fees paid by non-resident students.	Total number of students.	Total amount of fees.
Department of Literature, Science and the Arts.....	$416	277	$9,810	$11,230	693	$21,040
Department of Medicine and Surgery.....	147	174	4,225	8,155	321	12,380
Department of Law.....	108	230	3,180	11,500	338	14,680
School of Pharmacy.....	48	24	1,245	1,215	72	2,460
Homeopathic Medical College.....	32	30	930	1,480	62	2,410
College of Dental Surgery.....	45	46	1,285	1,400	91	2,685
Total.....	761	781	$20,655	$34,980	1,572	$55,635

It will be seen that the fees paid by the non-resident students amount to 175 per cent. of those paid by the residents. In the medical department they amount to nearly twice as much as those of the resident students, and in the law department to nearly four times as much. In fact the fees of non-resident students in the law department amount to enough to pay all the salaries in the law department, and $1,400 more. These students are therefore a source of clear profit to that department, if no fees were charged to Michigan students.

Third. We are informed that the regents, desirous of increasing the income of the University, have seriously considered whether they could not profitably increase the fees of non-resident students. In 1882, after a thorough discussion, the regents ventured to raise the annual fees for non-resident students in the literary department five dollars and in the professional schools ten dollars. The fees therefor then stood and now stand as follows:

MATRICULATION FEES.

Michigan students.....	$10 00
Non-residents.....	25 00

ANNUAL FEE, LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

Michigan students.....	$20 00
Non-residents.....	30 00

ANNUAL FEE, PROFESSIONAL DEPARTMENTS.

Michigan students.....	$25 00
Non-residents.....	35 00

The result was that the number of non-resident students rapidly declined. They numbered as follows:

In 1881-2 (old fees).....	846
In 1882-3 (increased fees).....	769
In 1883-4 (increased fees).....	707
In 1884-5 (increased fees).....	651

The old number has never been regained, it being this year 781, although the total attendance is larger than it was in 1881-2.

The fees from non-resident students in 1881-2 were $21,100 and in the increased rate in 1884-5 they were only $21,800. These facts indicate, we think, that pecuniarily there would be an actual loss if the fees were raised very much. At any rate it shows that the subject needs to be handled with care.

Fourth. Our inquiries lead us to believe that far less, than might at first thought be supposed, could be saved in expenses, even if the fees were so raised as to prevent all non-resident students from coming. In the professional schools where instruction is given mainly by lectures the additional expense incurred by the presence of non-resident students in addition to the Michigan students is little or nothing. It costs no more to secure lectures to 400 students than to 200, when, as is the case, the lecture rooms are already provided. In the literary department and in some of the laboratories, especially the chemical, there is additional expense, because additional instructors and assistants are needed when the number of students is increased. But even then the additional expense is far less than the receipts from the fees of non-resident students. If we should send away every non-resident student, we should still need professors in every department of instruction, unless indeed we are to change entirely the character of the institution which we believe no one desires to do. To teach the 416 Michigan students in the literary departments we should need the whole of the present teaching force with perhaps the exception of four or five instructors. In the chemical laboratory we might perhaps dispense with four assistants. The instructors receive $900 each and the chemical assistants from $100 to $250 each. The saving would then be as follows on what we believe to be a liberal estimate:

Five instructors, each.....	$900 00	$4,500 00
Four assistants, at say.....	$250 00	$1,000 00
Total.....		$5,500 00

The expense of heating and lighting the buildings would not be reduced. On the most extravagant allowance, we do not think the saving could be more than $8,000. Call it $10,000 and still the fact remains that the fees of the non-resident students exceed this sum by $25,980. In short, accepting the fact that we are to educate our Michigan students as well as we do now, the non-resident students are really a source of profit and not of expense.

Fifth. It must be remembered that many western institutions are charging smaller fees than our university does, and some of them of good standing furnish instruction gratuitously. The eastern colleges referred to in his excellency's message have scholarships and various other funds which furnish gratuitous education to needy students. The president of Harvard college publicly announces, in circulars and otherwise, that no deserving student need avoid coming to that college for want of funds, because they shall be furnished him.

Sixth. We are impressed with the conviction that the non-resident students are a great source of strength to the institution and a great benefit to the State. The very fact that we draw students from all parts of the union is a just title to fame. It awakens pride everywhere, and makes our Michigan students willing to remain in Michigan and get their education. The mingling of our sons and daughters at the University with students from other States is of itself a valuable part of their education. Then how many of our most useful and honored citizens are men who have been attracted to us by the University and then have settled among us?

Seventh. We should therefore regret to see any action taken which should deprive the University of its true natural character by preventing the resort to its halls of students from our sister States. Such action would seem to be a pecuniary damage to its treasury, and would certainly lower it from its present high position of which we and every citizen of Michigan are now so justly proud.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JNO. C. SHARP,
J. W. BABCOCK,
C. W. WISNER,
University Committee.

Report accepted and committee discharged.

On motion of Mr. Sharp,

The report was adopted.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The President announced the following:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Lansing, June 6, 1887. }

To the Senate:

In compliance with the provisions of the Constitution, which authorizes the Governor to communicate and recommend such measures to the Legislature as he shall deem expedient, I had the honor on the 2d inst., to communicate to both Houses some views entertained in relation to Senate bill No. 36, file No. 140, being a bill making an appropriation for the use and maintenance of the University of Michigan. There are many provisions of the bill which it would have afforded me pleasure to approve; yet, after a faithful consideration, others were found which seemed to me ought not to receive the Executive sanction, and the message was therefore sent with the sincere hope that the bill might be recalled, and such amendments made as would commend themselves to the Legislature, the Executive, the University, and the judgment of the people.

But as the Legislature has not complied with my respectful request, I can now but obey that other provision of the constitution which requires the Executive to return to the Legislature such bills as he cannot approve, without his signature, and ask a reconsideration at your hands. And in so doing I desire to disclaim any purpose of embarrassing the University. This institution has performed such an important part in our educational history that every citizen of Michigan must feel an honorable pride in its success. In returning the same, allow me to briefly append the following reasons among the many suggesting themselves for such action.

1. It is unjust to burden the taxpayers of our State to educate foreign students, and with inadequate returns in tuition from them. It is unfair that Michigan, with its 791 students, shall pay approximately $411,110.94 during the next two years, and that 781 foreign students shall receive equal advantages there and pay only about $70,000. The lands from which the university interest fund is derived belonged to us as our portion upon a division of the same among the States, and no citizen of another State has any more right to its benefits without recompense than to any other tax raised for other purposes.

All of the first-class colleges of the eastern States ranking with and even below the University, have found from long experience that they can, and do charge a tuition to foreign students many times larger than the University does. And, were the same provision incorporated into the University bill, that the Legislature wisely, in my opinion, attached to the Agricultural College bill, viz: Requiring foreign students to pay such tuition as would compensate the State for extra expense incurred in their accommodation, then I believe the amount appropriated by this bill might have been materially lessened.

2. I am unchanged in my opinion that a greater part of the $75,000 item asked for the purpose of an experimental and chemical laboratory, should be eliminated from the bill. That additions and changes should be made in the laboratory privileges is unquestioned, but I am thoroughly convinced that such additions as are seriously needed can be nearly or quite met by the funds received from the increase in tuition of foreign students above suggested and from the increasing one-twentieth mill tax, which will add $13,000 to former receipts from this source during the next two years.

3. The University has arisen to its present high position with much less appropriations than is provided in this bill, and with no material change in the number of students. I find that during the last two biennial periods there was raised by general taxation for the support of the University, excluding the University interest fund, the following amounts, viz.:

1883-1884.....	$155,900
1885-1886.....	200,500

While, if this bill becomes a law, it will be necessary to raise by taxation for such purposes the sum of $299,110.94 for the next two years.

Believing that the permanent prosperity of the university will be enhanced by a material reduction in the appropriation provided in this bill, and that it will increase the confidence of the people, whose institution it is, in its wise, prudent and economical management, I do hereby respectfully return the same for your consideration.

No. 824. By Mr. Hubbell: Remonstrance of the Kalamazoo Paper Company against the passage of House bill No. 233,

On motion of Mr. Hubbell,

The remonstrance was ordered spread at length upon the journal.

The following is the remonstrance:

Kalamazoo, Mich., June 6, 1887.

Hon. J. A. Hubbell, Lansing, Mich.

DEAR SIR:—My attention has been called to file No. 391, House of Representatives No. 233, to a bill introduced by Mr. Perkins. I think this bill will do great injury to the manufacturing interests of this State, but allude more particularly to Sec. 4 in which, paper, woolen, pulp, drug and chemical factories are prohibited from allowing any of their waste wash-water or spent liquors to find its way into any stream or lake in the State. The copy before me has some interlinings, intended perhaps as amendments, but which in no way would do these manufacturers any good if the bill should become a law. I think the supreme courts of several eastern states have established that wastage from paper mills does not pollute the stream.

I would call your attention to the large amount of wash water used by paper and ground wood pulp mills in the manufacture of their goods. We have one pump supplying our washers with 1800 gallons a minute during the 24 hours of the day. Of course this at times is not so large, and at other times all of it is used and finds its way through the stock that is being washed carrying with each gallon a very small amount of dirt washed from the rags. Our washing of paper stock does not differ very much from the common washing of clothes in laundry or families, except that we use a very large amount in proportion to the rags we wash. The small amount of waste liquor in our business at the present time, which would consist of a very small solution of chloride of lime, soda ash and quick lime only reaches the river in a very dilute condition. I do not think it would be possible for it to be detected by analysis a few hundred yards away. These weak liquids from lime, soda and chloro. lime would have a tendency to cleanse and purify the water, while the fact remains that the 20 years that our mill has been in operation, the fishing in the pond below, within a few hundred rods, is probably better now than it was then. I think that paper and ground wood pulp mills should be stricken from section 4.

Let me say, that should this section pass and be enforced it would compel every paper mill in the State to shut down, as it could find no place where it could otherwise dispose of the waste and refuse washings, from which the strength has been taken so that it should not find its way into any stream or lake in the State. We pump for washing papers about one-half as much water as the city of Kalamazoo pumps for its daily consumption, and would say that it would be impossible for us to dispose of that amount of water so that no part of it should find its way in any stream or river. It is evident that the originator of this bill was not aware of the harmless nature of the small amount of chemicals used in the paper business.

We trust that you will look into the above matter and see that the manufacturing interests of this State are not burdened with prohibitory or useless burdens.

Yours very truly,

P. A. GIBSON,
Superintendent Kalamazoo Paper Co.

We, the undersigned residents of the city of Grand Rapids in Kent county, in said State, respectfully petition your honorable body, and pray that no law be enacted at the present session, affecting rates to be charged for the carriage of persons or goods by the railroads in this State.

In the present condition of affairs we believe that legislation in the direction contemplated by pending measures would prove highly injurious to public and business interests.

On motion of Mr. Crosby,

By a vote of two-thirds of all the Senators elect, the bill was ordered to take immediate effect.

Mr. Wisner moved to take from the table

House bill No. 667, entitled

A bill to amend the charter of the city of Saginaw and to repeal act number 227, local acts of 1883, entitled "An act to revise and amend the charter of the city of Saginaw, and to repeal act No. 496 of the laws of 1867, entitled "An act to revise and amend the charter of the city of Saginaw," approved February 5, 1859, as amended by act number 338, local acts of 1885, approved April 29, 1885,

Which motion prevailed.

The question being on concurring in the amendments made to the bill by the House, as amended by the Senate,

Mr. Wisner addressed the Senate

On motion of Mr. Sharp,

The address was ordered spread at length upon the Journal.

The following is the address:

In the month of February last, Saginaw City, by her chosen representative, presented in the other end of the capitol, a bill to amend and revise the charter of the city of Saginaw. In that bill they sought to extend the boundaries so as to include a strip of territory called Florence, lying upon her water front, extending in length nearly one mile, being about 500 feet wide at one end and 400 feet wide at the other. This territory formed a portion of the territory of Carrollton. The measure met with considerable opposition in the House, mainly for the reason that neither the people of Carrollton who were losing more than two hundred thousand valuation, or the parties owning the strip, most of whom live in East Saginaw, had been consulted in the matter. The township of Florence was stricken from the bill and it came to the Senate for our concurrence. When I, the Senator representing all the territory to be affected, put the provision back, and you endorsed my action by an almost unanimous vote. I told you then, upon this floor, that I acted in the interest of consolidation, and that the annexation of this strip of land to Saginaw City was a long stride in that direction. I told you that my name did not appear upon the tax roll of either city. That I did not own one dollar's worth of property and was not engaged or interested in any business whatever in either city. That I lived in the country three miles away from the river, from which point I calmly surveyed the contest between the two cities. But I told you that for twenty years I had been an advocate of the consolidation of the two cities, and I advocated the annexation of this strip of land as the entering wedge, as the key-stone to the grand arch, that in the near future should span both cities and unite the business interests of 60,000 people, in a grand effort to build up in the Saginaw valley a city second only to the City of the Straits. But I must not dwell, for I have not the time to indulge in sentiment. The bill went back to the House for their concurrence in the annexation of Florence and a special committee of five Representatives was agreed upon to visit the territory and report. They went there and met the citizens interested, and after hearing arguments upon both sides of the question, came back and unanimously reported in favor of the Senate amendment annexing Florence, and also in favor of a consolidation of Saginaw City, Florence and Carrolton and East Saginaw into one city, and the chairman of the committee offered an amendment to the Senate amendments to accomplish that result, and that question is before us.

And now, gentlemen, I want you to read carefully the provisions of that amendment. It provides for the annexation of Florence from and after this date, and the balance of the territory in 1890, after the next enumeration of the general government, so that we can change the formation of our representative districts so as to adjust them to our changed condition. It provides further,

"That six months prior to the next session of the Legislature a committee consisting of three persons from the city of Saginaw shall be appointed by the common council of said city, and a committee consisting of three persons from the city of East Saginaw shall be appointed by the common council thereof, who shall prepare upon a just and equitable basis, so as to properly protect the rights and interests of all the people residing within the territory to be affected by the consolidation of the same, a charter for said city of Saginaw. And, in case of any disagreement of said committee, the questions upon which they disagree shall be submitted to Benton Hanchett, of Saginaw City, who shall act as an arbiter, and whose decision shall be binding and conclusive upon said committee, as to the provisions of said charter.

And provided, That in case one of said cities shall neglect or refuse to appoint such committee, then the committee appointed by one of the said cities shall act and perform all the duties imposed by this amendment, with said Benton Hanchett added as aforesaid, who shall then act as one of said committee, and the compensation of said committee shall be audited and allowed by the common council appointing the same. And said committee shall submit the charter so prepared to the next legislature for its adoption.

I had the honor to draft that provision, and in doing so I had but one object in view, and that was to guard and protect the rights of all. I gave them three members on the west side where they have a population of sixteen thousand, and on the east side with a population of thirty-five thousand I only gave them a committee of three. And then so as to make the weak stronger, to make them understand that no wrong could under any circumstances be done them, I selected as final arbiter a man upon the west side in whom all have confidence, one of the best lawyers in this State. A man of ability, integrity and high moral worth, who has spent the best years of his life in promoting the growth of Saginaw City, where he has accumulated large property interests, and who is to-day in favor of consolidation. The duty of that committee is to take this tangled web of divers interests and weave them into a charter, that in the language of the proviso shall be upon a just and equitable basis, so as to properly protect the rights and interests of all the people residing in the territory to be affected by consolidation, and then to submit that charter to the next Legislature for its approval." Could anything be fairer? And I stand here to-day for thirty-five, yes, for forty thousand people residing in that territory, to say that we will faithfully carry out and stand by the charter drafted by that committee. That charter comes before the next Legislature and with this enabling act upon the statute books, they will stand by the committee also.

And were I a citizen of East Saginaw, having large property interests there, I should hesitate somewhat before placing myself, bound hand and foot, to the action of a committee, a majority of whom would naturally give their sympathy, at least, to their friends and neighbors upon their side of the river. But as long as the citizens of East Saginaw did not complain, I would be content. I know her people; I know their great, generous hearts; I have lived among them during the best part of my life, and what little money I have, I have made there. I have been honored by them, and if at times I have not been as fully appreciated as I desired, it was my fault, not theirs. And I know they are willing to surrender everything in the charter except the grand idea of consolidation, which has taken possession of them all. We have not only protected them by giving them a majority of the committee, but they have upon their side three members of the Legislature, with but one upon the east side. I believe this representation will continue in the next Legislature, and with this act in their hands, what has Saginaw City to fear?

It has been suggested that the question of consolidating these cities should be submitted to the electors of the localities interested. There is apparent force in the suggestion, because it is apparently in harmony with the principle of the right of each community to govern itself. But it is merely apparent, and is without substance or vitality. There is no question to-day to be submitted except the question of consolidation in the abstract, and upon that question this Legislature does not require the opinion of the electors of these cities in order to form an intelligent judgment. We feel and know that it is desirable that those warring communities upon the banks of the Saginaw, ought to be united and form one great and harmonious community, and that if that can be done upon a basis which shall be fair and equitable, the union will prove not only of incalculable benefit to their people, but to the State at large.

Now, this bill does no more nor less than to say to those people that it is the deliberate judgment of this Legislature that the consolidation of the Saginaws is desirable, is feasible and is inevitable, and that they must take steps looking to such a consummation. This bill, therefore, provides that each of those two cities shall appoint, six months before the next Legislature meets, a committee of three each to draft a charter for the consolidated city, and it makes Benton Hanchett, a resident of Saginaw City, the umpire to pass upon questions in dispute, arising between such joint committees. Is there any reason to doubt that a charter thus prepared will be fair, equitable and acceptable to those people? Be that as it may, when that charter is presented to the next Legislature, and has received its approval, that Legislature can then submit to the people of those cities the question of uniting and consolidating upon the basis presented in that charter. Then, and not till then, will the electors have the question presented in a fair and intelligent manner. Men who now oppose consolidation may then favor it, and some who now favor it, may, when they learn upon what terms and conditions it is to be made, will oppose it. In my judgment that charter could very properly be submitted to the people. But what is to be gained by ascertaining their views upon consolidation now when the terms and conditions are wholly undetermined? Such an opinion would show little and be of no value whatever.

And I was much surprised when I heard his excellency, ex-Governor Jerome, state before the committee on cities and villages the other evening that Saginaw City did not want Florence and did not ask to have it put back in the bill in the Senate. It placed me in rather a delicate position before this body. Saginaw City did not want Florence. Then why was it that a committee appointed by the common council, at the head of which body was ex Mayor Hill, after six months' solemn deliberation, put Florence in the bill? Why was it that a committee composed of these very men who now oppose consolidation, came down here and worked faithfully with me in the House and out of it to have the Senate amendment, annexing Florence, concurred in by that body? Faithfully, earnestly and diligently we worked side by side to that end, and now I find myself deserted by the very men who stood at my back upon this question. They basely and treacherously abandoned me in the thickest of the fight, and I stand solitary and alone, so far as their company is concerned, championing the same cause in which I first enlisted for the war. No! I am not alone! I have rallied to my banner a host of the bravest and best citizens of Saginaw City. And where I had before a few aged men, who had passed the term of enlistment and whose limbs were too weary for the march, and whose whose arms were too weak to wield the sword, I have to-day a gallant army of the young, prosperous and progressive business men of Saginaw City, who have come nobly to my support. And standing here before this honorable Senate to-day, responsible to my constituents, I solemnly declare that I put in the bill the annexation of Florence at the request of some of the best men of Saginaw City, and I hold myself personally responsible for the justice and wisdom of the act. Men who opposed consolidation did not ask me to submit the question to a vote of the people interested. You did not then advocate consulting the men who own the territory. You were willing to take two hundred thousand valuation from poor Carrolton and annex it to your city, leaving her with a township composed of less than two sections and a half of land, without even a petition or a single vote cast in its favor by the people interested. Where, then, was your position upon the question of the right of the people to decide by the ballot, great questions of local interest, which you advocate so strongly to-day? Let Saginaw City vote, but don't let Carrolton vote! Gobble Florence without the consent of her people. But for God's sake don't let us gobble any more without a vote, not of the people to be gobbled, but of the gobbler. The only difference in your attitude and mine upon the question of annexation of Florence was the motive. I wanted Florence for the purposes of consolidation, and I so told the Senate, and had I not frankly told them so, I could not have obtained Florence. You wanted it to prevent consolidation, but you dare not tell the Senate so or the people. But ex-Governor Jerome says, "I did not take any part in it." Of course you did not. You never show your hand when there is any important preliminary step taken to put money in your pocket. You know that three Jeromes and two others own the only street railway between the two cities. You know that it is the most valuable line (for its length) in the whole United States. You know that the citizens of the two cities have just subscribed ten thousand dollars, each side paying half, to purchase a driving park on your side of the river, and that thirty-five thousand people want an independent street car line to that park. And you wanted this strip of land called Florence, so as to control the approaches to the free bridge, and by your common council prevent in the future, as you have in the past, any competition with your street car line. No, David, you did not openly advocate the annexation, but your trusted lieutenants and henchmen were here, who for twenty years have marched to your music and danced when you pulled the wire from behind the screen. And David it has been your selfish resistance to just such measures as this for the public good that shipwrecked your political bark in the wildness of a November storm and sent its shattered fragments down into the depths of an unfathomable sea.

And I want to make another statement right here while upon this branch of the subject. You said before the committee that consolidation did not originate with Saginaw City, but that it was an East Saginaw scheme. I now assert it as a fact that consolidation was put in this bill at the request of a Saginaw City man, who was four years ago your Senator upon this floor, and who for years has been an earnest and eloquent advocate of a union of the cities, and he is backed by more than 600 of your best citizens, who represent two millions of your valuation, men who looking to the future want to end this useless strife, and work together for the benefit of all, but Jerome say, "We have had no trouble, we want peace; let us alone, we are a contented and happy people."

I state what I know to be a fact, as a result of thirty years' observation and twenty-five years' actual residence among you, I never knew the time when there was not more or less trouble growing out of the rivalry between the two cities, but I defy you, in all your malice and hatred of us, in all your bitter vindictive anti-consolidation nest, to find one person who can truthfully point out one single instance where a citizen of East Saginaw, acting for the people, has ever injured you in reputation or estate, while I can point out many acts committed by you not in accordance with that spirit of justice and equity that should exist between man and man. I should not refer to these things at this time and upon this floor had you not dragged some of them from the obscurity where I would fain let them repose forever, and argued them before the committee who made this report.

Why, I remember when you wanted to reach out into the country upon your side of the river and bring the Gratiot and Saint Louis plank road into your city to help your trade, and open up the county on the west and south the city of East Saginaw, issued and gave you her bonds to the amount of $15,000, upon the express condition that that road should be built to some point on Genessee street, opposite the business center of East Saginaw, and after you had commenced the work and constructed the road to the business part of Saginaw City, you sued out an injunction and served it upon the contractor and stopped the work then and there, confiscating over $15,000 without any corresponding benefit to us.

I remember upon another occasion you wanted aid to build the St. Louis railroad, and asked us to subscribe to the stock, and we did so to the amount of some $40,000, upon your express guarantee that a railroad bridge should span the river, and extend the road to our side, and you stopped it upon yours, and for nearly ten years, and until you sold out to another line, we received no benefit from the construction of the road. I have reason to remember this transaction, for you, Jerome, accompanied by a valued and responsible citizen of East Saginaw, came to me, I was poorer then than now, but I put my name to a note for $100 and gave it to you upon this express condition, and I afterwards paid it in full. And how have you rewarded us for these kindly acts. Some years ago we wanted to bridge the river at the foot of Genesee street, so that our citizens who owned this strip of land called Florence and had built valuable industries there, giving employment to hundreds of laboring men, could go back and forth to their business without the aid of the old rope ferry.

You, Jerome, packed your satchel, headed these men opposed to consolidation, as they wended their way to Washington to convince the secretary of the navy that a bridge across the river, although provided with a draw and swing, would seriously impede navigation, and that this great government, in the interest of commerce, should intervene to prevent its construction. My friend Hubbell remembers all about it, for he was an honored member of congress from Michigan at that time, and worked earnestly in your behalf. I remember how you fought us, and the government finally detailed an engineer to go Saginaw and investigate the whole subject, and report to the secretary of war, and the government acted upon his report. He came, he went, and soon the sound of the hammer and the buzz of the saw were heard fashioning the timber and welding the iron and steel that was to span the river and grapple the other shore, as the first cord to bind the two cities together, to be followed later by others, reaching across the river, binding the two cities into one consolidated unit. My friend, did you ever hear of commerce being impeded by those bridges, did you ever hear of a vessel being stranded by them? Was you acting in the interest of commerce when you made that bitter, earnest fight, or rather, did you not look with prophetic eye through the years that have intervened and see a prosperous people crowding that busy thoroughfare, the shores lined with business houses and a mighty people numbering more than 50,000, whose interests are identical, shouting the glad song of consolidation, Peace on Earth and Good will to Man.

And I also remember that at the last session of congress when Tarsney was fighting that memorable fight with Bay City for the location of a United States court, he was confronted with a petition from Saginaw City, praying for its location at Bay City, rather than at East Saginaw. I might recount other instances, but I forbear. The mention of these repeated acts of injustice towards the people of East Saginaw are alike unpleasant and distasteful, and I have only referred to them to refute the argument of his excellency that there was no trouble between the cities, but that they were living near each other as happy and contented as lambs in the same flock, or cooing doves in the same nest.

There have been scores of cities consolidated all over the United States, and mostly in cases where a river has divided the two places. In each of them there has been two business centers and in all of them both centers of business have in the end been improved by consolidation, and the statement that the annexation of South Saginaw to East Saginaw in 1873 "has wholly destroyed South Saginaw as a business center" is wholly and absolutely false. The business and population of South Saginaw has been on the increase from that date to the present time. Property has largely increased in value and no part of the city of East Saginaw is more unanimous and hearty in their demand for consolidation than are the citizens of the 7th and 8th wards, which formerly constituted the village of South Saginaw. And they all point with pride to the benefits they have received from consolidation. No one seeks to cripple the business center of Saginaw City. It is in the near proximity to the court house, and we all concede that no change shall be made in the location of the court house and we firmly assert that the property of Saginaw City will be largely increased in value by joining the cities together. All we seek is to benefit and build up, not to destroy.

No one seeks to destroy or injure the schools of Saginaw City. The proposition is simply ridiculous. Schools are just as well managed in large cities as in smaller ones. Boston has never had any such difficulty, though several times she has added to her corporate limits villages much larger than Saginaw City. Florence has a little school of her own, but no one thought that it would be injured by being thrown into the common system of Saginaw City. We admit that the Saginaw City schools are most excellent, but they are no better than those of East Saginaw, and each may be improved by joining them together, by adopting the best methods on each side of the river and discarding the errors of each. It is nonsense to claim that our schools will suffer by being under one general management.

As to the court house, we admit that Saginaw City raised $100,000, which should have been paid by the county, and when the details of consolidation are arranged by the Legislature we propose that the territory now embraced in East Saginaw shall assume its full share of that indebtedness.

We do not propose to tear up any railroad tracks, to take away any telegraph offices or express offices from Saginaw City. The same business which caused their location where they are will keep them there on both sides the river. Indeed, consolidation will lead to new railroads, and will give us all better telegraph and express service than we now have.

Just where the city buildings would be located it is impossible to state, but a place can be selected which will best accommodate the entire people, and one argument in favor of consolidation now is that neither city has as yet built its city buildings, and when a proper place is selected the new city can build such halls and offices as will be a credit to us all, and the Legislature can, if it chooses, determine in the new charter where such location shall be. In no case will the majority seek to wrong the minority.

As to the postoffice East Saginaw would be the one to complain. Saginaw City has its office, has the name, and would retain it. East Saginaw would cease to be a city at all and would lose its identity at once. Both offices could be left as they are, but undoubtedly the department would at once put them both under one head and free delivery would instantly be given to the entire new city, with stations to accommodate all its people just as they are now, only that the mail facilities of Saginaw City and Carrolton would be immensely benefited by the change. It is simply foolish to claim that the United States government will be unable to get letters to 60,000 people, when they are making such prompt and perfect delivery to places running from 100,000 up to 2,000,000 of people.

As to money put into railroads, the city of East Saginaw has paid vast sums in excess of what has been paid by Saginaw City, to secure such roads. Saginaw City has secured the location of two railroads and only two, and East Saginaw people paid large sums to aid them in securing those. While East Saginaw has secured five roads which run into that city in addition to the two into Saginaw City.

The City of Saginaw will have no portion of it when consolidated that will have done more for its prosperity than the people now living in East Saginaw.

As to the committee sent to examine into the Florence matter they were sent without instructions, as the Journal shows. They viewed the whole ground, heard the whole case, and unanimously recommended that Florence be annexed to Saginaw City and also that this Legislature take steps to consolidate the entire cities and villages into one city. I believe they were right; the House by a vote of 60 to 11 said they were right, and we ask the Senate simply to indorse their decision.

As to the debts of the two cities, I simply assert that no money has been wasted in East Saginaw. Whatever their debt is, they have in sewerage, in water mains, in paved streets, in school buildings and other property something substantially to show for all they owe. When the charter shall be made for the consolidated city, all these matters can be justly and fairly arranged, as they were in the case of South Saginaw, and this act provides for a committee to prepare and present such a charter, which committee is so constituted that Saginaw City certainly cannot complain.

I would further add that the amendments put into this bill by the house, are clearly in the best interests of all the people of the Saginaws. The people of East Saginaw are a unit in favor of a consolidated city. So are the citizens of Florence and Carrolton. A very large number of the people living in Saginaw City also favor it, including half of the common council. On each side of the river that will run through the consolidated city are our main industries. There are located on that stream 46 mills, lumber yards, planing mills, shingle mills and factories of various kinds. A careful canvass of these industries show that out of the entire 46 industries, the owners and managers of 39 of them favor the consolidation scheme and only seven are opposed to it. And of those located on the Saginaw City side of the river, six oppose consolidation and fifteen favor it. We have just raised money to build a union park and fair grounds on the Saginaw City side. Of the money raised for that purpose $20,000, over $15,000 of it was subscribed by men who favor consolidation. They have just raised $8,000 to establish a hospital in Saginaw City, $6,000 of that money is paid by men who favor consolidation.

The Saginaw barrel works, with a capital of $150,000 and by far the largest factory on the Saginaw City side of the river, is owned, over forty thousand dollars of it, by parties outside of the State; of the $100,000 owned in the cities, less than $8,000 of it is owned by men opposed to consolidation, over $90,000 of it by men who favor this union of the two cities. Now, what do we give you for consolidation? We give you an equal interest in $251,924.82 worth of school property upon which we do not owe one dollar. We give you an equal interest in our water-works system, which includes forty miles of iron pipe, including engines and hydrants, which to January 1st, 1887, cost $474,760.39. We give you an equal interest in over 100 miles of plank sidewalk, over ten miles of paved streets, over seventeen miles of public sewers, including all that has been built since 1886, all free from any indebtedness that will ever be assessed upon your territory. We give you a mail delivery by carriers immediately. We expect to help you build a city hall worth at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. We will help you build another free bridge at the foot of Court street, making five bridges in all that will span our beautiful river, binding our cities together with ribs of oak and bands of iron, making our union indissoluble forever. We expect to pay our share of your court house debt, to save the expense of one system of water works and electric lights, one fire and police department, one set of city officers, and we will, to your valuation of four million and a half, add our nine million eight hundred thousand dollars, making over fifteen millions in all, and then with your consent, we will bond the consolidated city for a million to build factories, and set a million wheels and spindles in motion to give employment to surplus labor and make our city the great metropolis of Northern Michigan.

As part of my argument I now send up to the secretary a letter from one of the most prominent citizens of the Saginaw valley.

The secretary then read as follows:

East Saginaw, Michigan, May 20, 1887.

*Hon. C. W. Wisner,
Lansing, Mich.*

DEAR SIR,—I write you in the interest of the bill consolidating the cities of Saginaw and East Saginaw, with some adjacent territory, into one city. These cities lie on opposite sides of the river, extending about four and a half miles along its banks, on the west side of which lies the city of Saginaw, and on the east side the city of East Saginaw. A like distance of four and a half miles, east and west, will reach from the western boundary of Saginaw to the eastern boundary of East Saginaw.

The interests of the people of the two cities are identical. And if no other reason existed why they should be consolidated than the fact that there should be better facilities for the people to get from one side of the river to the other, that alone is sufficient. There is but one street car line extending across the river and this is owned by citizens of Saginaw who are among the most earnest opponents of consolidation. With consolidation effected other lines would cross the river and better accommodation be furnished the public.

The river has always been a barrier, and when a question comes up for bridging the river—and there are now two railroad and four highway bridges across it—there is opposition and dispute. Two of these highway bridges are now owned by the city of East Saginaw and one by the city of Saginaw. The fourth one is a toll bridge and is owned by a private corporation. All the bridges should be free and should be maintained at the general expense, and not at the separate expense of either side of the river. I believe ninety-nine per cent. of the people in East Saginaw favor consolidation, and I believe a majority of the voters in the city of Saginaw are also in favor of it.

Mr. George F. Lewis, editor of the Saginawian and a resident of Saginaw City, a few years ago, in the interest of consolidation, wrote letters to different cities throughout the United States, similarly situated, where consolidation had in fact taken place, as to the result of union. The answers received were uniformly to the effect that those who anticipated failure had been disappointed, and that the results were beneficial to all concerned. Mr. Lewis was in favor of consolidation, and published these answers received by him to show the benefits to be derived from a union of the two cities.

Those who oppose consolidation say that they fear East Saginaw, being numerically the stronger, will not treat them fairly. I do not believe there is any cause for this apprehension. Besides, the seventh and eight wards of East Saginaw would be as likely to work with the wards on the west side of the river as with those on the east side, and by such a union their numerical strength would be the greater. I am sure the disposition on the part of the people of East Saginaw is to treat this matter fairly and in the utmost good faith. As a result of the strife between the two cities the City of Saginaw has been compelled to assume the burden of building the county jail and court house. As an evidence of their good faith, the people of East Saginaw are entirely content to pay their share of the cost of these buildings (and East Saginaw pays forty per cent of the taxes paid in Saginaw county), and thus relieve the City of Saginaw to that extent. As an additional safeguard, the municipal corporation to be formed will be under the care and control of the legislature, and no wrong could be perpetrated but what the legislature could remedy.

It will be readily seen, also, that in the matter of fire protection and police protection much more effective service can be rendered to all in the whole territory, if managed as one jurisdiction. In the matter of the construction of street car lines, the question of gas and electric lighting, the matter of water supply, and in many other departments of municipal government, a greater economy would follow consolidation.

As to the time of passing this bill and the time it should take effect, it seems peculiarly appropriate as it passed the House. If the question of consolidation could be absolutely settled now, and three years' time given the present municipalities and the citizens thereof to shape their affairs, so that they may have a system for united action perfected before the date of union arrives, it would enable everything to start in smoothly, and with none of that friction which would come should there be an immediate union of the municipal governments. I think it eminently wise that the fact of consolidation should be now established, leaving the act of consolidation to follow when there shall have been such mature deliberation as to details of the union as will be likely to prevent mistakes and secure the most beneficent results.

Very respectfully yours,
W. L. WEBBER.

Mr. Wisner resuming spoke as follows:

But the opposition claim that this act of consolidation is illegal, unconstitutional and void. I am tired of this oft reiterated tyrant's plea; a plea so persistently urged, that they would make us believe that the laws and constitution of this country were framed for the purpose of throttling civilization and stopping the wheels of progress in its resistless march. In all great contests fought in the interests it has ever been thus. When our Anglo-Saxon fathers, upon the plains of Runnymede, compelled a reluctant monarch to affix his sign manual to Magna Charta the act was declared unconstitutional. When at a later day the same people dethroned the Stuarts and placed the crown upon the head of the Prince of Orange, prescribing his coronation oath, and teaching royal tyrants that though kings could do no wrong, they could die like other men, the act was declared unconstitutional.

When from the heights of Bunker and from behind the hedgerows of Concord our patriot fathers hurled live thunder and winged deadly bullets at the hired minions of King George, the act was declared unconstitutional. When Massachusetts soldiers shed the first blood of the rebellion upon the streets of Baltimore, marching to coerce the rebellious hosts of Jeff Davis and in defense of the glorious flag of our country, the act was declared unconstitutional.

When Abraham Lincoln, with one stroke of his pen, struck the death note of the rebellion, and enfranchised a race, the act was declared unconstitutional.

When, at the present day, in the interests of the people, and for the good of all, we seek to do what has been done in nearly every State in the Union, the act is declared unconstitutional. Mr. President, this is not idle declamation, it is but illustrating and defining the great law by which civilization and progress throughout the world has overturned her enemies and achieved her victories.

I want to now mention one fact in the history of this contest, unknown to the Senate, but patent to me, from the commencement of this fight: Saginaw City, last fall, in the heat of a political contest, and for the purpose of marching to certain victory, nominated and elected Milo H. Dakin as the representative of their district in the other end of the capitol. Milo H. Dakin was then and is now, an uncompromising consolidationist. He had prepared a bill, and was to present it in the House, to unite the two cities. Saginaw City could not afford to have a man upon the floor representing 16,000 people in her district, who was heart and soul in favor of a scheme opposed to the wishes and hopes of this dozen men, who in the past have ruled that people with a rod of iron, Milo H. Dakin, uneducated, weak perhaps in mind, but sound upon the question of the hour, must go, and they put a legal blood-hound upon his track, who finally entrapped him in a snare deliberately set for him by these men in a saloon. And as long as Milo Dakin's ghost walks these corridors and his blood stains that map, so long as the sobs of his wife and the tears of his disgraced children cry to heaven for justice, so long will this spirit of consolidation march on. It has been said the blood of the martyr is the seed of the church; it is equally true the blood of Dakin is the seed of this consolidation, and poor Shakelton, your mayor, unsophisticated but honest, working side by side with Dakin for consolidation, is now being investigated by these very men with a view to consign him to the same disgraceful political oblivion, into which they have sent their representative.

Dakin and Shakelton might live if they would recant. But Dakin bared his neck and bowed his head to the block as Algernon Sidney did in defense of a great principle. Exclaiming with him when he, like a Roman, like a Christian, exclaimed "Strike, axmen, strike! Algernon Sidney will never rise more till the morning of the resurrection."

More than eighty years ago, upon opposite banks of the Saginaw river, where our cities now stand, there dwelt two Indian tribes who fought many a fierce battle for the mastery, one was the Chippewa, the other the Sioux; the ring of the war whoop broke the stillness of the summer night, and the glittering tomahawk and scalping knife flashed at noonday in God's sunlight as they engaged in the death grapple, and reddened the waters of the Saginaw with Indian blood. There was Toandogane and Neome on the one side, and Kasawsunk and Nocachigame, assisted by their gallant squaws, upon the other.

Go with me to the most populous part of Saginaw City, where, unmindful of the busy hum of industry, they now sleep, and where in digging sewers and excavating to lay water pipe, they have dug up the rusty weapons of savage warfare, and wired together the decaying bones of To-an-dog-ame and Neome, and breathed into them the breath of life. The one represented by Jerome and the other by P. C. Andre, are to-day covered with war paint, and stand upon the banks of the Saginaw river, hurling defiance at their ancient enemy upon the other side. I can see my old friend Andre, rattling his aged bones and clawing the death mold of eighty years from his hair, as he shakes his bony finger at my friend Horr, who represents Kas-a-aw-sunk, upon the other side, holding in one hand a belt of wampum, and in the other the pipe of peace, praying to the great spirit that this unholy warfare may cease, that must inevitably result as of yore, in the annihilation of his people; while To-on-dog-ane Jerome, draws his bow and wings his arrow, and says, in the Indian tongue: "Dam Chippewa, me big Injun, me fight for street railroad." But I forget in the excitement of the moment I have neglected to mention one important personage, whose influence was all powerful in the savage warfare of those early days, she was Twa-cum-e-go-quā the faithful mistress in unholy wedlock to To-on-dog-ane Jerome. She performed his menial duties, skinned his deer he brought from the chase and cooked the catfish and muskrat that he speared upon the marsh, ever present to sing the song of victory, or to chant the wailing death strain over the bodies of her fallen braves. Her raven tresses were parted near the middle, and her dark, flashing eyes gleamed from below a modern bang, and she is to-day represented in the lithe and graceful form of ex-Mayor Arthur Hill, as she fights with savage hatred, consolidation, and champions her claim by right of heirship to all the Indian lands in Isabella county.

Now, gentlemen, I have nearly done. The details of this question may be dry and uninteresting to you, but to me they represent the dreams of my boyhood, the hopes of my manhood, and the consummation of my declining years. Nearly thirty years ago I stood upon the banks of the Saginaw and dreamed this dream, now so nearly to become an accomplished fact. I have fought this question since 1872. I have met the same enemies, and heard the same speeches made by the opposition, from that time until now. I love East Saginaw, I love her people, her history, and her name. To-day we surrender that name, transfer that history to a heretofore avowed enemy across the stream. We say to them: "Take us and do with us as you think best. The idea of consolidation is so dear to us that we are willing to relinquish all else. Make your charter, protect your rights in every possible way, we cheerfully submit to the wise judgment of the next legislature to do what is right to all parties to the contract.

I am satisfied to base my hopes on the future, when the people upon a sober second thought shall render their verdict upon the action of to-day; when the passion shall have subsided and the rancor and jealousy fostered by years of bitter strife shall have passed away, and a happy and prosperous people shall unitedly march forward to the accomplishment of grand results, and when I die I want no better inscription upon the slab that marks my resting place, as I quietly sleep near those who have disagreed with me upon this subject, than the simple words: "He helped to consolidate," and if possible I will send up through the moist earth the richness of a decaying heart to tint the leaf and paint the flower planted by the hand of an appreciative people above my sleeping head. I have done.

Pending concurrence in the amendments,

By unanimous consent,

Mr. Edwards moved to amend the bill as follows:

By adding to the second House amendment the following words:

"And provided further, That no part of the above proviso shall become operative unless at special elections held, as annual elections are by law required to be held in each of the municipalities specified in said provisos within six months from the date of the passage of this act, a majority of the voters voting thereat in each of said municipalities shall vote in favor of the consolidation of said municipalities as provided in this act. The time of holding such special elections shall be determined by the common councils of the cities and the township board of the townships, respectively, to be affected thereby. In case of any special election hereunder the form of the ballots of those voting in favor of such consolidation shall be 'For consolidation, yes;' and the form of the ballots of those voting against such consolidation shall be 'For consolidation, no.' The notices of such special elections shall clearly specify the object thereof, and be printed in as large type as long primer type, and be posted in at least fifty conspicuous places in the municipality where such election is to be held, at least twenty days next before the date of such election, and be published for the same time in a daily newspaper published in such municipality if any is published therein."

Mr. Mayo moved to take from the table
House bill No. 156 (file No. 312), entitled

A bill to provide compensation to stenographers for transcript of cases stenographically reported in the courts for the fifth judicial circuit of the State of Michigan,

Which motion prevailed

The question being on the passage of the bill,

It was then read a third time, and pending the taking of the vote thereon.

Mr. Mayo offered the following substitute:

A bill to provide for the appointment of a stenographer in the fifth judicial circuit of this State, to define his powers and duties, to fix his compensation, and to repeal all laws inconsistent therewith.

SECTION 1. The People of the State of Michigan enact, That a stenographer for the fifth judicial circuit shall be appointed by the governor on the nomination of the circuit judge, whenever the judge of said court shall certify to him that the business of said court is such as to render the employment of a stenographer desirable. The nomination of any circuit judge shall be deemed to be advisory only and shall not make it obligatory on the governor to appoint the person so nominated; but he may appoint some other suitable person in the place of the person so nominated.

SEC. 2. The person so appointed shall take and subscribe the official oath prescribed by the constitution of this State. He shall be deemed an officer of the court, and shall hold his office during the term for which the judge of said circuit shall be elected: Provided, That the court shall have power to suspend him for incompetency, misconduct, or failure to properly perform the duties of his office, and in case of such suspension he shall thereafter cease to hold the office of stenographer, unless when cause shown, the governor shall revoke such order of suspension.

SEC. 3. In case of the death, resignation, removal, or suspension of the stenographer, the governor shall, upon like nomination, appoint a successor to the office; but in case of sickness, temporary absence, or suspension by the court as aforesaid of the stenographer, the presiding judge may appoint some competent person to act in his absence or during such suspension, the expense thereof to be paid by the stenographer holding the appointment, and the person so appointed shall take the oath of office above provided.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of said stenographer to attend upon the circuit court, in each of the counties composing said circuit, during each term thereof respectively, and to take full stenographic notes of all testimony given and proceedings had upon the trial or hearing of cases therein. The stenographer so appointed shall receive a salary of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, which sum shall be paid in monthly installments, as hereinafter provided, out of the county treasury of the counties composing said circuit in proportion to the number of suits, law and chancery, entered and commenced in the circuit court for such counties respectively the preceding year, upon the order of the clerk of said court, said clerk being hereby authorized and directed to draw such orders and the county treasurer to pay the same upon presentation:

Provided, The circuit judge shall certify thereon that said services have been faithfully performed. To make up and pay the salary fixed as aforesaid, the board of supervisors of the counties composing said circuit shall annually appropriate the amount of said salary, which sum shall be appropriated by said counties, according to and in proportion to the number of suits, law or chancery, entered and commenced in the circuit court for such counties respectively the preceding year, and it shall be the duty of the circuit judge of such circuit, on the first day of January of each year, or as soon thereafter as may be, to apportion the amount of such salary, to be paid by each county in his circuit, on the basis aforesaid, and to notify the county clerk of each of the counties in his circuit of his apportionment thereof: Provided, That the amount already appropriated for the year eighteen hundred and eighty-seven shall be applied on the payment of such salary for the year eighteen hundred and eighty-seven.

SEC. 5. Each and every issue of fact or law tried before the court or jury, and in each and every chancery case in which the proofs are taken in open court, in which the stenographer shall be employed, shall be taxed the sum of three dollars to be paid by the plaintiff or complainant at the commencement of such trial or hearing into the hands of the clerk, and by him paid into the county treasury of the county in which said case is tried or heard. And in case the plaintiff or complainant as the case may be, shall succeed in said trial or hearing, the amount so paid shall be recovered by him as a part of the taxable costs.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the said stenographer upon the order of the court, or upon the direction of the judge thereof, to write out in legible English, a full copy of the notes taken by him on the trial or hearing of any cause, without costs to either party, and to file the same with the clerk of the county wherein such case was tried or heard, for the use of the court and the parties to said cause, and such copy shall be made and filed within such time as the court or judge shall order. It shall also be the duty of said stenographer to write out in legible English, without fee or charge, a full copy of the notes taken by him on the trial of any cause where the same may be necessary on the part of the people, upon the request of the prosecuting attorney, within such reasonable time as said prosecuting attorney may require the same. And in case it shall be necessary to procure a transcript of said stenographer's notes of the testimony and proceedings in any case at law or in chancery, in order to remove such case to the supreme court, then the amount of the stenographer's fees may be taxed, if the appellant shall prevail in the supreme court, as a proper disbursement; and said transcript may be used by the opposite party in proposing amendments to the record.

SEC. 7. It shall be the duty of said stenographer to furnish, without delay, copies of the notes taken by him, or of such parts thereof as requested, or a copy of the testimony of any witness in any cause, written out in legible English, to either party to a cause or his council, and the said stenographer shall be entitled to receive therefor the sum of six cents per folio for each folio so transcribed: Provided, however, That if each party to the cause or proceeding shall at the same time desire such transcript, said stenographer shall furnish each a copy of the same on payment to him therefor of four cents per folio for each copy.

SEC. 8. The stenographer or assistant stenographer who shall take the notes on the trial or hearing in any case shall prefix to his notes of the testimony of each witness the full name of said witness and the date the testimony was taken, and at the conclusion of the trial of said cause he shall securely attach together all of the notes taken in said cause and properly entitle them upon the outside, and within ten days from the conclusion of said trial file the same with the clerk of said court, and when so filed the said notes shall become a part of the files in said cause and of the records of said court: Provided, That said stenographer shall have the privilege, after the said ten days, of taking said notes temporarily from said files for the purpose of transcribing the same upon giving receipt to the clerk therefor.

SEC. 9. In cases tried in the circuit court in which such stenographer shall be engaged, sections one and four of an act entitled "An act to declare and establish the practice in charging or instructing juries and in settling the law in cases tried in circuit courts," approved March twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, shall not apply.

SEC. 10. All acts and part of acts controvening or inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall be and are hereby repealed.

Following is the bill:

A bill to protect fish and preserve the fisheries of this State, by regulating the meshes of nets and the use of fishing apparatus, prohibiting the fouling of the waters and destruction of fishing grounds by the refuse of manufacture or other debris, and to repeal sections 1, 2, 3, 8, 10, 11, 12, and 13 of act No. 350 of the session laws of 1865, approved March 21, 1865; sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 of act No. 188 of the public acts of 1875, approved May 1, 1875, and section 4 of act No. 141, of the public acts of 1883, approved June 2, 1883.

SECTION 1. The People of the State of Michigan enact: That hereafter no person shall put or allow his servants or agents to put into the waters of this State any putrid fish, offal, blood, putrid brine, putrid fish, or filth of any description. All putrid fish, fish offal and filth of every description accruing from the catching and curing of fish shall be burned, or buried ten rods or more distant from the beach or shore.

SEC. 2. No person shall put into the waters any vessel or ship ballast, stone, sand, coal cinder, ashes, long slabs, decayed wood, bark, sawdust, or other obstruction, or any filth on or near fishing grounds, nor within one mile of shore on lakes Erie, St. Clair, Huron, Michigan and Superior, and the bays, inlets and harbors connected with said lakes.

SEC. 3. No mill owner, individual, partnership, or corporation owning, leasing, or operating a saw mill or other property for the manufacture of lumber of any kind, shall put or allow his servant or agent to put sawdust, shavings, edgings, mill tailings, bark, slabs, decayed wood, or any other waste and refuse of lumber manufacture, or any other in which wood is used, into any stream, river, or lake in or bordering this State; but all such refuse shall be burned, or buried, or otherwise disposed of, in such way that it shall not find its way into any such river, stream, or lake: Provided, That the provisions of this act are not to be construed as in any way restricting or preventing the building of piers or docks with slabs or edgings: And provided further, That with saw mills propelled by water power, the provisions of this act so far as it relates to sawdust, shall not be operative until April first, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight.

SEC. 4. No person, partnership or corporation owning, leasing or operating any factory for the manufacture of paper, woolen, pulp, drugs or chemicals of any kind, or tannery, shall place or permit his agents or servants to place in, or run, or waste into a stream, river or lake in or bordering this State, the waste or refuse washings of such manufacture and liquid dye stuff from which the strength has been taken. All such washings, waste and refuse shall be burned, buried or otherwise disposed of in such a way that it shall not find its way into any river, stream or lake. The provisions of this section are not to be construed as in any way restricting the right of municipalities to drain and sewer according to law.

SEC. 5. Every person convicted of violating the provisions of sections one, two, three or four of this act, shall be punished by a fine not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than sixty days, or both, at the discretion of the court; and any person so offending shall also be liable civilly for all damages done to fishing grounds to the legal owners or occupant thereof.

SEC. 6. No person shall place in the waters fronting or bordering land where fish are taken by the legal owner or occupant of the same, any pound net, platform, piers, or any nets or other apparatus for fishing to the extent of the breadth of such legal owner or occupant's lands so far as the channel banks of the rivers, nor within one mile from the beach or water's edge of the lakes, straits, inlets and bays on said waters fronting such lands. Any boat owner, captain of any vessel, or other person who shall willfully run into or molest any pound, or other lawful nets, or fishing apparatus set in the lakes for fishing purposes shall be subject to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars upon conviction of such offense.

SEC. 7. The meshes of pot, crib or pocket (being that part in which fish are finally captured) of pound nets shall not be less than three and one half inches in extension as used. No pound net as used in whatever name or description, having meshes of less size than prescribed in this section shall be used in the waters of this State under penalty of forfeiture of the nets so used, or a fine of not exceeding three hundred dollars for each offense, or both, at the discretion of the court: Provided, That from the first day of September until the close of the fishing season of each year, pound nets of two and one-half inch mesh in extension as used may be used, and the use of such nets shall be further allowed under written permits to be granted by the State game and fish warden, of such sized mesh and at such times, and in such localities whenever and wherever the use of such nets does not result in the capture of immature fish. Such permits may be terminated by the said warden when in his judgment such use results in the capture of immature fish. Such permits shall be revoked by serving a written notice thereof upon the fisherman named or upon his agent or other person fishing with the permitted nets.

SEC. 8. The meshes of the gill net shall not be less than four and one-quarter inches in extension. No gill net shall be used in the waters of this State, the meshes of which are of less size than as fixed by this section, after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, until which time all nets now in use or heretofore purchased may be used. Any violation of this section shall subject the offender to a fine of one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for sixty days, or both at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 9. No seine or fyke net shall be used in the waters of this State, the meshes of which are of less size than three and one-half inches in extension as used under penalty of forfeiture of the nets so used, or a fine of fifty dollars for each offense, or both at the discretion of the court. On the Detroit and St. Clair rivers, Saginaw Bay, Green Bay, and Moville Bay, seines of two and one-half inch mesh in extension may be used from September first to the close of the season each year for the herring fishery, but the State game and fish warden is authorized, and it is made his duty to prohibit the use of such seines wherever and whenever their use results in the capture of immature pickerel (wall-eyed pike), black bass, pike, perch or whitefish. Notice to prohibition to be given in the same manner and with the same effect as provided for revoking permits. No seine shall be used except to be drawn upon shore, or to a dock, to which one rope of the net remains fastened when being set or cast. The use of seines, and every description of drag net, by drifting or towing with boats is prohibited. Every offense against this prohibition shall be punished by the forfeiture of the nets and apparatus so used, or a fine of two hundred dollars, or both at the discretion of the court. Seines shall not be used, set or drawn, except upon the water front of the owner or occupant of the land upon which the dock or platform, with the apparatus for hauling the same, is situated, under the same penalties provided above for the offense of using a seine of less than three and one-half inch mesh in extension.

SEC. 10. The use of false back, aprons, or any other device in pound nets, or any other fishing apparatus which evades the provisions of this act, shall subject the offender upon conviction to a fine of not less than two hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail not more than sixty days or both at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 11. No person shall catch, buy or sell any wall-eyed pike of less weight than one pound in the round, nor any whitefish or lake trout of less weight than one pound when dressed. Possession of fish of smaller size than herein prescribed shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this act. Every person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars and costs of prosecution of each offense.

SEC. 12. No person shall set or use any pound net of any kind in Lake Erie (within the jurisdiction of this State) outside from a line drawn as follows: Commencing at Point Mouille in the township of Berlin, in Monroe county, in this State, thence running south three miles, thence on a straight course south westerly to Turtle Light, thence on the same course to the State line between the States of Michigan and Ohio. Pound nets set from the shores of the islands in Lake Erie within this State shall not be extended further than one mile from shore of said islands.

SEC. 13. No person shall use any pound, trap, stake, gill, or set net, or like device of any kind, for taking fish in any of the waters of the State connecting Lake Huron and Erie, nor fish with any seine or sweep net beneath the ice which may have formed or frozen upon the surface of said water, between a radius of two miles from the outlet of Lake Huron and the mouth of the Detroit river.

SEC. 14. No person shall use any net whatever, or device of any kind for the purpose of catching fish, in the waters of Lakes Erie or St. Clair, within this State, beyond such limits as may be designated in this act. No person shall use any pound, trap, stake, fyke, set-net, or device of any kind for taking fish in the St. Clair river within the jurisdiction of this State, excepting seines not exceeding sixty fathoms in length: Provided, That no new nets or other nets than those now in use on St. Clair river in this State shall be used on St. Clair river for fishing purposes after the passage of this act.

SEC. 15. No person shall attach, either directly or indirectly, to any bridge across the Detroit river, or St. Clair river, or to any pier, part or appurtenance of said bridge, any net or device by which the passage of fish shall be prevented or impeded. No bridge company, or other company, or person having the control of such bridge, shall license or permit, either for hire or gratuitously, by such net or device to be in any way attached thereto, or to any part thereof.

SEC. 16. Any person who shall attempt to divert the natural progress of running whitefish within any of the waters mentioned in the different sections of this act, by shingling, or any other device calculated to frighten or divert such fish from their natural course, shall forfeit the sum of one hundred dollars and imprisonment not exceeding sixty days, at the discretion of the court. Pound nets or seines shall not be construed to come within the provisions of this section when used in compliance with this act.

SEC. 17. It shall not be lawful hereafter to take or catch any fish during the month of November in each year in any of the waters of lakes Superior, Huron, Michigan, St. Clair and Erie, within the jurisdiction of this State, nor in any of the bays of said lakes, by any means whatsoever, excepting with hook and line: Provided, That the provisions of this act shall not apply to prevent in any way the taking of fish for breeding purposes, by the State Board of Fish Commissioners; nor shall it be lawful to catch in any manner except by hook and line any fish within one-half mile of the outlet of any stream emptying into any bay or lake bordering on this State during the months of March, April and May in each year.

SEC. 18. Any person charged with offending against the provisions of any act passed for the protection of fish or regulating the catching of fish, may be tried in the circuit court within whose jurisdiction the offense charged shall be committed, and, upon conviction, such person shall be punished in accordance with the provisions of the section of this act under which conviction is had, and in cases not otherwise provided for by a fine, not exceeding fifty dollars, for each and every offense, and to imprisonment in the county jail until such fine is paid, but not for a period exceeding sixty days.

A bill to provide for the correction of frauds and mistakes in the canvass and returns made by inspectors of elections.

SECTION 1. The People of the State of Michigan enact, That any candidate voted for at any election, conceiving himself aggrieved on account of any fraud or mistake in the canvass of the votes by the inspectors of election, or in the returns made, may, on or before the close of the last day upon which the board of city canvassers meet, if a city or ward office, or district board, or the board of county canvassers meet, in all other cases, present to and file with the clerk of such board, a written petition, which shall be sworn to, setting forth, as near as may be, the error, mistakes or frauds complained of, and the township, ward or district in which they occur, and asking for a correction thereof. He shall at the same time deposit with the clerk of said board the sum of ten dollars for each and every township, ward or district referred to in his petition: Provided, That no candidate shall be required to deposit more than one hundred dollars, which sum shall be paid, in case such petitioner does not establish a fraud or mistake, as set forth in his petition, by the clerk of the board of city canvassers to the city treasurer for the use of the city, and by the clerk of the county or district board to the county treasurer, for the use of the county. Upon filing such petition, making such deposit and giving at least twelve hours' written notice thereof to the opposing candidate, by handing to such candidate a copy thereof, or if such candidate cannot be found, by leaving such copy at the last place of residence, it shall be the duty of such board of canvassers to proceed to make an investigation of the facts set forth in said petition. For such purpose the said board shall have power to cause the ballot boxes used in such election districts to be brought before them. The said board shall thereupon appoint a committee of their own number as follows: The said board shall designate a member who shall be the chairman of said committee, the candidate presenting such petition and the candidate opposed thereto shall each choose a member, and if such candidates or either of them decline to so choose a member, then the board shall designate, and the three thus chosen shall constitute a committee to investigate the errors, mistakes or frauds complained of. Said committee shall, in some public place, where such candidates and their counsel may be present if they so desire, without unnecessary delay proceed to open the ballot boxes from such districts, townships or wards, and to make a re-count thereof as to such candidates, and make correct and full returns in writing under their hands to said board, showing the whole number of votes given, the names of the candidates, and the number of votes given to each, written out in words and figures as upon the ballots. Said committee, upon making such re-count, shall at once return the ballots to their respective boxes, carefully fasten and seal the same and deliver them to the officer having the care and custody thereof. Said board of canvassers, upon receiving the report of such committee, shall accept the same as correct, anything in the previous returns from such township, ward or district to the contrary notwithstanding." Any candidate not receiving a certificate of election, may, for errors apparent upon the face of the returns, have the same examined and corrected upon certiorari to the circuit court of the county, according to the rules and practice applicable to such writs. In all cases where, by reason of such re-count, the petitioner succeeds in establishing a fraud or mistake, as set forth in his petition, receives a certificate of election, the money deposited by him shall be refunded. For fraudulent or illegal voting, or tampering with the ballot boxes before a re-count by the board of canvassers, the remedy by quo warranto shall remain in full force, together with any other remedies now existing,

And which the House re-printed as House file No. 419.

Respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration, and have directed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the amendments made thereto by the House be concurred in, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

No. 847. Mr. Barringer presented the following petition, which was ordered spread at length upon the journal:

Port Huron, Mich., June 16, 1887.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan:

We the undersigned most earnestly protest against the passage of the bill known as "A bill to tax the business of the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine and butterine," for the following reasons:

First, Oleomargarine and butterine are wholesome foods. Their manufacture being legitimate and not against public morals, should be put upon the same footing as other manufactures;

Second, Special taxation is odious and unjust. The burden of taxation should be borne by all citizens equally, according to their wealth;

Third, Oleomargarine and butterine being common articles of food should not be made expensive to the consumer by special taxation. No law or rule of political economy can tolerate a tax in favor of the producer as against the consumer. Such a law violates the most sacred principles of justice, and is a relic of the most cruel and wanton barbarism;

Fourth, The proposed law is an evident attempt to favor one class of people as against another;

Fifth, Such a law, if passed, will fail of its object, being founded on wrong and injustice.

We would regard the passage of the proposed law as one of the most vicious pieces of legislation, and respectfully ask the representatives of the people to give the matter due consideration. We do not believe it any more just to put a special tax upon the sale of oleomargarine than upon the raising and sale of wheat, or the manufacture of flour, or any common article for general consumption.

Chas. K. Dodge,
Wm. M. Cline,
John M. Kane.

Sheldon A. Wood,
Dr. M. Northup,

I object to this tax because the act of congress amply regulates, and we have too many paid agents of the State now. A. E. Chadwick.

Referred to the committee on agricultural interests.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

By the committee on cities and villages:

The committee on cities and villages, to whom was referred

House bill No. 393, entitled

A bill to amend sec. 1 of act No. 257, session laws of 1869, entitled An act to incorporate the city of Hillsdale, approved March 8, 1869, as amended by act No. 253, session laws of 1871, approved March 31, 1871,

Respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration, and have directed me to report the same back to the Senate without amendment, and recommend that the bill do pass, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

EDWARD E. EDWARDS, Chairman.

Report accepted and committee discharged.

On motion of Mr. Edwards,

The bill was laid on the table.

By the committees on claims and public accounts and judiciary:

The committees on claims and public accounts and judiciary, to whom was referred jointly

Senate bill No. 330, entitled

A bill to legalize the issue of bonds by the township of Billings, Gladwin county,

Respectfully report that they have had the same under careful consideration and submit the following as their report thereon, viz: The bill in seeking to legalize these bonds invokes curative legislation on the part of the Legislature. It is a well established principle of jurisprudence, founded upon reason and justice, that legislation of this nature can only be had where there was a warrant of law for the matter sought to be legalized, but through some irregularity, or inadvertance in the proceedings, not affecting the essence or foundation thereof, the matter fails of its true intent. The Legislature can only intervene by a subsequent statute to cure a previous defective proceeding in order that the true intention can be carried into effect and justice and equity may be done. But it would not only be unjust, but entirely beyond the power of the Legislature to impose obligations upon persons or bodies never assumed nor assented to by them.

The facts in brief are these:

It appears that these bonds were issued to take the place of previous township orders, and it also appears that the township never authorized the issuance of said bonds or orders, nor ever thereafter ratified the issuance of the same, but that said orders and bonds were issued by certain township officers, under semblance of law, but without lawful warrant, and there is reason to believe that such issuance was a deliberate, premeditated, fraudulent transaction on the part of such officers, whereby many persons were deceived and suffered grievous loss, and a reproach brought upon the good name and fame of the township of Billings, and the law abiding citizens thereof. We cannot too strongly stigmatize the infamous action of the officers of this township and those conspiring with them to foist upon the community an illegal issue of bonds, ostensibly a security "upon the faith and credit of the township of Billings, and the property thereof," and though duly signed and sealed in effect nothing but counterfeits. Hence any legislation in the premises would be a mere perfunctory act on the part of the Legislature, and its only effect, if any, an evil. We therefore recommend that the bill do not pass, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

W. I. BABCOCK,
Chairman of Committee on Claims and Public Acts.
 JAY A. HUBBELL,
Chairman Judiciary Committee.

Report accepted and committee discharged.

On motion of Mr. J. W. Babcock,

The further consideration of the bill was indefinitely postponed.

By the committee on military affairs :

The committee on military affairs, to whom was referred

House bill No. 915 (file No. 466), entitled

A bill to provide for the organization, arming, and duties of independent military companies, and the commissioning the officers thereof,

Respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration, and have directed me to report the same back to the Senate, without amendment, and recommend that the bill do pass, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

PERRY MAYO, Chairman.

Report accepted and committee discharged

The bill was referred to the committee of the whole and placed on the general order.

By the committee on State affairs:

The committee on State affairs, to whom was referred

House bill No. 854 (file No. 480), entitled

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

By the committee on appropriations and finance:

Your committee on appropriations and finance, to whom was referred

House bill No. 13 (file No. 162), entitled

A bill to equalize State bounties to volunteers in the late war of the rebellion,

Respectfully report that they have had the same under careful and earnest consideration and report thereon as follows:

It will be easily understood by every Senator that the proposition of this bill is gigantic. Its title indicates in truth that it is an appropriation bill, and he who undertakes to estimate or approximate the figures of the appropriation necessary to carry out the terms of the bill will find them such as was never contained in any other bill of this session or of any other session of the Michigan Legislature since its organization, excepting only bills on the same subject as they have appeared at former sessions.

When the State of Michigan commenced to build its capitol it was regarded as a large undertaking, and public sentiment was years in working up to such an outlay of money; but the expenditure contemplated by this bill would build five capitol buildings like this, of which we are so proud. Well, then, does it become us as custodians of the public purse and guardians of the large number of small tax-payers of this State, to ask: Why should such an expenditure be thought of?

It is true that deep down in the heart of every loyal citizen there is a feeling of reverence for that man who, twenty-five years ago, endured the hardships of war. In every walk of life this feeling crops out and is apparent, and in all relations, civil and political, it comes to the surface; naturally we do the soldier honor.

Certainly every member of this Legislature would be proud to record his name as voting to equalize the bounties paid the soldiers in the late war of the rebellion, up to the maximum sum received by anyone. It is equally true that every Legislature for twenty years has been confronted with this proposition, and that every member has heartily wished that he might vote for it, and that the same reason that has prevented each of those Legislatures from voting for such a bill, should also prevent us. What is that reason? To answer this question let us first ask: What claim have the old soldiers for the money? Does the State owe it as a matter of justice or equity, or does the State owe it inferentially and morally, or is the question only one of philanthropy and patriotism? To find an answer to these questions is to dispose of the case; in fact if the first question is answered in the affirmative, if the State justly owes this money let us proceed to pay it. This question was asked February 16th by the House, of the Adjutant General.

Did the State during the years 1862, 1863, 1864 or 1865, make certain promises to pay certain bounties to parties who would enlist in the Union army, but failed to fulfill their promises?

And his answer of Feb. 18, 1887, was as follows:

A careful examination of the orders and letters on file in this office, and also of the laws, fail to show that there were any promises made, either by the legislature or executive of the State, to pay a State bounty to soldiers enlisting in 1861 and 1862, nor at any other time except as follows:

That on March 6, 1863, an act was approved to take immediate effect, authorizing the Governor in his discretion to pay from that date a uniform bounty of not exceeding fifty dollars to each volunteer, including veterans, who might enlist and be mustered in the service of the United States in any regiment, battery, or company heretofore mustered from this State into the military service of the United States, or then organizing in this State for such service: Provided, That no such bounty should be paid to any person enlisted previous to the time when the act should take effect.

The quartermaster general of the State to pay to each volunteer mustered into the service as aforesaid, as soon thereafter as practicable, such bounty as the Governor should have directed to be paid.

That on February 5, 1864, an act was approved authorizing the payment of one hundred dollars to soldiers, including veterans, who should thereafter enlist and should be mustered into the military or naval service of the United States, and be credited on the quota of the State, or any military district thereof, under any call or order of the president or military authorities of the United States or of this State, made or issued since the first day of January, 1864: Providing, That none of the bounties provided for in the act should be paid to any volunteer, being a resident of this State at the time of enlisting, who should be credited to any sub-district, township or ward, other than that in which he was enrolled, or, if not enrolled, where he resided at the time of enlistment.

The payment of this bounty was continued until May 14, 1864, when the appropriation became exhausted and the payment thereof was stopped by virtue of the following published order of the Governor:

GENERAL ORDERS, {	MILITARY DEPARTMENT, MICHIGAN,
No. 3. }	ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, }
	Detroit, May, 14th, 1864. }

The bounty heretofore paid by the State to men enlisting in Michigan regiments, batteries or companies, or in any arm of the regular service, is hereby discontinued from this date, except as to those re-enlisting as veterans in the field after having served two years, and who are properly credited to the State, to whom it will continue to be paid until further orders.

By order of the commander-in-chief.

JOHN ROBERTSON,
Adjutant General.

This order was reinforced by the issue of a proclamation by the Governor dated July 21, 1864, of which the following is an extract:

"As an inducement to enlist, the government of the United States will pay a bounty of one hundred dollars to recruits enlisting for one year, two hundred for those enlisting for two years, and three hundred for those enlisting for three years. Such local bounties will be paid as the people of the several towns, wards, and sub-districts may authorize in pursuance of law. No State bounty can be paid, for the reason that the appropriation made for that purpose is exhausted.

The number of men enlisting between May 14, 1863, the date of the foregoing order, and February 4, 1865, the date of the next act granting bounty, was 9,085.

And that on February 4, 1865, an act was approved authorizing the payment of one hundred and fifty dollars to each volunteer who should thereafter enlist and be properly credited upon the quota assigned to any military sub-district of this State.

JOHN ROBERTSON,
Adjutant General.

Your committee believe this reply of the lamented General Robertson, who was the very man in charge of the whole subject, embraces all the laws, proclamations, and orders relating to it, and we are unable to find therein and the facts connected therewith, any unfulfilled promise. We must, therefore, answer the first question, viz: Does the State owe it as a matter of justice or equity? No. Then as to the second question, Does the State owe it inferentially and morally? It is true that as the necessity for men increased, the amount paid was increased, and that in the last months of enlistment $150 each was paid. But does that fact inferentially or even morally imply any obligation to increase the former payments? Your committee think not, and must therefore answer no. We come, then, to the third and last question, Ought the State to generously and philanthropically give this money?

First, Then this question, can generosity and philanthropy govern in the discharge of the duties of a public office? Where in the constitution or laws of Michigan is there anywhere given authority for discretion in the use of these attributes? Evidently the Legislatures of all these twenty years have believed that they must be just before they could be generous. But in a question of generosity the first point to ascertain is the amount asked. Let us consider what it is in this case. By referring to the House Journal of 1885, page 267, we find General Robertson's answer to this question. He says: "To equalize bounties on the basis of $100 to each man, as near as can now be estimated, would require the sum of $6,783,650, and to make the basis $150 to each man 50 per cent. more, or $10,175,475. Now the chief argument in favor of additional bounties at all is that the sum paid should be equalized, and whatever this proves is in favor of the larger sum, costing more than ten millions of dollars. In fact, if we are not to equalize, there is no argument in favor of anything. So we are confronted with this enormous sum of ten millions.

Second. Can generosity be asked now on the ground that the State or its citizens have not been liberal before? Recall to mind the large local bounties paid by cities, villages, towns and individuals for volunteers. The Provost Marshal General's report says: Michigan paid $9,664,855, and that officer states in his report that this sum does not include nearly all counties paid, for he was unable to obtain full reports, and from many localities no reports. The State itself paid in bounties $1,684,700. This deducted from the aggregate would show that the amount reported as paid by the localities was $7,980,155. This enormous sum does not show lack of liberality. But this is not all. When the soldier was enlisted, liberality had only just begun. Recall the law which provided by counties for the families of soldiers during their absence. There are no doubt, many men in this Senate who were supervisors during those years of the war and who dealt out to the wives and children of those soldiers, five, ten, fifteen and even twenty dollars per month for years. The aggregate of these sums never has been, never can be computed.

Recall the Sanitary Commission, the Soldiers' Relief Association, the Ladies' Soldiers' Aid Societies, the Christian Commission, all teeming with life, vigor and benevolence during those years, and say if you can that the State, the counties, the towns and the people were not generous, liberal, lavish. The government also was not inactive. The United States government bounty tables show that prior to December 4, 1863, the government paid $100 bounty, and in 1864 to veterans re-enlisting $400, and to recruits $300, which was continued to the end of the war. Add to this the pensions steadily increasing in number and amount every session since that time until they have reached an annual sum in millions far beyond the early arithmetics, and we must conclude that the government has been and is willing to be most generous in its treatment of the soldier who fought its battles. Yet if additional bounty is desired your committee are clearly of opinion that it should come from the general government for this reason: During the twenty years that have passed since the close of the war our soldier population has migrated from one State to another to such a degree that nearly one-half of the soldiers now residing in any one State were in service in the ranks of regiments from other States.

In proof of this we refer to a volume containing a list of soldiers now living in Iowa, which volume can be seen in the State library. The list contains 733 pages of names of soldiers; 296 pages are names of Iowa soldiers proper and 437 pages are names of soldiers who served to the credit of other states, showing nearly sixty per cent. of her soldier population to have been acquired since the war. Suppose our ratio to be only half as great, or thirty per cent., and these principally are tax-payers, small or large, then bounty by states means the taxation of one soldier for the benefit of another; that is, the Michigan soldier would be taxed to send money to the soldier living now in Iowa.

Third, The Michigan Soldiers' Home, costing the taxpayers $150,000 a year for the care of the old veterans, is a standing full-page advertisement of the fact that the legislators of Michigan, acting independently, but on the example of the general government in Dayton, Ohio, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and other places, are willing and anxious to do their whole duty by those who went to the front and gallantly bared their breasts to the storm of war. It has been said that recruiting officers promised more than they fulfilled. This may be true, and if it is, the State cannot undertake to be responsible for the words of its individual, unauthorized citizens, and no words need be spent upon that suggestion.

It has been urged that the twenty years have passed and that on account of this lapse of time, the computation is too high, but remember this computation was made by the man of all others competent to make it, John Robertson. That very few of the soldiers have died who have not left heirs as justly entitled to the bounty asked as was the soldier is known to all. This, then, is the question that confronts us. Shall we say to the tax-payers of Michigan: Put your hands into your pockets and pay to the old soldiers or their heirs, ten, or even seven millions of dollars; pay this, in addition to all your other taxes; pay this from wheat sold at 75 cents per bushel and wool at 25 cents per pound.

Senators, your committee are patriotic. We honor the soldier, we are glad that seven-eighths of them draw pensions quarterly for greater or less amounts from the general government. We hope and believe the time is near when all of them will be pensioned by the government and thus be able to raise a crop that does not fluctuate in value like the produce of our farms and factories—a crop of perpetual fruitage, that storms and drouth never cut off or diminish.

We wish them all the good of earth, and yet, while this is all true, we cannot say to the forty-acre farmer struggling for existence, who did not happen to be a soldier, or having been one, does not receive a pension, You must take of your frugal savings, or you must deny from your children your ratable proportion of this gigantic sum, to contribute and make up a donation, thirty per cent of which would go out of the State of Michigan entirely, and fifty per cent of which would go to individuals who do not particularly need it and would be in no way substantially benefited thereby.

It has been said that the State would not raise the full amount at one time, but would issue county certificates. This would in no way lessen the sum to be paid, while it would materially decrease its value to the soldier.

Therefore, notwithstanding our admiration and veneration for the soldier, your committee are not able to conclude that the State owes, either in equity or inferentially, this bounty; neither are we able to conclude that it is wise, just or practicable to make such a generous donation.

We therefore report the bill back to the Senate with the recommendation that it do not pass, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

SEC. 7. In all cities having a duly organized police force, it shall be the duty of the police authority, at the request of the school authority, to detail one or more members of said force to assist in the enforcement of this act; and in cities, villages [or townships] having no regular police force, it shall be the duty of the board of education or the school district officers to designate one or more constables of said city, township or village, whose duty it shall be to assist in the enforcement of this act as occasion may require, and said board of education shall fix and determine the compensation to be paid such constable for the performance of his duties under this act. No provisions made for pay, see present law. Members of any police force or any constable designated to assist in the enforcement of this act, as provided in this section, shall be known as truant officers.

any such truant officer or officers to examine into any case of truancy when requested so to do by the district board or by its authorized officers, and to warn such truants, their parents or guardians in writing of the final consequences of truancy if persisted in, and also to notify the parent, guardian or other person having the legal charge and control of any juvenile disorderly person that the said person is not attending any school, and to require said parent, guardian or other person to cause said child to attend the ungraded school, established as provided for in this act, within five days from said notice; and it shall be the duty of said parent, guardian or other person having the legal charge and control of said child to cause the attendance of said child at the ungraded school, established in the city or village. If said parent, guardian or other person having the legal charge and control of said child shall willfully refuse, fail or neglect to cause said child to attend said ungraded school, it shall be the duty of said officer to make or cause to be made a complaint against said parent, guardian or other person having the legal charge and control of such person before a justice of the peace where the party resides, except in the cities of Detroit and Grand Rapids, where complaint shall be made in the recorder's court or the police court thereof for such refusal or neglect and upon conviction thereof said parent, guardian or other person, as the case may be, shall be punished by a fine not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars, and in case of failure to pay said fine shall be imprisoned not more than thirty days in the county jail or Detroit house of correction or until such fine is paid, or the court may, in its discretion, require the person so convicted to give a bond in the penal sum of one hundred dollars with one or more sureties, to be approved by said court, conditioned that said person so convicted shall cause the child or children under his legal charge or control to attend at the ungraded school within five days thereafter and to remain at said school during the full school term: Provided, That if said parent or guardian or other person in charge of said child shall plead inability to cause said child to attend said ungraded school, then said parent or guardian or other person shall be discharged and said justice of the peace or court shall, upon complaint of said truant officer or other person, that said child is a juvenile disorderly person as described in section 2 of this act, proceed to hear such complaint, and if said justice of the peace or court shall determine that said child is a juvenile disorderly person within the meaning of this act, then said justice of the peace or court shall thereupon, after consultation with the county agent, except in the city of Detroit, sentence said child to the Reform School at Lansing or the Industrial Home for Girls at Adrian, as the case may be, until said child shall arrive at the age of 16 years, unless sooner discharged by the board of control of said reform school or industrial home for girls: Provided, however, that such sentence may be suspended in the discretion of said justice of the peace or judge of the recorder's court for such time as such child shall regularly attend school and properly deport himself or herself. It is further provided that if, for any cause, the parent or guardian or other person having charge of any juvenile disorderly person as defined in this act shall fail to cause such juvenile disorderly person to attend said ungraded school, then complaint against such juvenile disorderly person may be made, heard, tried and determined in the same manner as is provided for in case the parent pleads inability to cause said juvenile disorderly person to attend said ungraded school, and it is further provided that no child under the age of 10 years shall be sent to the reform school or industrial home.

SEC. 9. In case any parent, guardian or other person shall fail to comply with the provisions of sections one, three or four of this act, such parent, guardian, or other person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars for the first offense, and not less than ten dollars for each subsequent offense.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the school district board of each district of the State to purchase and furnish, at the expense of the district, such text-books as may in the judgment of said board be necessary for the use of children whose parents are not able to furnish the same, the expense of such books to be levied in like manner as other district taxes. Provided that in any city or village in which an ungraded school is maintained the books used in such ungraded school shall be the same in all respects as those in use in the public schools of said city or village.

SEC. 11. When any of the provisions of this act are violated by a corporation, proceedings may be had against any of the officers or agents of said corporation who in any way participate in or are cognizant of such violation by the corporation of which they are the officers or agents, and said officers or agents shall be subject to the same penalties as individuals similarly offending.

SEC. 12. The directors of any corporation which shall willfully neglect or refuse to obey the provisions of this act, shall, each be liable to the penalties of this act: Provided, That the provisions of this act shall not apply to any of the penal, reformatory, or benevolent institutions of this State.

SEC. 13. Act No. one hundred and forty-four of public acts of 1883, approved June 5th, 1883, and act No. 39 public acts of 1885, approved April 10th, 1885, and act No. 108 public acts of 1885, approved May 21st, 1885, are hereby repealed.

Or it may be constructed of posts, boards and wire in combination as follows: The posts shall be of cedar, tamarack, or oak, not less than seven feet in length and six inches in diameter, to be set not less than two and one-half feet in the ground, at a distance apart of not more than eight feet from center to center. All inequalities of the ground under the fence to be surfaced and leveled so that no animals can pass under the lower strand: Provided, Any railroad company that has already erected fences along the line of its right of way, may allow the same to remain until otherwise ordered by the Commissioner of Railroads; but in such case said railroad company or corporation shall be liable for all damages done to animals or stock coming upon its right of way through or over such fence, but on the trial of any action for damages, if it shall be shown that the fence through or over which such animals or stock entered upon such right of way, was four feet in height and otherwise equal in strength and sufficiency to turn animals or stock, to the fence provided for in this act then no damages shall be recovered. Such right of way fences shall be provided with suitable connecting fences and cattleguards at all highways and street crossings, which shall at all times be kept in effective repair and sufficient to prevent stock of all kinds from passing upon the track of the railroad at such highway or street crossings. And in case of disagreement between the owner of any such lands and the railroad corporations as to the necessity for, location of, or character of farm crossing so applied for or as to the plan or construction of the gates as herein provided, then either party may present the matter in dispute to the commissioner of railroads, who shall proceed to investigate the same as soon as may be, and render his decision thereon, which shall be final and binding upon the parties respectively; and such farm crossings shall be constructed within the time prescribed by the said commissioner of railroads, under a penalty of ten dollars for each and every day that such construction of the farm crossing shall be delayed beyond the expiration of the time fixed for its completion by the said commissioner of railroads. And until such fences and cattle-guards as hereinbefore provided for shall be duly constructed, the company or corporation owning or operating such road shall be liable for all damages done to cattle or other animals thereon which may result from the neglect of such company or corporation maintaining or operating such road to construct and maintain in repair such fences and cattle guards as aforesaid, to be recovered by the owner of such cattle or other animals in a civil action before any court of competent jurisdiction, together with an attorney's fee of twenty-five dollars, to be taxed as costs against the defendant in case of recovery in such action, and after such company or corporation shall have constructed such fences and cattle guards as hereinbefore provided, and while they shall continue to maintain the same in good and sufficient repair, it shall not be liable for any such damages as aforesaid unless negligently or willfully done. And every such company or corporation owning or operating any such railroad shall within two or three months from the time any section or portion of such road is finished and put in general use by running regular trains thereon, and in the case of any roads now in use [* * *] from the time this act shall take effect, erect and maintain the fences and cattle-guards as herein provided. Any violation of the provisions of this section on the part of any railroad corporation owning or operating any railroad in this State, by failure or neglect to construct and maintain fences and cattle-guards as herein required, shall be punished by a penalty of twenty-five dollars per day for each and every day that such neglect or failure shall continue: Provided, That [if] such fences and cattle-guards, shall not be built as aforesaid along such portions of any line of road as is or may be construed north of a line extending due west from the mouth of the Saginaw river, the corporation or company owning or operating any such line of road shall not be liable to the said penalty unless such fence shall be ordered by the commissioner of railroads, but shall be liable to all the other provisions of this section; and if any person shall ride, lead, or drive, or intentionally permit any horse or other animal upon such road and within such fences or cattle-guards [other than farm crossings, or shall injure or destroy, or make openings or passages through or over such fences or cattle-guards], or neglect to close any gates or bars immediately after passing through the same, without the consent of such company or corporation, he shall, for every such offense, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and shall also pay all damages which shall be sustained thereby to the party aggrieved: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the erection of any other fence than that herein provided for, as may be agreed upon in writing between the duly authorized agent or officer of any railroad corporation and the owner of any land through which the road of such corporation shall be in operation.

And the committee further recommend that when so amended, the same be concurred in by both houses, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

And in case of disagreement between the owner of any such lands and the railroad corporations as to the necessity for, location of, or character of farm crossing so applied for or as to the plan or construction of the gates as herein provided, then either party may present the matter in dispute to the commissioner of railroads, who shall proceed to investigate the same as soon as may be, and render his decision thereon, which shall be final and binding upon the parties respectively; and such farm crossings shall be constructed within the time prescribed by the said commissioner of railroads, under a penalty of ten dollars for each and every day that such construction of the farm crossing shall be delayed beyond the expiration of the time fixed for its completion by the said commissioner of railroads. And until such fences and cattle-guards as hereinbefore provided for shall be duly constructed, the company or corporation owning or operating such road shall be liable for all damages done to cattle or other animals thereon which may result from the neglect of such company or corporation maintaining or operating such road to construct and maintain in repair such fences and cattle guards as aforesaid, to be recovered by the owner of such cattle or other animals in

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

No. 851. Mr. Stark presented the following petition, which was ordered spread at length upon the journal:

Byron Center, Mich., June 21, 1887.

Hon. George P. Stark:

DEAR SIR,—I wish to call your attention to the matter of the bill to form school district No. 9 in the township of Byron. I understand the bill has passed the House, but that there will be some opposition in the Senate. I am firmly of the opinion that something should be done in the matter. I have no interest in forming a district, except for the public good. I suppose you understand there are four townships interested, and where there are so many it is very difficult to act in harmony. I believe it best that the Legislature should act in this matter and form school district No. 9.

Yours very respectfully,

SAMUEL TOBEY,

School Inspector for Township of Byron.

Per A. B. T.

Referred to the committee on education and public schools.

No. 852. By Mr. Stark: Remonstrance of Henry H. Masten and Joseph Black, board of school inspectors for the township of Wyoming, Kent county, against the formation of school district No. 9 of Byron township.

Referred to the committee on education and public schools.

No. 853. By Mr. Stark: Remonstrance of S. A. Pelton and Luther M. Porter, board of school inspectors of the township of Byron, on the same subject.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

By the committee on cities and villages :

The committee on cities and villages, to whom was referred

House bill No. 868, entitled

A bill to amend section 10 of an act entitled An act to provide for the taking of private property for public use, and for the opening, extending, widening and straightening of streets and alleys of the city of Detroit, and to repeal act No. 281 of the session laws of 1883, being an act entitled An act to provide for the taking of private property for public use and for the opening of streets and alleys of the city of Detroit, being act No. 354 of the local acts of 1885, approved May 14, 1885,

Respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration, and have directed me to report the same back to the Senate, without amendment, and recommend that the same do pass, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

EDWARD E. EDWARDS, Chairman.

Report accepted and committee discharged.

On motion of Mr. Edwards,

The bill was laid on the table.

By the committee on judiciary:

The committee on judiciary, to whom was referred the resolution of which the following is a copy, viz:

WHEREAS, certain charges of intimidation and fraud are made and of record in our journals in connection with the vote on the constitutional amendment as to prohibition in the city of Detroit; and

WHEREAS, notwithstanding the lateness in the session, and the extent of the vote covered by such charges, the magnitude of the charges themselves seem to demand that they should have proper consideration at the hands of some authority fully competent to consider them, and to report to this Legislature their recommendations in the matter, therefore,

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the judiciary committees of the Senate and House be and they are hereby authorized, acting jointly, to take the matters relating to intimidation, fraud or irregularities in the city of Detroit, or elsewhere, in connection with the late vote upon the prohibitory amendment under advisement, and report their recommendations to this Legislature,

Respectfully report that they have given the subject due consideration, and desire to report as follows: That while they deprecate any infractions of the right of suffrage that may have arisen, they consider it the only function of the Legislature (with the approval of the executive), to enact and repeal laws, and there its authority and power ends with respect to such matters as are referred to in such resolution; that if it should be admitted, as stated in the papers published in the journal, that fraud was practiced at the late election, the true functions of the legislature would be to pass more stringent election laws to meet all just requirements, if the present laws were deemed insufficient to do so, and not to investigate, because such investigation would be very expensive, and entirely barren of results; that the legislature is powerless to prosecute, or cause to be prosecuted, any infractions of the rights of suffrage, even if such infractions were found upon investigation to have been incurred as charged in the journal; that it is not only the privilege of the individual citizen, but his duty, if any such infraction is known to him, to invoke the aid of the courts of law to bring to justice and punishment any person guilty of any such infraction, and to the courts of law only can application be made, and through them redress be had for any disregard of the rights of suffrage.

They therefore report that they have no recommendation to make in the premises and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

The question being on the passage of the bill,

Mr. J. W. Babcock entered the following protest:

Lansing, June 23, 1887.

While I am in favor of the objects of this bill (House file No. 282), yet I protest against its passage in its present form for the following reasons, viz.:

1. That it does not apply to companies organized in this State, and because of that fact permits the compact to continue.

2. Companies organized within this State may, even if this bill passes, make combinations, and companies without the State will adopt the rates fixed by home companies and instruct their agents to write only at the rates fixed by the home companies, and thus the compact will continue and this bill will not have accomplished the object sought.

3. Without so amending this bill as to take in all companies, it will be, in my opinion, improper legislation.

J. W. BABCOCK.

Leave being granted,

Mr. Post moved to amend the bill as follows: By adding the following to the bill to stand as sec. 11.
